"Hail and farewell, O vorager! The self must read the waves: That we have learned of sun and storm Is ours alone to know.

The winds are blowing out to sea:

Take up thy life and go.

WOMAN GOSSIP.

ii I meant to do that I would have accepted was never married before."

widow: A pretty young widow is always a for his kindness, and asking his acceptance public had for the most part forgotten Mrs. pecially exposed, a little tonic, as a grain or pains and penalties and warnings to tree-sheep and cattle with a form of anthrax-displeasing sight. " Yes, so long as she isn't

MARY JANE wants a receipt for preserving the hair. Certainly. Use white sugar, "pound for pound," add enough water to make a heavy sirup, add the hair, and four ounces oleomargarine, boil, strain, and put in stone or glass jars.

"What a rough fellow that Sniggins is!" etulantly exclaimed the Hopedale girl, an apparently verdant couple came over to societies asking for help with their debta. after a struggle with the aforesaid Sniggins his study from the hotel. They had come One woman wrote for money to buy a mournat "Coperhagen." . "He nearly smothered to .town on purpose to be united by this ing dress for herself, and, a tombetone for smother! asked the other miss, naively.

the other day. "No," said the man, 'but I have left my money in the trunk, over at wrote for money for her wedding trouswill hold your baggage while you look for your the hotel !" "He would go right over and seau. baby." He held a baby for a woman once. get it, and be back in a minute. The clergyand she never came back for it, and that was man however, had been bitten before, and

A WOMAN who carried around milk in Paris said a naive thing the other day. One of the cooks to whom she brought milk looked into the can and remarked with surprise: "Why, there is actually nothing there but water? The woman having satisfied hersell of the truth of the statement, said : "Well, if I didn't forget to put in the

Europe constitutes the popular ideal of state. The inter a maiden, the better is who knows of any reason why this couple have money which they desire to put out for Customs and Principles of the Dunkers, with frame and glood together, so as to form the fifty sheep, without distinction, were in automishment. certain of drawing a prize in the matrimoni- Here the usual brief pause was made, would take up money in extreme necessity. al market, and the loveliest litheness re- but very quickly terminated by the groom and are willing to give security, but they mains unwood, while homely corpulence ejaculating in a suppressed voice: "Go know not where to find money. This hath can pick and charge from among a throng of on parson, go on! There ain't no rea- been the reason the scriveners of London cligible suitors. How deep a root this pre- son ? the Tunisian manly bosom may be gathered | an incident that occurred soon after he | to the borrower and lender. This might be from the fact that widowers desirous to located here, when he knew but little of the practised with much advantage to the counmarry again, should they haply, moved by people and nothing whatever of the locality try in each county of England by the means bride whose dimensions are reported to fall professional-looking man, who wished him of note, whose known employment it should some will since of their ore- to come down to Franklin street to," marry be to put out money and take security," &c. vious experience hal access me I them, are me and Lize." To the minister Franklin He further says: "The above was writ cles, conveying a delicate hint that it might | guide into the house, and found he was in a | year, 1683, it seems so convenient everybody concerned in them.

