HOW IS IT? HOW IS IT?

"How is it," the question is often asked us, that though there seems little of nothing doing in other stores, the spacious rooms of the Lion are generally filled with customers? The reasons are simple and plain :- The people know they can buy from us to better advantage; our large business enables us to buy immense quantities if the price is low enough. Hence we buy chenper than other stores. Our large sales enable us to sell on smaller profit. Hence we sell chesper than other stores. Our large stock, which comprises every Department of the Dry Goods trade, offers variety to suit the wants of every class of customer. Hence customers can always find what they want.

We show a Large Variety. We Buy Chesper and We Sell Chesper. Hence . The LION does the Dry Goods Trade of Guelph.

During the past week we sold thousands of gards of shose splendid Prints at To. per vard, the usual price of which is 124c. We sold scores of pieces of Drees Goods at 124c., the usual price of which is 20 and 25c. We sold hundreds of Paresols at 25 cts, the usual price of which is 50 and 750.
