Sayings and Doings in Town and County.

ITEMS COLLECTED AND REPORTED FOR THE FREE PRESS.

FANS are low in order.

DOMINION Day approaches.

HAYING has commenced in this vicinity.

LONDON East wants a town hall as well as Acton.

THE season of strawberry festivals has fairly begun.

GRAND celebration in Erin Village on the 1st of July.

GARDEN pliffers are now on their annual nocturnal rounds.

WE tender our thanks to for a basket of fine strawberries.

A FLY is said to have 16,000 eyes. No wonder he is careless where he leaves his speck.

THE BEST ham of the G. T. R. saving machine may now be heard at the G. T. R. station.

MR. W. M. Messels has a patch of fall wheat in his garden which will be ready to cut in a few weeks.

LAST TUESDAY was the longest day in the year. Fifteen hours and twenty-seven minutes from sunrise to sunset.

REV. T. L. Wilkinson is lecturing all this week in the Presbyterian church, Everton, to crowded houses. Subject—Baptism.

QUITE a number of our citizens took in the grand pleasure excursion from Georgetown to Niagara Camp and Niagara Falls, on Tuesday last.

LABORERS are very scarce, all being employed at steady work. The farmers will no doubt have a hard job to get sufficient men during harvest.

THE WITNESS says that criminals are again being introduced. Are the ladies so bound to "fashion" that they will again adopt this unseemly harness?

IT IS SAID that one of our young men doing business on Main street feels so wedded to the marriage of one of our young ladies that he had craps hanging from his front door.

THE Markham Economist of last week says: "There was no service in the Methodist church here of Sunday morning, but Mr. John Speight, of Acton, preached an excellent sermon in the evening."

THE new six foot sidewalk on Mill and Main streets looks well, and is a great improvement on the old one. New sidewalks on Willow, Church, and Elgin streets will now receive the attention of the commissioners.

ACTON is daily growing in favor as a market for farm produce, and as a consequence the merchants here are doing a larger business than ever before. Farmers who heretofore traded in Georgetown, Milton and Guelph, now come to Acton.

THE last meeting of the County Council, held in Milton on the 7th inst., did not possess any great interest. The chief business was the equalization of the county assessment, and the increase of Mr. Pantou's salary as Clerk from $350 to $400 a year.

A large number of Deaf Mutes, from the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, Belleville, passed through here on the G. T. R. the other day, on their way home for summer vacation. They were in charge of Mr. M. Matheon, superintendent of the Institution.

ACTON is a pushing, go-ahead place. The people have a prohibitory, cow-by-lax, street lamps which cost only 30 cts. per unit to light and extinguish them, and in fact "anything else that builds up a town."—Oakville Express. You are right, Bro. We only want a town hall and a cemetery—the former we will have in a few more months and the latter must be had in a very short time.

EVERY day we have evidence that a small boy has no soul. The other day a crowd gathered around a farmer whose wagon load of butter and eggs was fast in a mud bog and while some suggested that he pull him free, and others that he pull him down, the ever present small boy yelled, "It's no use, mister. Yer old horse ain't strong enough. Take him out and hitch on a toll of yer butter."

ON Thursday morning last a special train on the G. T. R., drawn by two engines, in charge of conductor Woods, passed through Acton, containing sixteen car loads of stock and implements, three of baggage, and three coaches of 270 passengers, en route for Emerson and Wilfrid. The passengers appeared to be strong, active men, of the better class of farmers, and just the stamp to do well in any new country.

A CITIZEN complained to us that a number of youths, who should have more respect for themselves and their parents, congregated about the bridge on Main street, near the skating rink, on Sundays and behave themselves in a most disorderly manner. A week ago Rev. Mr. Cameron (blessing and he re-monstrated with the youngsters about their unseemly conduct on the Sabbath, but instead of taking his service they used very insulting language toward him. It is thing unprecedented in "Acton's history." The village constables have been informed of the capers of these youths, and we are certain he will not allow them to desecrate the Sabbath as they have been doing for some time past.

VENNOR's a nuisance.

MARRIAGE while the sun shines.

NEW potatoes will soon be ready for use.

THE hay on the streets should be cut now.

WHO KNOWS anything about Stingle-ign?

ELIGIBLE building lots are being rapidly picked up in town.

THE crows are looking very favorable for an abundant harvest.

IF a pig's leg cured is his hair, is a grown hog's leg a hammer?—Grip.

THERE are no green apples for sale in any of the stores in town.

POTATOES are getting scarce in Acton. We don't mean potato bogs.

THE LICENTION from Guelph to Toronto, on Monday, under the auspices of the St. George's Society was largely attended.