Vanderbilt's Decorations. I took a journey the other day, says a

Paris correspondent, away to the other side of Paris, to that far-off quarter where Bouguereau and other great artists abide, to see the magnificent window in painted glass which is destined for the dining-room of Mr. William H. Vanderbilt's house in New York. This splendid work of sart, which is the largest one of the kind ever, executed for a secular building, is due to the talent of ML Oudinot, who is said to be the first artist in the world in his peculiar line. The subject kings, Francis L and Henry VIII., bn the to attend an interesting clinic by Dr. Lynn Field of the Cloth of Gold. In the centre of of London at a certain number on Broadthe foreground the two young sovereigns, way. Some 600 dectors responded, many magnificent in dress and in appointments, of them accompanied by ladics. They were each mounted on a superb and flery steed, ushered through lines of living curiosities clasp hands, while at the right Queen which Mr. Bunnel had collected and into the Claude of France; surrounded by her at auditorium, where Dr. Lynn said he should tendants, contemplates the greeting of the be happy to decapitate and otherwise disrival monarchs. King Francis rides a snow. member one or inone of them, if any felt Publick Advice. From thence both printed white charger, with trappings of azure and like submitting to the operation. the knights, nobles, spearsmen, etc., in at- in bloody, asking them in the solution was valuable. We have here newspapers and old housekeeper, would tell the whole partendance on the two kings. In the back- clear in their minds, and being answered by ground rise the gorgeous tents erected to the shaking of heads, he confessed that advertising in their inception. A want was ish." shelter the throng of royal and aristocratic neither was it clear to his mind, and the felt, and we see the tentative means adopted personages. The coloring of the work, stage carpenter who was to be his subject for its supply. It is clear from the above which includes some forty or fifty figures, is was strapped against a board at the rear of statement that advertising in newspapers very superb. Nothing can be imagined the stage, a curtain being first drawn in commenced much earlier than is generally richer in effect than is the velvet carpet of front of him to conceal the painful process. supposed. The Publick Advice in 1600 issued and rich gold border extending so far over Lyan seized a heavy pruning knife, and with a grown in 1689 to 16 pages quarto. Probafield that it is fretted by the hoofs of neat twirl removed the left arm of the figure bly the whole of this might not be occupied King Francis' steed, and throws out to ad- strapped to the board. The left leg was by advertisements, but advertising was the vantage the pure white of the animal and next sacrificed. The black cloth was chief object of the publication of this "dithe glittering azure of the silken tassels that next thrown over the head, which was unadorn his bousings. This immense and gor- doubtedly that of the stage carperter, and geous work will, if Lunderstand rightly, fill when the cloth was removed the figure was in one end of Mr. Vanderbilt's dining-room, headless. The doctor offered this part of while at the sides of the room will be placed the man to any lady in the hall who would smaller windows, each painted by M. Oudi- hold it while the dissection proceeded, but not, and representing armer, banners, pano- none volunteered. The figure pointed in some poor family a Thanksgiving turkey, not, and representing armor, balliers, pand- mute appeal with its right hand to the place he was saying to the grocer, "and shall plies, etc., each surmounted by the coat-of- mute appeal with its right hand to the place he was saying to the grocer, "and shall pures, etc., each summent of the part in where the head ought to be, and the Doctor want an extra one this week. Yes, I the splendid ceremonies of the Field of the kindly restored the head, which smiled make at least one soul happy. Cloth of Gold. These escutcheons are all of with gratification. The other members of "Ah! heaven bless you," called out a inquestionable authenticity, having been the body were then thrown at the stage man who had been asking the price of on studied by the artist from the MSS, and carpenter's feet-or, more properly, at his ione, "you are the man who sent me than contemporary records of the time, preserved foot-and he was told to put himself to- turkey last year !" in the national library. M. Qudinot, who gether again while the curtain was drawn "Is that so! You were living on a genial, corteous, and most intelligent for half a minute. At the expiration of street?"

only to add instree to his shready famous license, but to enrich the scantily plenished his work well unless he feels right.

SUPPLEMENT

Acton Free Press.

Catching Cold-Remedies.

producing inequality of temperature.

While it is easy to take cold in midsum-and resplendent jewels. Bandry has already sketched out the ceiling for his drawing room, representing the marriage of Cupid and Payche, and some of the finest antique tapestries that have of late come into the market have been purchased to adorn his library.

Wodding Incidents.

young gentleman from the interior of the livered directly to Mrs. Garfield, and many

Looks like a pretty young widow, table, procured paper and envelope and in- tion of her husband's debts and Mrs. Gardited a note to the clergyman thanking him field's bereavement. While by this time the power to resist an attack. When to be es- ucar the entrance, and all sorts of notices of of the enclosed, at the same time wishing he Garfield's sorrow, this disinterested but inwere able to rive more. The reverend gen- teresting correspondent begged to assure her tleman declared that he wished the that she still bore it in mind and shared same, for the envelope did not contain a with the nation's widow the grief of the na ciergyman narrates an instance in point. He quests.

blandly suggested that masmuch as he was coming back so soon, the bride would wait there ais return. This arrangement seemed to be satisfactory; and the groom started

dilection for capacious charms has struck in | One of Detroit's oldest clergymen narrates with benefit to themselves and commodity

Extraordinary Surgical Feat.

