

THE FREE PRESS

TUESDAY MORNING, Jan. 18, 1881.

At Geo. Hynd's Jewelry & Fancy Goods Store, Acton, Ont.
Barrie Woods, Moshon, the Largest Block in Acton.
School Books, Note Paper, Pens and Ink, Scribbling Books, Copy Books, Slates, Watchs, Clocks, Jewellery, Spectacles, Crystals, Knives, Spoons and Forks, Toys, Dolls, Vases, Albums, Geo. Hynd's, the leading store in Acton for Wedding and Birthday Presents. Call in.

BITS OF BREVITY.

Local and otherwise, prepared by the use of the pen and scissor for the readers of the Free Press.

—Have
—You paid
—For the Free Press for
—Eighteen hundred and eighty-two.
—Dull weather for the lighthearted.
—The risk is largely attended when it's open.
—"Tickets, please," at the skating rink to-night.
—Wonder if this year's ice crop will be a failure.

—Valentines are beginning to make their appearance.

—Farmers continue to bring in grain in small quantities.

—The Milton papers were a couple of days late last week.

—A good husband, like a good base-burner, never goes out at night.

—Georgetown is negotiating for the purchase of a new hand fire engine.

—There's not half as great a demand for snow shovels this winter as last.

—There is almost a firewood famine in town. Hardwood is very scarce.

—Acton manufacturers paid to their employees during 1880, over $22,000.

—The first meeting of the new Council will be held next Monday, at 11 a.m.

—Cannot each of our subscriber induce friends to subscribe for the Free Press for 1881?

—Reader, if you are not a subscriber to the Free Press, try it this year—it's only $1.00.

—Milton's municipal matters are badly mixed. Apparently nobody wants to be Mayor.

—Mr. Bengough, the well-known car toonist of Globe, will lecture in Guelph to-night.

—Read the new advertisements in this issue—read all the advertisements—it will pay you.

—The annual meeting of Erasmia Agricultural Society was held in Rockwood last Saturday.

—A physiologist told some of our young men what to make of themselves, one night last week.

—The farm property offered for sale at Agnew's Hotel on Saturday, did not find a purchaser.

—The first meeting of the Fourth Division Court will be held in Matthews Hall, next Wednesday.

—Mr. Wm. Gethrie, of Guelph, will open a dry goods store in Georgetown in a couple of weeks.

—A wedding is on the tapis for next week. A couple of our citizens will be the happy contractors.

—The Fire Brigade of Georgetown has donned a new uniform. Ours in contrast with its old one yet.

—The (Clarendon Pa.) Times is now issued in a semi-monthly. The editor exhibits any amount of enterprise.

—Shouldn't the band have serenaded the new Councillors? They might have re-planned their functions thereby.

—Equine Agricultural Society's annual meeting is being held in the Council Chamber, Waterloo, to-day.

—The son of George, Wm. Cutts, Barrister-at-Law, has been dissolved, Mr. W. H. Cutts, residing elsewhere.

—Hughes & Griffin have opened a branch store in Erin Village. Mr. Griffin will superintend the business there.

—A number of our citizens have been smitten with the Manitoba fever, and have left for the prairie province in the spring.

—Never be at your place of business when a person wants to borrow money of you, because if you are in you will be out, but if you are out you will be in.

—The following typographical error shows the carelessness of a compositor. At a banquet this toast was given: "Women without humor, as a waste."

—This time last year the skaters had put in six or seven weeks of skating, whereas thus far this winter only a few days of the invigorating pastime has been enjoyed.

—Wood wanted at the Free Press office. Those who intend to bring wood for their subscriptions should bring it along at once, otherwise we must have the cash.

—Since the advent of the new year it seems to have been a favorite device among correspondents to send letters dated 1880, with a 2 written over the last 1. They all do it.

—Begin the year well by devoting liberally in the way of advertising for 1881, and if you doubt as to the success of such a determination, first prove satisfactorily to yourself that about is down for such devotees of self-sacrifice.

—The World News (London) is to be found in the Free Press office. It is a long-discreased journal, 180 and 200 pages. —Georgetown Times. —The editor will require to look out for a publisher next time he visits the Free Press office.

—We like to receive news and notices in a few lines, and therefore give them of individuals and firms who have done well during all these years. —Wm. McKellar has made the acquaintance of a good many people, and always manages to get them to read the paper or visit it. —It does not work the same part of what he looks on in the paper as it does on you, you know.

Fancy Goods,
Pens and Ink,
Toilet Soap, Pen-cils, Perfumery, Dolls, etc.

VILLAGE VARIETIES.

—Acton—W.M. Smith, of Acton, has sold his residence to John C. Smith, of Guelph.

—Many lost—see adv.

—Looks like winter again.

—January thaw last Sunday.

—But that snow shovels now.

—Clear year sideways of snow.

—Good Friday is the next holiday.

