THURSDAY MORNING, Dec. 23, 1881.

A CHRISTMAS IF.

Supply a word for each blank so that the meaning of each triplet will rhyme.

Example: Lilly sat up in her little (bed). And gazed at the sunbeams glowing (red). With a happy thought in her ample (head).

"Mamma, is to-morrow Christmas?" "Yes, my darling." "But, mamma, will Santa Claus surely come this?" "What do you think he'll bring to?" "I wish I were Santa Claus, then we'd all have beautiful things would!" "Everybody should have some!" "I'd like my doll a new gold!" "And under a pretty bird!" "I'd give each old tramp a goodly!" "And Maggie as apron white and red!" "And Bob some shoes for his poor bare!" "But mamma, what would I buy for?" "I know—a baby all alive and well!" "With little white frock and tie of—?" "Mamma, what do you laugh for?" "What makes the tears come I do you?" "For fear good Santa will pass you?"

CHRISTMAS BELLS.

Christmas chimes, Oh! hear them ringing. Joyous voices I hear them sing. Gladly welcome in the day, Echo back each joyous lay. Let the earth resound in gladness On this merry Christmas Day. Joy bells ring, ring on your gladness, Dimple all gloom, relieve all sadness, Penetrate within the pale, Of each, and every human heart, Drive all care and grief away, On this joyous Christmas Day. Church bells ring, ring on your cheeriest, Leaving all the far, the nearest To give praise unto Him. Who redeemed the world from sin, Lift your voices, swell the anthem, On this precious Holy Day.

AT THE FUNERAL.

What People Have to Say When Attending Burial Services.

Too bad, isn't it! What did he die of? Too many doctors! How many had he? Six. Killed him between them, eh? Exactly. Too many cooks, etc. That's a handsome coffin. Aren't the flowers lovely? Wonder did he leave much? Hard to tell. Did he make a will? Hadn't time. Was it so very sudden? Not so very, but they thought he'd got well. Didn't the doctors know? There was only one doctor. Heard he had six. No, only one. Why didn't they call in more? Can't say; he'd be a well man to-day if they had. That's so; there's Dr. A. pulled my water through. And Dr. B. cured my cousin. And Dr. C. raised my aunt! There's nothing like a consultation of experienced doctors. Doctors be hanged; humbugs, the whole of them. Kill more than they cure, by a good sight. They come handy in a fit of rheumatism, though. That's different. A man's got to go when his day comes. Will I'd be a dead man long ago only for doctors. Good string of carriages, ain't there? Too many; don't believe in them. I do; they show respect. Show money, you mean. Cheap way of getting a ride, anyway. Who's the undertaker? Pills on style, doesn't he? Do you think the widow will marry? They all do it! Poor thing, it's a pity of her. Oh, he's left her well off! Fine house, isn't it? Yes, if it's paid for. Was his life insured? Didn't hear. Will the relatives go to law? They're at it already. Good for the lawyers. There won't be much left to quarrel over when they get through. There wouldn't be anyway. They say he'd spend freely. Best hearted fellow ever lived; couldn't keep money and see any one in need of it. Never saw any of his liberality. Nor I; always considered him close. Who's the preacher? Don't know, but he seems to have a deal to say. Too much for such a cold day, and so many men standing around. Chills one through, doesn't it? Funeral was to be at two and now half past three. They ought to be more prompt. Would you want to be so prompt as anyone belonging to you? That's so, may be I wouldn't.

A New Calendar.

Frank proposes to rename the months, calling them by names which would be their most prominent qualities.

This would enable children to learn the names readily on the kindergarten plan, and the months, if this sensible plan were adopted, would be named as follows:

January would be Slushy, February would be Slightry, March would be Windy, April would be Rainy, May would be Buggy, June would be Warmy, July would be Rosey, August would be Broilery, September would be Chilly, October would be Frosty, November would be Snowy.

THE TEST OF PERFECT HEALTH.

DISEASES OVERCOME BY MEDICINE.