Mr. George O. Starr sent 2,312 invitations

BEGGING OF MRS. GARFIELD. The Curious Letters which She has Received From all Sorts of Poople.

Since the death of her husband Mrs. Garfield has received nearly 1,200 letters, from strangers in all parts of the country, begging for some part of the fund which was sub-A lew years since, says a letroit paper, a benefit. Most of these letters have been deed a vacation journey of nearly five thou-The desired information was given, the sand miles, the delights of which had been Almost equally common is the experience poststamp for the return of her former letter had been omitted. of marrying those who resort to all manner and her husband's picture, in case Mrs. of schemes to evade payment. A well-known | Garfield was not disposed to grant her re-

was then preaching at Dexter, Mich., when | Several letters were received from church "And did you kiss him for his clergyman, they said, and were going on a her son, lately dead. Another, who had lost "tower." The coremony over, the groom one husband in the war, had married anoth-"Will you hold my baby while I look | thrusts his hands deep into one pocket after | er husband who was a worthless and undeafter my baggage !" asked a woman of a another, and then with a well-simulated an- sirable companion. She wanted money to railway man employed in a Cuicago depot, noyance ejaculated: "I declare, Jane, I enable her to leave him. A young girl

Nowspapers and Advertising.

The first English newspaper is generally considered to have been the Public Intelligencer, commenced by Sir Roger l'Estrange for the hotel. He soon returned and said : in 1663, and succeeded by the London "Jane: I can't unlock that peaky trunk of Guzette in 1665. Advertisements are hardly carn. You will have to come over and do met with until the beginning of the followt." Eventually the trunk resisted their com- | ing century. An interesting work was pubbined efforts, for the clergyman never saw lished about two years ago, entitled "A Cavalier's Note-book," consisting of notes came, three pairs of them, and all arm-inand political affairs during the latter half of
arm. It was impossible to decide which the seventeenth century. Among other explorant in the cold and critical North of | He told her to admit them, and in they vatious illustrative of manners and customs semale beauty in the Regency of Tunis. | arm. It was impossible to decide which | the seventeenth century. | Among other Among marriageable young ladies of that was the pair, but, selecting the most con- things which exercise his mind is the diffiprovince slenderness of form and delicacy fused-looking couple he commenced the cere- culty of bringing together persons whose of proportion are regarded with justifiable mony. All went merrily until it came to mutual interest would lie in supplying each aversion as disqualification for the wedded | the charge: "If there be anyone among you other's wants. He says: "Many persons her chance of making, a good and early should not be joined in wedlock let him lawful interest, &c., but they are wholly mateir. To be abhormally obese is to be speak now, or forever after hold his peace." ignorant of the means to do it. Many others have been employed as brokers for money trooped a crowd that showed that he had apprentices, and for the utterance of divers present had never before listened to. That |ed up) the wants either of the buyer or sell-Lize, I'd like to see that fellow get you thereof on the bridle." These remarks are replete with good sense. It seems to us difficult to realize a state of things in which placards and advertisements were unknown. There had, however, been already a movedon, weekly, about the year 1657 which was gave information in very many of these particulars. Quere-If it continues still to do so, or the reason that it doth not." "A. D. 1660 .- There is an office near the Old Exchange, in London, called the office of and private informations of this useful nature are always to be had. But what they print ful in his habits was induced by his friends gayly-clad jester holds two hounds in a leash stage carpenter for his tubject, and invited is no more than a leaf or less in a diurnal. I to take the testotal pledge. His health apgayly-clad jester noins two nounces in a leasn long of the doctors to assist him. After was at this office. The diurnal consisted of peared to suffer, and his doctor ordered him in the immediate foreground to the right, two of the doctors to assist him. After while the rest of the picture is filled with progounding to them an intricate question 16 pages quarto in 1689." Contemporary in- to take one glass of punch daily. while the rest of the picture is miled with propounding to men as formation or any historical subject is always "Oh!" he said, "I dare not, Peggy, the knights, nobles, spearsmen, etc., in at- in biology, asking them if the solution was

