THE SCOTT ACT.

The Scott Act will come into force chair, and Mesers. Campbell, Speight in ten days, and we expect all the worn and Jarvis. ont argaments of the past will be that the Act cannot succeed. Every case of violation of the Act will be pointed to by the sellers and their friends with triumph. We understand that a number of the hotel keepers of the County intend opening their houses after the Soutt Act comes in force on Temperance principles. Two hotels on strict temact accordingly. LATER

Since the above was put in type we have received information to the effect of closing their botels and stables and refusing accommodation to all. We are assured, however, by the friends of the Scott Act that ample accommoda tion will be provided for the travelling public, and notwithstanding the strong opposition of the anti-Scott's, everything possible will be done to provide for the comfort of man and beast.

Temperance men, do your duty and "right will prevail."
