-THE-

Acian Free Ress

- is published EVERY THURSDAY MORNING,

MOORE

Editor & Proprietor. AT THE FREE PRESS PRINTING & PUBLISHING

HOUSE. Next Door to Methodist Church, Acton, Out. Mill Street, ...

TERUS :- The Fact Press will be sent to subscribers, postage paid, for $1.00 per n. Volume. VII. No. 47 paper discontinued till all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

APPERTISING RATES. - Casual advertisements. 8 cents per line for the first insertion, and 2 cents per line for each subseld lines or less, $4.00 per annum. I square, 12 lines, $5.00 per annum, payable in 6 arouths from date of insertion. Any Special Source, the object of which is to promote the recuniary benefit of any individual or company, to be considered an advertisenicht. The number of lines reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid Nonpareil CONTRACT RATES. One column one year Q arter column one year tias e dama sia months Halfedamasta months U tarter columbals monibs ... (lie e l'ama three months ... Half column three months .. U tarter column three months trettle ments without weethe directions will be inserted till firthdand charged accordingle. Transitury advertisements must be Changes for contract advertisements must be la the offee or 9 a m. on M mlars, other wise they will be left over this the inflowing

THIS PAPER may be found on file at Got. P. tertising Empart (N. Spreen S.), where according outracts may be made for it IN NEW YORK.

Office and residence, at the head of Fred erick St., Acton.

M. FORSTER, M. D. PHYSICIAN, OFFICE :- Forster's Drug Store, Sext doof to Creech's Saddlery, RESIDENCE: Church street, formerly occupie i by Mr. W. Hemstreet, auctioneer. L. RENNETT, DENTIST, George-

TOHN LAWSON, GRADIATE OF ON TAND VETERBART COLLEGE, Tendato, Veter nary, Sargeon, Acton, Ont. Officein Kerney & Sen's boot and shee store, residence in the rear. Herses etamined as to soun iness and Ceftificates given. All calls, night or day, promptly attended to: Terms easy.

J. FISHER. V.S. GEORGETOWN Ont will visit Acton every Wednesday, and will extend to all calls pertaining to his profession. Orders left at McGarvin's Drug Store will receive prompt attention. Terms moderate. T. J. FISHER.

MULLERTON, HALL & STOREY,

Barnsters, Solicitors of the Supreme Court, Conveyancers, &c. Toronto & Georgetowin. Offices :- No. 50, Church street, - Terrato, and McLeods Block, Georgetown. Money to Losm. CAS. E. FULLERION, WH. W. HALL, E. D. STORET.

M. HEMSTREET,

Licensed Auctioneer. For the Counties of Wellington and Halton, Orders left at the FREE PRESS Office, Acton, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly attended to.

Terms reasonable." Money to Loui. Also money to loan on the most favorable terms, and at the lowest rates of interest, receive prompt attention, in sums of $500 and upwards.

REID, VETERINARY SUR GEON, Georgetown, Graduate of the Ontario Yeterinary College, will visit Acton every Tuesday, from 1404 p.m. All Calls received promptly attended to, by night or day. Herres bought and sold on commission. Residence, West Corner from Livery Stable, Georgetown, Qut. G. REID

THE PUMP BUSINESS.

The undersigned has made arrangements with Mr. Thomas Ebbage to alterd to his Pump Business during his stay in the North-West. All priders, whether for new work or repairs, left at the residence of Mr. Ebbage, opposite Stephenson's blacksmith shop, will receive prompt attention. WK. E. ADAKS.

Acton, April 19th, 1682.

WILL BUY OR SELL . The undersigned is prepared to purchase any quantity of elm or birch stave bolts, basswood for heading, and pine, cedar or black ash for shingles, in the log, or bolts A good stock of shingles, staves and heading always on hand,

THOS. C. MOORE

IME FOR SALE. Lime can be had at the Canada Lime Works in small or large quantities at any time. Apply at the Kiln, near Tolton's

C. S. SMITH Box 172, Acrox.

NUNAN Successor to T. F. Chapman,

BOOKBINDER.

St. George's Square, Guelph.

Account Books of all kinds made to order

Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling neatly and promptly done. ROYAL, (OF EXCLAND)

INSURANCE COMPANY, PIRE AND LIFE.