"Yes, Talways make a practice of sending

'In the morning. the dais of the queen, its glowing crimson Then, the curtain being withdrawn, Dr. savertisements on a single leaf, which had fore going to bed."

before going to bed but now he shaves in the

The symptoms were, indeed, very suspi-

Holdings in Ireland.

may a gentleman, found om this elaborate work his gentleman, found om this elaborate work his gentleman, found om this elaborate work his presented by him, not may find make the man work and may wife was nearly dead with the parameter whole, though Dr. Lynn told the parameter whole, the parameter whole, the parameter whole, the mast true truet wholly to appearance whole, the was done was accommended to appearance whole, the was truet to some deserving average size of holdings in Ireland is about 27 acres; and indeed the matter, and 224,000 were worther to the the name of farms. It appears that the most curious in structure to the parameter words the mast truet whole of the parameter was accommended to appearance.

At any rate, what was done was accommended the matter to appearance whole the same truet, and 24,000 were worther to the the name of farms. It appears that the most curious in structure of the best of themse were all the most parameters.

At any rate, what was done was accommended the matter to gent and the master to the most married to raise to farme of the best of themse was more than 126,000 who hold between 30 and on some than 126,0

FIREWORK-MAKING. mer, colds are usually more prevalent when | How the Pyrotechnics for "Grand Dis of the sparks of the fire burning within low temperature prevails, though less in clear, steady winter than during the variable spring and autumn. "Catching cold," is usually the result of inequality of temperature in two parts of the body, especially adjacent parts, which disturbs the uniform circulation of the blood. At the place where consens this disturbance occurs, "congestion" arises, this disturbance occurs, "congestion" arises, and the law feather are being made; in another is shed the cases are being made; in another is building sticks are being split up and round-building sticks ar outcome of a recent bombardment.

