ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Close of the Session.

TORONTO, March 10.—The Legislative Assembly met this day at 3 o'clock. Hon. The Clerk assistant then read the titles of the Bills that had passed, after which the Lieutenant Governor delivered his closing speech and prorogued Parliament.

Land Gambling in Manitoba.

Stories of fortunes made without work by speculators in Western lands are extremely tantalizing to the young men of Canada, who will be insensible to feel that sharpness is infinitely more valuable than diligence. Such a condition of things breeds a generation of unprincipled adventurers. Money made by a fortunate speculation is little more creditable, and, we believe, is fraught with little more real happiness than what is acquired by a fortunate draw of the dice. Land gamblers are still buying at high prices, often with no belief that the property will maintain the price they are paying, but in the hope that they will be able to unload it at an advance to somebody more daring than themselves, who in turn hopes that some one else may be the lower when the expected crash comes. Along with this fever there has been a vast deal of excess at Winnipeg. Money has been thrown about recklessly. A man gives a fifty dollar bill for a drink at a hotel, and wants no change but drinks for the crowd. Even religious bodies which had purchased land have been forced by the rapidity of growth to speculate in spite of themselves, selling one lot which has become too central, and buying another, and repeating the process. The sooner this dangerous condition of things comes to its necessary end the better.

FIRE IN WINNIPEG.

Several Business Places Completely Destroyed.

NOT SO BAD AS REPORTED.

WINNIPEG, March 13.—Shortly after midnight a fire was discovered in Moenay & Curran's grocery-store, No. 225 Main street, situated on the west side between Graham street and Portage avenue. The space between the Sun newspaper office and the Bank of Montreal was soon swept over. Main street was completely littered with goods. About $60,000 to $75,000 worth of property was destroyed. The Bank of Montreal and the Canada Pacific railroad offices were gutted, and the brick walls alone saved the buildings from complete destruction. The principal sufferers are Meats, McEney & Curran, grocer; M. H. Halle, confectioner; A. S. Enyeart, gent's furnishings; J. Hargrave, grocer; Nixon & Best, photographers; E. Taff, dry goods; Geo. Frankfurter, dry goods; Zukau & Co., boots and shoes. Among others burnt out are A. McFarlane, W. Hunter, J. Adams & Son, Mrs. Wolf, Lurie, printers, Mrs. Whitman.

The case of the fire was a defective fuse in the grocery where it started. Two firemen narrowly escaped with their lives. There was a rumor that Mrs. Curran, an elderly lady, was burned to death. It proved untrue, however.

SAD FATAL ACCIDENT.

John Scott Killed on the Grand Trunk Railway.

WHISKEY THE CAUSE.

A sad fatal accident occurred on the G. T. railway, about half a mile east of this village last night, resulting in the death of Mr. John Scott, a farmer who has lived on lot 24, con. 4, Equeuing, for many years past. Deceased had left the village late in the evening, under the influence of liquor, and proceeded down the railroad track towards home, and it is supposed that being overcome with the effects of the liquor, he laid down on the track, and a western bound train striking him in the head fractured his skull, killing him instantly. The body was found by Mr. R. Elliott, as he was on his way to work at Tolton's mill, about 6.30 this morning. He must have been killed several hours before Mr. Elliott found him, as the blood from the wound had frozen in icicles about the head. Deceased was about 50 years of age, and leaves a wife and family. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their heavy affliction.
