

THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, August 18, 1881.

THE PRESIDENT

It would not be an exaggeration, to say that the anxiety of the Canadian people regarding the fate of the President is equal to that of Americans themselves.

THE COUNTY FAIR

The Fall Fair for the County of Halton this year promises to eclipse any that has before been held here.

ARE ALL MEN EQUAL?

This is a common idea that all men are equal. This never has been the case and never will be.

THE RIGHT MAN AT LAST.

If there were health in a multitude of medical systems, as there is said to be wisdom in a multitude of counsellors, sickness would be unknown in this age.

in the dark, he has actually discovered and applied the true and only means of eradicating the primary cause of disease in the human system.

Acton Village Council

The Municipal Council of this village met in the Council Chamber on Tuesday evening, 9th inst., pursuant to adjournment.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Editor, while willing to open his columns for the free discussion of all matters of public interest, does not hold himself in any way responsible for the opinions of his correspondents.

Mr. Smith's Private Grounds

To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR:—Your remarks respecting Mr. Smith's grounds remind me that I was in Acton on Tuesday last and that I, too, was much pleased with these grounds.

Should be Repaired.

To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR:—I think it is my duty to make mention about the road leading into Acton from the south, which is in an almost impassable condition.

Fast Binding.

To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR:—Having noticed in your last issue several items concerning fast cutting and binding, we submit the following, not boasting, but merely to show that the facts of those mentioned last week in the FREE PRESS can be proven.

A Pleasant Visit.

DEAR SIR:—Will you be kind enough to give the following item space in your widely circulated paper. The writer has just returned from her visit to Washington, Ont., having spent a very pleasant time with the family of Rev. R. Hobbs, late pastor of the Methodist church here.