The Dunkers profess all the fundamental These shells are usually discharged from an lowing day the twenty-five sheep inoculated It is printed as a rather remarkable tact principles of Christian faith. They do not, iron mortar, just as the deadly mussiles of for the first time would all be dead, while those that "Washington's body servant" was not however, believe in the eternal perdition of war are thrown. It has been tound practi- protected by previous "vaccination" with the at the Yorktown Centennial. His absence souls. They have no creed apart from the cabie, however, to make paper mortars of mild virus would be perfectly free from will not appear so strange when it is ex-Bible. What they aim at is to restore sufficient strength to throw up shells of even slight indisposition. A large assemily lained that the old man was down in Texter Christianity to its primitive purity, scrupu- moderate size very effectively. The largest blage of agricultural authorities, cavalry- cutting seventeen cords of wood on that day. lously to follow the precepts and and the of these shells are twelve inches in diameter; officers, and veterinary surgeons having met He wanted to come, but business is business example of the Saviour, and to make religious and are as perfectly spherical and look to at the field the next afternoon (June 1st), and the wood had to be cut. conviction the sole arbiter of conduct in life. be as hard as common balls. family or permiary considerations, select a ties. He was waited upon by a not very of some discreet, honest person in each town They still baptize the neophytes—as their A visitor to one of these case making sheds cordance with M. Pasteur's predictions. At founders at Schwarzenan did-by immers- in which a good fire may be rousing in an two o'clock twenty-three of the "unprotecting them three times, in the name of the open fire-place, will perhaps be rather el" sheep were fead; the twenty-fourth died Father, the Son, and the Spirit. Their startled to notice a number of barrels and within another hour, and the twenty-fifth wont to send the dear departed's girdle and street sounded as aristocratic as would about the year 1659, since when great prac- holy communion is preceded by the rite of jars, which he will be apt to assume are fill in an hour afterward. But the twenty-five leng tenure of the blue ribbon of British einbracelet to the parents of their too erign- Washgton street, but he selmits that he was tice hath been made in this kind within our footwashing. A curious discussion has of ed with firework-making materials of an ex- "vaccinated" sheep were all in perfectly bassies. ous betrothed. On receipt of these arti- a trifle taken aback when he followed his neighborhood, so that now this present late engaged their attention—upon the ques- plosive character. Of course, they are not good condition; one of them, which had been tion whether the single or double mode is of an explosive character, or they would not be expedient to make up for Nature's short—saloon. However, saloon-keepers must be rowers and lenders that I think it is like to the better claim for observance. When the be in a building with a fire in it. These recomings by some judicious treatment, the married as well as other people, was his continue. And I believe the like might be same brother both washes and dries the ceptacles represent the most modern devel- for a few hours, but having then recovered an American Promother both washes and dries the ceptacles represent the most modern develbride's raps and mamma proceed to fatten thought, and he followed on through the practised with great advantage to the counfeet, it is the single mode; when each seropments of the pyrotechnic art. Just take The twenty-five carcasses were then buried an American President. her with assiduity and despatch. For some weeks she leads the life of a Strasburg goods; and, when she has attained the necessary goodly proportions, her nuptials are celebrated to the entire satisfaction of a strasburg of the protection and into the room in a strasburg of the protection and into the protection and p them going around with tub and, towel to day is overpowered with a blue glare that ready certain; and the agricultural public Earl of Winchester, who bequeathed it to got among the slums. The opportunity was wares and commodities." 'It would be finish the ceremony within a reasonable would have fairly astounded Priar Bacon, or now know that an infallible proventive ex. his natural son, father of the present too good to be lost, and under the guise of very expedient if each parish or village time. Foot-washing and communion are the heathen Chines, or John Babington, or ists against the charbon-poison, which is owner. that marriage ceremony be preached such a might have some place, as the church or always administered in the evening; during any other artist in fire of ancient days. We seemed upon the subject of morality as those smithy, wherein to publish (by papers post-seemed upon the subject of morality as those smithy, wherein to publish (by papers post-the afternoon a love foast is held, in command and communion are necessarily nor difficult, as a single man. The Rev. Dr. Storrs of Brooklyn, was last can inoculate a thousand sheep a day. I Saturday night presented with a certified memoration of the supper which Jesus took calorate of baryta, and a dazzling outburst have since learned that this protection is check of $35,000 from his congregation, rehis address had been of no avail, however, er, as such a field to be let, such a servant, he was convinced by the forcibly expressive remark of the groom, as, smiting his fists roemeth convenient that each man that will together, he triumphantly shouted: 'There, sell his horse should tie a mark or sign together, he triumphantly shouted: "There, sell his horse should tie a mark or sign luxuries as coffee and butter, unknown to stances to give depth and intensity, An- out in this country, our own agriculturists nothing like saving up one's money and get-Scriptural Palestine, are not objected to other receptable holds chlorite of potash, a would probably show themselves quite ready ting it in a lump as one grows old. Had his After the love-feast comes the "holy-kiss." source of oxygen gas, without a good supply to avail themselves of it. The minister gives it to the brother that sits of which neither fireworks nor those for next to him on the right; he applies it in whose enjoyment they are made can be exturn, to his neighbor, and thus it is passed pected to be very bright. Some of the colthe world in his peculiar hine. The subject to physicians in New York and thereabouts ment to supply the want. He goes on to along the line, and by the last is carried to oring substances are very perilous. If, for say: "There was a book published in Lon- the next table. The same order is observed instance, a little of a compound of litrate of acter sketch in a paper in the December in a lumip by and bye most of them in the with the women, with the exception that strontia and sulphur and potash—the source called (as I remember) the Pablick Advice. It the first kiss is applied by the minister to of the most vivid red color known to chem- art school : the first sister's hand.