—Blights were quite numerous in town yesterday.

—Wonder if the new municipal broom will sweep clean.

—A few inches more snow would make excellent sleighing.

—The Free Press says diphtheria is very prevalent in Guelph.

—The merry jingle of the sleigh bells has been heard during the week.

—Correspondents, call down your communications, or we'll have to.

—FORTUNE.—Word has been received here that Mr. Jas. Barber, who recently left Milton for Winnipeg, has just cleared $30,000 on one real estate transaction in that city.—News.

—ONE AHEAD.—The trustees of Acton Public School pay their teachers' salaries monthly, and in this they are alone among the school corporations of the County. The system is commendable.

—FINN HOOS.—A couple of weeks ago Mr. James Anderson, of the Scotch Block, killed two spring pigs, one weighing 378 lbs., the other 350 lbs. Mr. Anderson thinks he can't beaten in this line.

—CALANDER.—We have received St. Jacob's Calendar from the enterprising proprietors, Messrs. A. Vogeler & Co., of Baltimore, Md. The Calendar is the most interesting little book of the kind we have seen this season.

—ONE AHEAD.—The trustees of Acton Public School pay their teachers' salaries monthly, and in this they are alone among the school corporations of the County. The system is commendable.

—FINN HOOS.—A couple of weeks ago Mr. James Anderson, of the Scotch Block, killed two spring pigs, one weighing 378 lbs., the other 350 lbs. Mr. Anderson thinks he can't beaten in this line.

—MUSICAL CONVENTION.—A musical convention under the direction of Prof. Smyth, of Guelph, will be held in this village, commencing on Tuesday, 17th inst., and continuing for four days. A profitable time is expected.

—DEBATE.—The subject for debate at the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association to-night is, "Resolved that married life is more conducive to happiness than single." A full attendance of the members is required.

—AGRICULTURAL.—The annual meeting of Halton Agricultural Society will be held in the Town Hall, Milton, on Wednesday the 18th inst., when officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and other business of the Society transacted.

—FOR MARTIN.—Mr. Wm. Huise, of Nelson, left Milton yesterday morning for the North-west, with the intention of purchasing more land in the vicinity of Bradenton, where he already owns one section, (640 acres).—Chapman.

—IMPROVED.—A splendid playground six feet high now encloses the public school grounds. Including the property recently purchased by the trustees, the play ground contains nearly two acres. Very few school grounds can equal it.

—AUCTION SALE.—Auction sale of real estate, farm stock and implements will take place on lot 11, con. 1, Erin, on Friday, 29th inst. The property belongs to Mr. R. W. Duhar. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock. W. Hemmett, Auctioneer.

—AN EARLY TRAIL.—The Guelph Board of Trade are endeavoring to get the G.T.R. authority to run the Dutch Mail at hour earlier in the morning, so that people can have more time for business when they go to Toronto. They are likely to succeed.

—SUITPORT AGAIN.—An antiquarian has discovered that on account of the manner in which the almanacs were calculated when Mrs. Slipper existed on this mundane sphere, the year does not end till the 24th of next March. The old lady still has a chance.

—THE NEW CORINTH.—Our citizens are waiting patiently for the first meeting of the new council, to see what action the three members who declined to accept the nomination will take. Wonder if they will stick to their assertion that they "will not act if elected."

—EAST CLOTHING.—We're glad to say that the early closing movement among our merchants has now been carried on successfully for over two months. We trust it will be a permanent success, and every merchant who entered the agreement seems anxious to make it stick.

—ENLARGED.—The Palmerston Telegraph appeared last week in an enlarged and improved form. It still clings to the patent outside system though. Have a little more independence, Bro. Lucy, and print your paper all at home. It'll pay. However, we wish you continued success and prosperity.

—CONFUSUM.—One of our village merchants handed us the following conundrum yesterday: "Why does our tonsorial artist delight in cutting the faces of his customers with bay rum?" Because it burns.

We would direct the attention of our readers to the column for star notices of the value he took with him.

the above names below in bold type, and by letter to the editor, in reply to the above.

—NEW BRADFORD.—In Georgetown people seemingly agreed to compensate each other on the loss of 100 lbs. each, by the donation of a few paltry dollars. The following interesting items appear in the last issue of the Georgetown Herald.—"On Monday last upon his return from the funeral of his late wife, the Baptist congregation gave acceptance to the Rev. J. Coult, presenting him with $50, as an expression of esteem and sympathy with him in his sad bereavement.

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN TROUBLE.—The News says: "It seems that Milton is to remain long along in her municipal troubles, the force of opinion having doubtless exerted its influence upon that little hive of industry at the north of this County—the village of Acton. The Free Press says that twenty-two constituents were nominated for the office of Councillor, and that fifteen of them declined the honor at the nomination; four more declined afterwards, leaving only three brave men in the field. They have a town hall scheme of land up there which is said to be a source of some trouble."

—IN