Capital, Ten Million Dollars.

Liability of Shareholders Unlimite Funds Invested, $23,000,090. Annual In come, $5,000,000. Invested in Canada for Protection of Canadian Policy Bolders, The Royal Insurance Company has the Largest Surplus of any Fire Insurance Company in the World. All kinds of property-Country and Town

Also Money to Loan. D. McLELLAN, Esq., Hamilton, A. A. BECORD, Br., Agent, Actob

THOSE-

Choice New Styles

-ARE-

Selling Very Fast

GUBLPH.

DAY SELLS CHEAP

SPLENDID NEW STOCK

JEWELRY

RICHER

WM. S. SMITHS

Don't fail to callend examine when you go to

GUELPH.

Elgin & Waltham make, in

I claim my Nickel cases are white and purer than any other, being made especially for myself.

Watchmaker & Jeweller,

GUELPH.

BUTCHER SHOP

R. HOLMES

Would respectfully inform the people

Acton and vicinity that he has purchased

Mickel, Bilver,

RECEIVED

TERMS .-- $1.00 in Advanc.

. The Newspaper .- "A Map of Busy Life, its Fluctuations and its Vast Concerns."

ACTON, ONT. THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1882.

$1.50 if not se paid

Whole No. 379

ACTON BANKING CO'Y., queut insertion cash. Professional Cards, STOREY, CHRISTIE & CO.

BANKERS, Ontario

GENERAL BANKING BUSI-NESS TRANSACTED:

MONEY LOAMED ON APPROVED MOTES. Notes Discounted and Interest allowed on Deposits.

Elitor & Proprietor Upper Wyndham Street, Guelph

CF COME & SEE OFR NEW SPRING ARRIVALS FROM Germany, France, England, and New York! Crowded Store of New Goods Thousands of Articles of Every Day Use! Household Goods! Ornamental

Gopda I Vactal Goods. W. H. LOWRY, M. B., M. C. P. S., Very Little Money will Graduate of Trinity College, Member of College of Physicians and Surgeons. buy a whole lot of things WATCHES

CENT STORE and Cheap Cash Bazaar. Four doors west of Post Office.

F. KIDNER. GUELPH.

FLOUR AND FEED.

NICKLIN,

In tendering hearty thanks to the people of Acton and vicinity for their kind patronage in the past, would respectfully inform them that he has constantly on hand at his Mill, toot of Mill street,

a full stock of Flour, Oat Meal, Corn-Meal,

Buckwheat Flour, Cracked Wheat and Chopped Stuffs | The Watch and Clock House of Guelph

Of all kinds any of which he is prepared to deliver daily.

Your patronage is kindly solicited.

Orders left at my residence will The Finest Stock we ever had of Torms Strictly Cash.

B. W. NICKLIN Acton, Feb. 9, 1882.

East End Butcher Shop

ACTON, ONT.

H. Marlatt & Bro.

Acton and vicinity for their kind patrices

since opening brambes here, and would respecifully solicit a continuance of the some,

and can assure them that they will always have on hand a full stock of

ALL KINDS OF MEAT

We will purchase good meat of any

H MARLATT & BRO.

Meat Delivered

kind from those who wish to sell.

the business and property of Mr. W. C. Robinson, and is prepared to supply all with FIRST-CLASS MEAT.

of all kinds and Poultry and Game in Season.

Meat delivered to any part of tow

Having practical experience in the Batchering Business I feel wonfident that I can suit all. A call kindly solicited.

R. HOLMES. A Great Gause of Human Misery

MANHOOD

brated Easy on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments of Marriage, etc.,

Price, in a sealed envelope, only The celebrated atthor. In this admirable Bessy, clearly demonstrates, from thirty sequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of laternal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of ours at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may ue, may curehimself beaply, privately and radically,

This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land. The Culterwell Medical Co.. Post Office Box 450.

authorised to receive advertisements for thereupon the door was shut. W. W. BUTCHER, Marrager, 1

THURSDAY MOBNING, May 25, 1882.

POBTEY.

OUR YEAR. January, so blook and drear. With fer breath and snow-clad wing.