Suspicious Symptoms.

"When do you shave!" the doctor asked. "Then," said the doctor, "shave at night and when Peggy brings you up your hot water, you take your glass of punch just be-

The minister afterward appeared to imrove is health and spirits. The doctor met Peggy soon after, and said : "I'm glad to hear Peggy that your master

after dinner, he shaves at night—he's aye

plays" are Made.

the air outside that the rocket is driven up ward by it, the tail of the comet-consisting

Rocket-making, of course forms a large part

Thus then, it becomes possible to affec-

A Backsliding Carleaturist.

Some years ago there lived in a certain

Waife.

A Rhole Island justice refused to marry a manage of the course of the marry messagers on the ground that he was afraid to couple out the married that it is a contract that it is a contract to a lady the same name. Once of the marry messagers which has been sent to the course of the marry messagers are helded of the course of the marry messagers are helded of the course of the marry messagers of the marry messagers are helded of the course of the marry messagers are helded of the course of the marry messagers are helded of the course of the marry messagers of t

The causes of a cold, named, indicate how | It is not altogether an inviting enclosure to avoid one. Maintaining general vigor for a stranger to make his way into. There by nourishing, well digested food, gives one is a big notice of "Danger" in capital letters two of quinine, taken in advance, may be passers. There are some fifty workshops ease so mild as to bear much the same relausefu! Stimulants, like alcoholic liquors, and magazines dotted over about twenty. tion to severer forms that cow-pox bears to are but a temporary sid; the reaction after one acres of grass land, and the rules and small-pox; and for this artificial affection the first stimulating effects, leaves one more regulations posted up here and there about with the mitigated disorder, Pasteur uses subject to take cold than if the stimulant the place convey the idea-quite an erroneous the term "vaccination." The question that Simple remedies will usually remove a be expected at any moment. Every workcold, if taken promptly, before the congest-shop is roofed with kambinlicon and lined and of all: Does this "vaccination" with ion has produced serious disorganization. with paper, Not a scrap of iron is employ-When struck with a sense of chilliness, 15 ed in their structure—all nails etc., being of against the action of the severe, that is imto 30 drops of Aromatic Spirits of Ammonia, copper. The people employed in them are parted by cow-pox vaccination against Freshman-"Oh! is it so late as that! in half a tumbler of water, will often start a compelled to wear "over-all" books made small-pox? To this question affirmative uniform circulation all through the body, as especially for the purpose without sails, and answers were last year obtained by Profesthis quickly enters the whole and is stimu: garments of woolen, and pockets in which sor Greenfield (on Professor Burdon-Sauderlating. Soaking the feet in warm water, lucifers and other contraband articles might gradually adding warmer water as long as be brought into the place being strictly for sheep and dogs; the former, when "vacall the rest of the body, and often relieves adhered to, every person is searched before cinated" from rodents, and the latter from congestion in any local part. Smart Fric- commencing to work. If it is necessary, as it fluids "cultivated" from outside the living tion upon any part or the whole of the skin surface, or a uniform surface sweating, produces like results. But in these cases, special care must be taken to prevent after-chilling of the feet, or any other part. After of course, only to such of the workshops as the feet heating, wipe dry quickly and cover are devoted to that part of the business involving the use of explosive substances. The same result having been obtained from The best remedy we have found for a re- One or two of the largest buildings are de- experiments made by Pasteur himself, promild cathartic magnesia. This produces a The most interesting feature of it, perhaps, described, it was deemed expedient by one of the state of its own attire and its own flow of fluid, drawn from the blood to the is the making of cases of shells, -those of the Provincial Agricultural Societies of mind, its capability of forgetting whether it alimentary canal, and thus reduces the pres- pyrotechnic oddities that spring into the air France that the important discovery should is ill or well clad to taking a cathartic, is the worst possible little marble mold before him, and pastes in 17th of the same month. The animals all a globe, in which a hole is left open for the inoculated with the strongest charbon-virus, juror in astonishment. "Why, he acknow-charge and fuse by which it is to be ignit d. and M. Pasteur predicted that on the fol- ledges that he is not guilty. the result was found to be exactly in ac-known, or nearly so.

