YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

THEY DIDN'T THINK.

Once a trap was baited
With a piece of cheese;
It worked a week.
It almost under him;
An old rat said, "There's danger;
Be careful where you go!"
"Noneuse," said the other,
"I don't think you know!"
So he walked on boldly;
Nobdy in sight;
Then he took a late,
Cheat the trap together;
Snapped at quick as wuk,
Catching many fast there,
"Cause he didn't think."

Once a little turkey,
Fond of her own way,
Wouldn't ask the old one,
Where to go or stay;
She said, "I'm not a turkey;
Here I am half grown;
Surely I am big enough;
Please let me go."
Old the went into somebody;
Hiding saw her pass;
Soon, like snow, her features
Covered all the grass.
So she made a supper;
For a fly young muck
Cause she was so headstrong
That she wouldn't think.

Once there was a robin.
Lived outside the door,
Who wanted to go inside,
And hop upon the floor.
He said, "I'm not a robin;
You mustn't have me;
Little birds are safest;
Sitting in a tree!"
"I don't care," said robin,
And gave him a tail a dig.
"I don't think the old folks
Knows just what everything
Does to the small ones," said him
Before he'd time to think,
"Oh," he cried, "I'm sorry,
But I don't think."

Now, my little children,
You are not to blame;
Don't you see what trouble
Comes from thinking wrong?
Can't you take a warning
From their dreadful fate,
Who began their thinking
When it was too late?
Don't you see them always safe,
Don't you see you know more
Than any body knows,
Who fail once before,
But when you're warned of ruin,
Pass upon the brink,
And don't get under heading,
Cause you didn't think."

Take Care of The Pennies

Look most to your spending. No matter what comes in, if it goes out; you will always be poor. The art is not in making money but in keeping it; little expense, like mice in a large barn, when they are many, make great waste. Hair by hair, heads get bald; tares by strays the thatch goes off the cottage; and drop by drop the rain comes in the chamber. A barrel is soon empty if the tap-leaks but a drop in a minute. When you mean to save, begin with your mouth; many thieves pass down the red lane. The ale jug is a great waste. In all other things keep within compass. Never stretch your legs further than the blanket will reach, or you will soon be cold. In clothes choose suitable and lasting stuff, not odd tawdry finery. To be wear is the main thing; never mind the looks. A fool may make money, but it needs a wise man to spend it. Remember it is easier to build two chimneys than to keep one going; If you give all to hawk and lard, there is nothing left for the savings' bank. Eat hard and work hard while you are young, and you will have a chance to rest when you are old.

What Little Folks Can Do

This is what three little girls did. Jessie Cruickshank (11), Annie Scamell (11), and Alice Scamell (9), three little girls living in St. John, N.B., talking among themselves made it up between them that they would get up a lot of fancy articles and hold a bazaar, the proceeds to be given to one or more good objects. They quietly went to work in a small room by themselves for several weeks, and they held a sale of the articles so made up and others contributed by friends, and the proceeds amounted to $22, which were divided, part to St. David's Church Sunday School for the Day-spring, the mission schooner, belonging to the Presbyterian Church in Canada; part to the United Church Mission, and the balance to help a poor woman. Cannot some other little girls follow this example?

In a yard was a frisky he-goat.
The boy on the fence didn't know it,
The boy got a scare,
His pants got a tear,
And his mother, the had to sew it,

Golden Glimps

Every shooteth at others and woundeth herself.

If money's not your servant, it will be your master.

Virtue is the safest helmet—the most secure defense.

Those who repeat evil reports frequently invent them.

No rank can shield us from the impartiality of death.

He who foresees calamities suffers them twice over.

A good conscience is to the soul what health is to the body.

There is nothing that needs to be said in an unkindly manner.

He who refuses justice to the defense less will make every concession to the powerful.

Tricks of Trade.

Village postmaster to his wife: "Here is a postal card to Mr. Jones, saying that his brother and five children will be here on Saturday. Now keep that card back till then, and I will be at the station, and when they find no one to meet them I will take them all over for $3."

A Georgia editor says: "Gold is found in thirty six counties in this state, silver in three, copper in thirteen, iron in forty-three, diamonds in twenty-six, whiskey in all of them, and the last gets away with all the rest."

A boy at school, on being asked to describe a kitten made the following graphic statement: "A kitten is quickly remarkable for rustling at nothing whatever, and generally stopping before it gets there." The boy got a prize.

An Englishman knows how to overcome all difficulties. "What shall I do with this ugly heap of rubbish, Pat?" "Dig a hole and bury it," answered the man of invention. "Ah, yes, Pat, but what am I to do with the dirt? I dig out of the hole!" "Well, sir, I would advise you to dig a hole big enough for the whole of it."

An observer has taken 1,000 notes of the conversation of passing young women. Out of that number 780 began with either "And I said to him—" or "He said to me—" "She told me—she said to him—" 120 referred to dresses or hats that were either "perfectly lovely" or "just splendid," and the remainder were pretty evenly divided between comments on other girls, who were "horrid" or "stuck up and haughty," new novels, studies, the summer vacation and the latest scientific discoveries.