First reigns supreme, then leaves his throne For airs not milder than his own-Why only can his praises sing. Then February brings with her

But blasts so wild, that thre the trees, They rudaly blow, and scatter loaves That once were green from san and showers. But March winds now are whistling loud, And passing by they leave their trace Of chilly air and frost work fine

Don our panes, which Pather Time,

No balmy air, or fragrant flowers,

With manie wand, will soon offsee. Next came the gentle April showers. Which clothe the fields in garbs of green, While in the mesdow, flowers bright Spring up from darkness into light. And are roud in their brightest sheen.

But April soon gives way to May, Who comes with dainty, graceful tread, And brings rich bud sand blossoms rare, With balmy days, both bright and fair, And sunny skies above her head.

And May to June with roses crowned. Who brings the clear and pebbly brooks, The leafy trees, the summer birds, Whose singing o er the wood is heard. From every deep, sequestered nook.

July beams down upon us next, With kingly smiles and cheerful face, Her bissing sun, so warm and bright, And skies of blue with floory white. No lowering cloud in them we trace. But August now bids July haste, And leave for her, the sultry sun.

That makes the dainty flowers fold Their potals bright, of red and gold-And then her floeting race is run. The month of harvest time has come September, with her golden glow

Of autumn baves, with berries red,

In graceful wroaths twined round her head, And festive garlands hanging low. October's sun now floods the sky, With streaks of red both rich and light; But soon to fade and pass away.

Like man's floor-winged and sunny day, Yet glows the deeper in its might October's sun has cossed to shine And food the sky with crimson bright, November, dreary queen, has come, To gather her broad harvest home.

And yield her scepter, now, with might. December saddest queen of all, Your time to reign has come! But soon in death your eyes will dose, And you will gather sweet repose-While angel forms will bear you home.

NVITED TO BREAKFAST

"Walk out to my house and have breakfast with me some morning." Such was the invitation given me one day by Mr. Robertson, a gental, middle-rged solicitor to whom I was articled in the thriving hat, maddened at my stapldity, at the loss town of Abbeyton.

OUR STORY.

I walked down a short avenue leading to the houses, and then began to wonder and Gold Cases. which of the half dozen villas I was bound This small community dispensed with numbers to their houses, nor did they even distinguish them by the ambitious and ridiculous names which you see stuck up on most suburban residences. No: nothing savoring so of the town for this group of country residences. They all called their several houses by the common name of Abbey Brove ; and the stranger had take his chances of having to go to each of them in turn before he found the particular one he sought. Fortune favored me, however, by sending across my path a travelling directory in the shape of a milkman, and in response to my enquiry as to which house was Mr. Robertson's, I received the straightforward reply : "This touches on the beli-handle. "Master is not down yet, sir," she replied to my enquiry as to whether he' was at home, which, considering the time of

"Oh, then, I will come in and wait," "What name shall I say, sir ?" asked

Just tell him Mr. Brookes has called. and he will understand." So sayleg: the girl showed me into a sang liu b breakfast-room, where the sunbeams and the fresh morning air seemed to be vying with each other as to which should held possession of the room; with ma'am, Mr. Brookes is down stairs." sponse in a muffled female voice.

want, bothering here at this time of the sequences might be ! Next week I was in-TOTICE -The Canada Advertising Agen. day?" continued the muffled voice; and vited to a picule at Mr. Robertson's, and Now this was not exactly pleasant to Robinson's house again and again before me ; but when I reflected that most prob- his niece returned to her home. wall. I had not been sitting thus above a upon our wedding day. minute or two when I heard a slight rustling as of a lady's dress; simultaneously came three or four light footsteps through the window into the room, and before I could rise from my seat a musical voice accosted me with: "Good morning, uncle, one thing. bere is your button-bole."