ty feature of the Sydenham displays. The under stress of temptation. There is a story dellion of his side face: public like to see those balls thrown out with of his calling on a new man, with the air of Halloween was celebrated in the old styl exactly an equal force, so as to play just a visitor who is half-ashamed of his errand. at Balmoral Castle, and the arrangements within the same sphere. In order to secure "Sit still," he said, sadly, -"it wont take for the festival were of the most elaborate The fiery balls of color are little jumps of drew out a pocket-book and fell to work on the lawn in front of the castle, and this was composition filled into the case, and separ what proved to be a wonderful caricature of lighted by Princes Beatrice, who was estated from each other by a layer of "dark the freshman's face. It was a thing to take corted by a procession of two hundred torch fire," a little charge of gunpowder being the conceit out of a sitter for half his life- bearers; then a witch was drawn out of the just beneath each. "It is this little charge time, and the sourness and ill-nature for the stable yard on a car, followed by masked of powder which blows them into the air, whole of it—it was so genial with intention figures in a variety of grotesque dresses, and and if all the charges were slike, every ball and so alive with fun. "You see, I knew I after a drum-head sort of trial, she was conaffected; there's semething wrang wi' his would be thrown out a little further than its should have to do it some time or other," he signed to the flames. Queen Victoria repredecessor, because the deeper down in the said, "and I thought I might get it over at mained outside during the sports, and her case an explosion takes place the more, vio- once, if you didn't mind. Please keep it," health and that of the Princess was drunk increase as the tube is filled up, The work, they parted the best friends in the world. man who fills a Roman candle therefore has before him a series of little scoops of different sizes for measuring the powder and uses them in succession, the smallest being used for the first ball put in and the largest for city a merry set of Sootchmen where mirth the ball at the mouth of the tube. The was not always regulated on the cold-water "dark fire" is a composition which only principle. John B. was a prominent memsmoulders, and which, therefore, does not ber. One particularly jolly night the 'malt was made to the fund for Mrs. Garfield. burn down to a second ball until the first had gone abune the meal" and toward the some one of the household informed him that s benial, corteous, and most intelligent for half a minute. At the expension of the household informed him that the sound of the sound of the household informed him that the sound of the so that time ne waited for the foot and my wife was nearly dead with the were held in mere patches of less than one the air. Of all fireworks the rocket perhaps ing disconsolately on the curb-stone not far her is thosevent of his denise. At this he

ALL SORTS.

Near-site-ed .- The man's whose heels flew

Soft, but a hard nut to crack-The dough-

Sausage at wholesale price is dog cheap. After all the books of Euclid are rather

"Laying down the law"-The judge on the point of resigning The prop her time to assist a lady-When

A coal fire is a grate comfort, but a nutmeg often suggests a grater.

"Man wants but little here below." which seens a little more, you know. A book with a loose leaf should be bound ver to keep the peace. Fritz says he can't eat oleomorgarine because it disagresse with him.

When a tenant wishes to hold his dwell-

A good meal for a fast man-Hasty puding house for another year he re-leases it. Ship captains ought to be good dancers. because they are good skippers. If a fellow goes skating for the first time e can never tell what's going to turn up.

ding .- Boston Courier. A good lunch for a best-Sponge cake .- Yawcoo Strauss. Although seeming to do so, emotional actresses rarely weep in their plays excepting

A fashionable young lady, like an inexperienced printer,: makes a great bustle in cor-There are some days when you can't lay up cent, and other days when you can't get They tell us the time is coming when the grasshopper shall be a burden. It is sincerely hoped it will be a dead weight.