REV. T. A. Moore, of London, preached an excellent sermon in the C. M. church, Eidge town, last Sunday evening.—Plaindealer.

THE Detroit Free Press notes that some of the big wholesale houses have quit drumming and gone to advertising, and find that it pays better.

THE man who says that another will not "argue" on religious matters, usually means that the other will not agree with him in all that he says.

TAKE HALF a teaspoonful of black pepper in powder, one teaspoonful of brown sugar, and one teaspoonful of cream. Mix them together and place them in a room on a plate where flies are troublesome and they will very soon disappear.—Guelph Mercury.

MR. JAMES Matthews, of this village, placed on our table on Monday last, a large stalk of rhubarb, measuring 4 feet in length, and 3 feet across the leaf. When "bashed" up, there was just enough to make 150 rhubarb pies, (made on picnic fountain principle). Who can beat this?

ONE of the most welcome papers in our list of exchanges is the Acton Patriot, published in Acton, Mass., by Mr. O. W. Leach. The Patriot is an eight-page paper, and looks well after the local interests of the town and community it represents. We wish our Acton cotem., of the Stars and Stripes, continued prosperity.

THE COURT of Revision held its final sitting on Tuesday evening last, when several changes were made in the assessment roll, of which notice will be given by the clerk to the parties interested. If unsatisfactory they will have four days in which to make an appeal to the clerk, such appeal to be in writing.

A FEW days ago one of the employees at the G. T. R. station found a bible which has apparently been well studied. Numerous passages are underlined and otherwise marked, and the book is quite a curiosity. A certain chapter was marked by a piece of paper, on which was written, "Holman's Liver Pad." Mr. Rev. G. T. H. agent, will return the volume to the owner if he calls for it.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Geo. Moore, of Brampton, was in town this week.

Rev. Eleazer Sibbald, of Toronto, was in town on Thursday last.

Mrs. Robert Shaine, of Guelph, visited her Acton friends on Thursday last.

Mrs. H. Jenner and Mrs. Geo. Lovoy are visiting their friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicklin, paid their friends in Palermo a visit this week.

Mr. A. R. McNicol of Galt, made a short visit among his Acton friends this week.

Miss Jennie M. Donald, of Beverly, spent a few days this week with her Acton friends.

Mr. Dennis Kelly, who has been residing in Milton for some time past, has returned to Acton.

Mr. P. Leonard, of Detroit Mich., son of Mr. Wm. Leonard of this village, is here on a short visit.

Mr. Richard Moore, of Rockwood, left for Manitoba last week, where he intends to reside for a few months.

Mrs. J. G. Hill, of Monroe, Mich., who has been visiting her friends here for the past few weeks, left for home on Monday.

Mrs. Malcolm Kennedy left here on Saturday morning for Parry Harbor, where she intends to spend a few weeks with her son Tom.

Mrs. F. H. Storey and Mrs. Alex. Second left yesterday morning for Toronto, where they intend spending a few days with their friends.

We are glad to learn that Sammy, eight-year-old son of Mr. Abram Stauffer, who was on the verge of death a few weeks ago, is rapidly recovering.

Messrs. John and George Worden, Alva Stafford and David Bell, who started on a trip to England about five weeks ago, returned yesterday looking hale and hearty, having enjoyed a very pleasant time.

Mr. C. H. Walker and his newly made bride, (Miss Ella Hamilton, of this village) returned from their wedding trip on Friday evening, after visiting friends in Toronto and Collingwood. They left for their new home in Erin Village on Saturday.

Mr. H. P. Moore, editor of this journal, who is a member of the Board of Examiners of the Commercial Department of Albert College, Belleville, left on Friday last to attend the annual convention of that institution, and has not yet returned.

We are glad this week to welcome to our village as former residents the family of our worthy friend and citizen, Mr. J. B. Pearson, who lately purchased the business of A. Scott & Co. We trust the family will like our village and also its inhabitants.

Rev. S. G. Staples, of Cobourg University who will assist the Rev. T. L. Wilkinson in his ministerial duties until about the first of October, preached his first sermon in Acton on Sunday evening, in the Methodist church. The discourse throughout was a masterly one, and was listened to by an appreciative congregation.

WHAT'S wrong with Peter X, the Berlin News man? In his weekly edition, published on Thursday, he says:—"There will be a total eclipse of the moon to-night. Our friend of the News must have been asleep on the Saturday night previous."