Sir Astley Cooper said that no man ought to know he had a stomach. Unfortunately, however, the two extremes of luxury and privation teach a considerable portion of mankind that they have stomachs, and very trouble some ones too. The diggers after gold in our gulches, the alluvial of our rivers and our dry plains, suffer much from diseases of this organ, and of the liver and bowels. At present, however, there is much less fear of these complaints than formerly. All intelligent miners are aware that they can be readily cured and cured by the timely administration of Holloway's celebrated Pills. One of the leading forms in which disease of the stomach and bowels exhibit itself in the interior—and we may add in the exterior—is a debilitating diarrhoea. Nothing that has ever been tried either in dysentery or diarrhoea in this country has uniformly succeeded in curing those maladies except Holloway's Pills. It is stated that all cases in which they were administered at the Ballarat Diggings, they did not fail in one. The ordinary medical treatment of diarrhoea appears to be wholly useless in this climate. Probably it is so in any climate. Be this as it may, it is beyond cavil that the Pills arrest the complaint as certainly and almost as quickly as the brakes of a rail car arrest the revolutions of its wheels. There are no ifs or buts about the matter; the cure is a foregone conclusion. Imagine what a Godsend such a medicine must be to the digger. Possessed of it he feels as if endowed with another right arm. The very fact that his chest or knapsack contains such a potent counterblast to disease keeps up his animal spirits and renders him less susceptible of unwholesome influences. Miners bound to the more unhealthy diggings usually provide themselves with an extra supply of both the Pills and the Ointment, as they can always dispose of what they do not want at an enormous profit. It is said, and probably with truth, that the large importations of these medicines have seriously interfered with the profits of the drug merchants. Calomel and jalap, and all the purgatives, alteratives, sudorifics, anodynes, etc., are sadly at a discount in the market. Holloway's Pills and Ointment fill their places in public estimation, and more than fill them in beneficial effect.—The Enquirer.

Parlor Suite—Go by T. F. Oum... Manufacturers of Reapers, Mowers, and Thrashing Machinery, etc., etc. Nothing impure or injurious contains the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy, and general corrector. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores, succumb to its action. Ask your dealer for "Castorine" Machine Oil, and see that the Barrel is branded "Castorine," as none other is genuine. Jacob B. Bloomer, of Virginia, N. Y., writes: "Thomas' Electric Oil cured a badly swollen neck and sore throat on my son a fortnight ago; one application also removed the pain from a very sore toe, my wife's foot was also much benefited—so much so that she could not walk about the house; she applied the Oil, and in twenty-four hours was entirely cured."

Use "Castorine" Machine Oil for all kinds of machinery. It is also excellent for Harness or Leather, making it water and weather proof.

Rest and Comfort to the Suffering. "Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain, both internal and external. It cures Pain in the Side, Back or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Toothache, Lumbago and any kind of Pain or Ache. It will not only quicken the Blood and Heat, but its soothing power is wonderful.

Port Morris Examination have, in some instances, led to the discovery of the scars of completely healed abscesses or sores upon the lung. This of itself shows that the lung tissue when diseased is susceptible of restoration to a sound and healthy condition. Persons afflicted with lung disease may reasonably hope to recover health by the use of well-chosen remedies. For most among these is Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, a thoroughly tested and highly accredited specific for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, spitting of the blood, and other affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Pulmonary infection is promptly arrested by the Cod Liver Oil, and the hypophosphites, which are among the finest reagents used by physicians, revive the lagging energies of the debilitated system.

Nearly $9,000 of an Increase in the Sales at the Right House

During October and November over the sales of October and November 1880. It is particularly gratifying to see the crowds who throng these enormous stores from morning till night. Although they are about four times larger than the most of other stores in town, yet the instrumental success who patronize them after an hour's given room to all the vast length of counters provided for them. The reason of this great success is that Watkins' long experience of thirty-eight years as a buyer has given him a thorough knowledge of the best markets of the world to buy in. Thus his great capital enables him to purchase his goods for cash down at the very lowest possible prices. The mass discounts he gets, amounting to over $4,000 in each year, are a handsome profit alone. His system of selling for prompt cash saves him from loss by bad debts, which for the last two years amounts to $12,000 altogether. The immense amount of his sales enables him to sell his goods at a mere trifles over the cost, and give 50% expense on each dollar's worth sold his sales his average profit for many years. Customers know they get all kinds of Dry Goods, Millinery, Mantles, Dolmans, Dresses, Underclothing for ladies, gentlemen, girls and boys, House Furnishing Goods, including Carpets, Floor Oil Cloths, Linoleum, Lace Curtains, etc., from the lowest to the very best. Hatery and Gloves of all kinds, qualities and prices, Silks, Velvets, Fashions, and almost anything and everything they require, at this enormous house, at the very lowest prices that good, serviceable goods can be sold for. They know they can always get the very latest fashions and best French, English and American styles to be had. They know also that Watkins' system of marking all his goods in plain figures at the lowest cash prices is a guarantee of fair dealing; and that if they send a child for goods it will get them as cheap as they can, and further, that should any mistake be made or an overcharge occur, it will be set right if the bill is brought back and the matter explained to the proprietor. They know also that they will be treated politely, and will not be teased to buy more than they require. Wanted, a Salesman, Mantle makers and apprentices. Remember the Right House is on King Street East, close to Hughson Street, and the name is
