Tenements Wanted.

We have felt the necessity of referring to the subject of the insufficient number of tenement houses in town, and have done to several times lately, and as the demand continues we refer again to the spligect. The question has receipts of lodges were $120,799.64 been asked, how do the people of and the total expenditure $84,924.28, Acton hope to increase the husiness of showing an excess of receipts over the town so long as such poor accommo | expenditure of $26,065.26. The funds are families in town who do not know where they will remove, when their mouth is up, and they are compelled to leave the houses they now occupy. Every year would see a large addition to our populationif there were tenement houses to supply the demand. It is most discouraging and it is not much wonder that our town does not grow more rapidly.

Now, if some of our monied men of their investments; or a joint stock | well founded. company could be firmed to erect a rents would pay a handsome dividend. A couple of rows of semidetached cottages, with ten or fifteen dwellings in each, could be erected at a cost of a able return for the outlay would be
