YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

BAD WORDS.

Flash, hush, my lad! Pray don't repeat the bad words spoken in the street...

Stand By Your Colors.

A young man once signed the temperance pledge in his Sunday-school. Several of his companions laughed at him...

One day, when sent to the village on an errand, they met him near the tavern, and tried by coaxing to induce him to take a glass of something...

This happened some years ago. The lad had now grown up to manhood, but not a drop of liquor has ever passed his lips...

What It Costs.

A gentleman was walking in Regent's Park, London, and he met a man whose only home was the poor-house...

"Had you a trade before you became penniless?" "Yes, sir, I was a carpenter by trade."

"Did you ever use any intoxicating drink?" "Oh, no, I only took my beer, but never anything stronger; nothing but beer."

"How much did the beer cost you a day?" "Sixpence." "For how long?" "About sixty years."

The gentleman was figuring on his note book, while he was talking with him. "Now let me tell you," said he, as he finished his calculations...

And the gentleman demonstrated that the money, a sixpence a day for sixty years, would, if it had been saved and placed at interest, have earned him nearly eight hundred a year, or an income of fifteen dollars a week.

Which Way Are You Going?

A little girl, named Sarah, went home from church full of what she had seen and heard. Sitting at the table with the family, she asked her father, who was a very wicked man, whether he ever prayed.

"Is it your mother, or your Aunt Sally that has put you up to that, my little girl?" "No, father," said the little creature; "the preacher said all good people pray; and those who don't pray can not be saved."

"This was more than the father could stand, and in a rough way, he said: 'Well, you and your mother, and your Aunt Sally, may go your way, and I will go mine.'"

"Father," said the little creature, with great simplicity, "which way are you going?" This question pierced his heart. It flashed upon him that he was going the way to death.

Losses.

Loss of money follows drinking, Loss of time brings bitter thinking; Loss of business follows those, Loss of strength and loss of ease;

"Before you make a friend, eat a peck of salt with him; but you need not wait two weeks to find out whether the peck you have just tried is a good one or not."

A Reliable Fact.

It is an established fact that Hagar's Pectoral Balm is the best cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, and all troubles arising from neglected colds.

A Popular Remedy.

Hagar's Pectoral Balm is one of the most deservedly popular remedies for the cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, whooping cough, croup, bronchitis, and all pulmonary complaints.

Weak lungs and how to make them strong. Breathe with the mouth closed, have access at all times to pure air, exercise moderately, eat nourishing but simple food, and take that test of all cough remedies, Hagar's Pectoral Balm.
