TRUMBLY MORRIDO, Dec. 1, 1881. THE PADAME COUNCILLORS SEE

On Priday a warrant was issued by the reeve of this municipality, and den time the produmation was publushed calling a meeting of the electors for to day, at moon, for the purpose of priminating a fit and proper person to fill the vessiony in the council, caused by the resignation of councillor Storey. We de act anticipate an election, a some age of our citizens will no doubt to elected by sociametion. We have no idea as to who will be the favored individual, as very little is being mid in the matter among the ratepayers, of students than ever before. owing, we presume, to the fact that there is so small a portion of the year left in which to serve, that it will make for the year 1889. - Erin Admocate. little difference who is elected. However, it may prove differently when the hour for numination comes.

Many ratepayers are of opinion that this election is unnecessary and un called for, the end of the year being so near at band; but in justice to the action of the reeve we would say that the matter was carefully investigated, and it was found that to transact council business legally during the must be elected.

THORY STALLY START THE

referring to municipal matters and the council of 1882, seems to have awakened an interest among the ratepayers on the subject. In conversation with them, and opinions expressed by them, which we have occasionally overheard, we have gleaned the names of the follow ing persons as eligible for nomination as candidates for the council of 1882 all of whom are likely to be nominated. For the effice of reeve the following names are mentioned :-- A number are of opinion that Mr. C. S. Smith will be re-elected, others think that Mr. Storey is the most eligible man in town for the position, while others name Mr. D Henderson as the right man. For the councillor's chairs there are a large number of worthy men spoken of Messra. Campbell and Speight are named for re-election, while the following additional names are mentioned, Messra. D. D. Christie, Edward Nick lin, Dr. Lowry, James Moore, Col. Allan John Cameron, C. T. Hill, Jas. Brown, Thomas Moore, Anthony Steph enson, Thomas McMackon, J. Fyfe, Wm. Ismond, Paul Jarvis and James Goodall. Other names may be men. tioned as the day for nomination advances, but at present, as far as we can learn, these are the names favored by the ratepayers. Of course we have not had the opportunity of learning from all the above named gentlemen whether or not they will be willing to stand for election, and consequently cannot speak for will be nominated, and we consider it would be an impossibility to say, with in superb style and is sold only by sub- there is no mistake about it. There is any degree of correctness, what citizens scription. will form the council of next year.

Ratepayers, there is no lack or eligible names, go to work, select and canvass your men, nominate them, and do your best to elect them.