Appearances are deceptive One cheese may seem to be the exact counterpart of "Don't be forever sighing for wealth, my son," counselled John's father ; "be content with what you have." "I intend to be content when I have it," replied John. Some one estimates that a million and a half of pies are caten every day in the United States. No wonder Americans as a race are becoming daily more crusty. Horseshoes are now being made of cork. will be a lucky day for the human race when the hind shoes of a mule are made of the Freshman-"Waiter, what time is please!" Waiter-"Je ne sais pas, m'sier. promised to be home before 10."

Recently at the launching of a ship, the orator of the occasion made a bow, pitched nis voice and delivered a few stern remarks masterly style. . "Are you feeling very ill?" asked the phy sician; "let me see your tongue, please.

Never talk about a child's peculiarities becent celd is a moderate movement of the voted to the manufacture of the cases, and bably about the same date, with charbon- fore it. The greatest charm of childhood is lowels with castor dil, or caustic or other a very pretty manufacture it is to watch. virus cultivated in the manner previously its forgetfulness of itself, its utter ignorance them afterward.

One day, as an old, white-haired minister

Tunis Beautics.

Plumpness such as would be considered.

Plumpness such as would be considered in the cold and critical North of the cold and critical North treatment. It is only adding material to layer after layer of brown paper just as a passed through slight indisposition, but at At a trial of a cruminat case the prisoner cook puts into a basin the crust of a meat the end of the month none of them were entered a plea of "not guilty," when one of budding. When two such hemispheres are found to have lost either fat, appetite, or the jurymen at once stood up. The judge dry and hard they are neatly timmed round liveliness, On the 31st of that month, all informed him that he could not leave until

Lord Lyons has now represented England at Paris for fourteen years, an unusually people improdently given him this thousand dollars every year as he went along, he would probably have spent it. This is why clergy men generally are paid small or moderate Richard Whiteing gives the following char- salaries. They are going to get their reward

Century on the American student in the Paris | sweet by and by . . The Abbe Lizzt received a great ovation ists-if a little of this should be left after a I knew one American student, for in- in Rome on his seventieth birthday. His display at the Crystal Palace, it is always stance, who had the curse of caricature upon reception was attended by the principal noeither fired or buried. It is too dangerous him. Whenever he saw a new face it work- bility and the chief musical professors and to attempt to store. All this branch of py- ed on him like a spell. He had caricatured representatives of musical societies in Italy. rtechny is of quite recent development. Forty all the men in his set; not that he wanted to and some of his works were given by a select or tifty years a o colored fireworks were un. do it, but because he could not help it. All chamber band. The great planist and comhis taste for art was for serious work. He poser, in a few sympathetic words, express Perhaps the most delicate and interesting | worshipped Holbein, and if he could have | ed his happiness at meeting so many warm feature of modern firework-making is the helped it he would never have drawn a line friends, and declared that Rome was the charge of Roman candles-those colored to raise a laugh. He was really a strong city in the world he loved best. The shops balls which are puffed out softly into the air man, but now and then he had to yield to are full of his photographs of all sizes, and one after the other without any report, and what he considered his infirmity, like a re- the American sculptor Greenough has just which are always recognized as such a pret- forming tippler returning to his old habits executed an exceedingly fine bas relief me this very careful adjustment is necessary, me long"; and without another word he character. A huge bonfire was prepared on "Why, doctor, he used to shave at night lent it is, the resistance being greater. To ob he added, meekly handing his victim his with full Highland honors, after which viste this, the charge of powder is made to sketch-"it is of no use to me now," and the National Anthem was sung by the company, who numbered nearly four hun passing, he asked, "Do'ye ken whan John - adding with evident emotion, as he turnny B. lives?" "You are Johnny B. your- ed his face to the pillow, "How kind and ny B. lives!" 'You are Johnny B. yourself," was the reply. 'I ken that, man," said Johnny, 'but whaur does Johnny B.

live!"

A London firm has just manufactured
a sporting-knife for Cetewayo, the Zulu mentanh, containing twenty-six instrumenta.

ART WATER AND