THE picnic in Nessagaweya last Thursday was a grand success. Our band boys claim to have been the principal performers at the concert given in the evening, having rendered several vocal & instrumental pieces with admirable effect. We assure at prices of our band boys in the musical line. They are a whole concert, vocal and instrumental, within themselves, and can render the most difficult pieces in most excellent style, from the beautiful "Buckraw Solo" to "Handal's Messiah." They deserve a much greater share of public patronage than they have ever yet received from the hands of our ratepayers.

THE remains of our late citizen, Mr. Josiah Adams, were interred in the Acton cemetery on Friday last, with Masonic honors, the deceased being at the time of his death a member of Walker Lodge, of Acton. The brethren having met at their lodge room, marched in a body to the residence of the deceased, when the funeral procession started for the Methodist church, where an able sermon was delivered by Rev. T. L. Wilkinson, pastor of the church, after which the mournful procession proceeded to the cemetery where the body was interred, with the usual services of the church and solemn ceremony peculiar to the ancient order of Masonry. The Masonic fraternity was well represented by members of Acton, Guelph, and Georgetown lodges. Owing to the absence, at Niagara Camp, of Capt. Shaw, W. M., the Masonic ceremonies were conducted by Bro. H. Lockwood, W. M., of Guelph Lodge, assisted by Rev. Bro. W. J. Piggitt, Chaplain of Walker Lodge. The widow and children of the deceased have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

THE EDITOR is away, and our first attempt at journalism (if he beque.) We are congratulating ourselves accordingly, believing that we should have been enjoying the comforts of the editors' easy chair long ere this. But we are only to have one week's enjoyment, however, as our editor knows but too well the pleasure of a mouse in the forehead chair to let us occupy it for more than one week. We hope that we have pleased our readers, besides affording our editor the benefit of seven days holiday, after all the trials and troubles of eighteen months of married life. However, should any of our readers find anything in these columns distasteful to them in their capacity as engine critics, we trust they will grab their axes and at once extract the obnoxious article—or bring the paper to us and we will cross it out. But don't let the editor see it, or our reputation as journalists will be ruined. But hold! a better thought strikes us which will gain for us circulation; and in this connection we are reminded of the old adage: "It is better to be a good talker than a good doer." (This year growth), meet the editor as he steps from the train tomorrow evening, ask him to take a drink (the will, unless he is afraid of the G. T. R. pump and quietly club him.

THE REOPENING of St. Alban's church, on Sunday evening last, drew a very large congregation. The services were conducted by the Rev. W. J. Piggitt, Incumbent. The musical portion, consisting of choruses, anthems, offertories, etc., being admirably conducted by our citizen, Mr. P. Jarvis, organist, assisted by the church choir. During the past few weeks the church has undergone a thorough renovation, the whole of the interior having been repainted and presents a very pleasing appearance. The walls have been painted cream color, the ceiling lavender, the chancel a rose pink and the woodwork a soft orange, the whole surmounted with a beautiful fresco bordering of mosaic. The organ, which is a new one, and made to order by the Bowmanville Organ Co., at a cost of $500, was procured through the agency of Mr. R. Craze, of this village, and is a very beautiful one, which for finish and tone cannot be beat. It contains sixteen stops, knee swell and grand organ stop, octave coupler and sub bass. Altogether the pastor and congregation of St. Alban's have not a church, which, for pleasing internal effect, stands second to none in the village, and best of all that everything, including the organ, has been paid for.

ON Friday last one of our young men became the possessor of a brand new horse, and being desirous of ascertaining its good points, borrowed a wagon and invited another young man along for the purpose, no doubt, of indulging in the most rapacious game ever, the acquisition. Everything went along as merrily as the famous marriage bells, until opposite the residence of Mr. John McQuinn, east of the G. T. R. station, when the beast, observing a fly on its owner's nose, attempted to knock it off with its heels, but the dash board interfered, though getting a little the worst of it. By this time the ribbons had been transferred to the hands of the invited guest and the owners feet made hasty movements over the back of the seat towards the end of the wagon. Another springing of the business end of the horse, followed by what J. A. B. thought was an earthquake, and the dash board nearly hit the moon, but the owner of the horse—Oh! where was he? This question was not solved until one of the shafts of the wagon was broken, the harness considerably damaged, the guest thrown out and somewhat shaken, and the horse quieted, when a forlorn critter might have been seen crawling out from a corner of the fence, saying, "I—I—I—couldn't get near him 'to stop him," (meaning the horse). This proved to be the brave and handsome possessor of the animal. The horse was then waited home; the rig is now undergoing repairs—the harness likewise; but the dash board has not been heard from since. The guest is now nursing a sore head, and the once proud owner of the horse is quietly chewing that old saying, "He who fights and runs away will live to fight another day."
