OUR STORY. FORTY DOLLARS FOR FOUR TEETH. An Incident From Real Life. "Elsie," said the child, dabbed away her tears and sprang to the bed, where her father lay bedridden and helpless.

His Way of Doing Good. Over in New Hampshire is a well known eccentric individual, self-constituted curer of all ills, a sort of universal panacea, who with all his eccentricities, has a fund of actual wit that is hard to beat.

Saturday Night Thoughts. Never go back on your friend. Look at the bright side of things. Unless you need a thing, do not acquire it. Youth is too precious to be squandered. Make the most of present opportunities. Hear both sides before forming an opinion. Finish one thing before you begin another. Put up with that which you cannot prevent. Owe no man a cent that you are able to pay him. Save small sums if you want to enlarge one. Zeal, if not headed, is more vicious than virtuosity. Question the sincerity of a friend who flatters you. Respect a man for what he is, not for the clothes he wears. Which is it? Two of our young men went to Guelph one evening last week to see the Misses Jones, two very estimable young ladies there.

Woman's Work. During this meeting, for making little boys, washing little faces, and many other things, we saw some of the following: Teaching catechism; Praying for the sick; Four berries and a chain - Woman's work. Sewing on of buttons; Glueing riddles; Spelling with a kind word; Others' imitations; Guiding clumsy bridges; Ant-emojins; Golden cooks; Entertaining company; And reading recent books - Woman's work. Leading little children; And blessing manhood's years; Showing to the studious; How God's forgiveness cheers; Scattering sweet roses; Along another's path; Smiling by the way-side; Content with what she hath - Woman's work. Letting fall her own tears; Where only God can see; Wiping off another's; With tender sympathy; Learning by experience; Teaching by example; Yearning for the gateway; Golden, pearl, ample; Woman's work.