like maiden of sixteen summers, her brown of health and life and happiness and beauty. I insignificent love duction was, however, not destined to have being. this sudden ending. In a few moments we were chatting away like old friends. fancied my fairy seemed to be actually pleased when I announced that I was going to stay for breakfast; and I had almost of the servant with the completing dishes for the breakfast-table served as an excuse for her to leave the room. She had scarcely gone through the door | knead. when I heard again the greeting, "Good morning, uncle," followed this time by more than ever to be that girl's uncle! The door opened once more. I stapped forward | to meet my employer, but suddenly paus-

summoned up courage to ask her to present me in reality with the flowers she had un-designedly offered to me, when the entrance whom I had never before seen in my life. He stood looking inquiringly at me witer a sharp "good-morning." I was too embarrassed to make any response. My first thought was, "He is some visitor;" in a few moments the awful truth dawned sorres my mind, that this was in realit the owner of the house I was in, and some means or other I had got into the wrong one. The situation was tremendous. I am naturally a cool character; but I was so taken by surprise and chagrin that I could only matter some confused apology about having been invited to breakfast by Mr. Robertson ; that I had been directed to this house by some miserable misunderstanding; that I humbly apologized for my intrusion and hoped he would pardon to that charming little lady, who in less than five minutes I found I was absurdly in believe it !-- that tall, dark man burst into a loud laugh. I felt ready to knock him diminutive proportions. The midget is so per he trots off to a singing school or six down. I knew how my stupidity would be gaily discussed at the breakfast table, and seek in a cigar box. This is believed before her, and I felt my discomfiture and humiliation deeply, but this open merri- the Careon Appeal.

ment at my expense maddened me. A strange calm succeeded this sterm. It was caused by some words uttered by my termenter. "You really must forgive lowing you to go. Do me the favor of re- "numping" the managing editor or the since. It certainly is a remarkable rem-8.) saying, he took my hat out of my hand less. Every compositor on a paper, as a and led me into the room again. Of course | rule, knows the handwriting he sets up but it did not need much persuasion to make if any other persons think they can learn it me stop. Two minutes before I had been from him-well, let them try. ready to knock this man over; I now thought him the kindest and most considerate fellow in the world. opened spon a tastefully arranged lawn, kind-hearted than they were; and when, would not be out of place, and would prove and flower-beds sutside. While noticing after breakfast, I accompanied her and Mr. a boon to publishers who lose a large sum these things, the bousemaid had gone up Robinson into their pretty flower garden. I annually rather than one delinquest subwards. When saying good-typ I was per- mendive, for it is an easy matter, to get a to see her again; it must be contrived | collection of it. "I don't know ma'an," the maid replied. somehow, I mantally resolved. Upon re-I nover seen him here before. But he's a terming to town I lost no time in explain young gentleman, and eavs he'll wait till ing "the situation" to my employer, Mr. Robertson, who rallied me good naturedly "Whosver can be be and what can he upon the mistake, and spee what the occ.

ably Mrs. Robertson would be unacquaint- | Four years have pursed since that invitaed with her husband's invitation to me, I tion to breakfast was given me, and that thought it best not to be offended, so I "fairy-like girl is now my wife. That local commenced examining the pictures on the milkman, bless him, got a handsome "tip"

A Word To Married People.

Women, especially young women, either believe falsely, or judge harshly of men in

You, loving creature, who dream of I started up in no little surprise at this your lover by night and by day-you fancy greeting, which was evidently not intended, that he does the same of you? He does for me ; and there stood before me a fairy. | not-he cannot ; nor is it right he should. One hour, perhaps, your presence has caphair falling loosely from a daintily-shaped tivated him, subdued him even to weakhead, her cheeks agicw with the healthy ness; the next he will be in the world, morning air she had been enjoying, and working his way as a man among men, deepened, too, by a rose blush when she forgetting for the time being your very exdiscovered her greeting had been unwit- istence. Possibly if you saw him, his outer tingly addressed to a stranger. She was self, hard and stern, so different to the self standing before me holding the knot of you know, would strike you with pain. Or flowers destined for her uncle's button-hole | else his inner and diviner self, higher than -how I envied her uncle !- a very picture | you dream of, would coldly turn from your

An instantaneous mutual agreement seemed | Yet all this must be ; you have no right to flash between us. We both broke into a to murmur. You cannot rule a man's soul merry little laugh; and I often wondered | -no woman ever did-except by holding what would have happened if we had not unworthy sway over unworthy passions. has the right of way." adopted this course-if, for instance, the Be content if you lie in his heart, as that young lady had passed on with a dignisted heart lies is his bosom-deep and calm-its coldness, and simple apologies and bows beatings unseen, uncounted, oftentimes had passed between us ! Our sudden intro- unfelt ; but still giving life to his whole

Humorous.

Art is long, but the artist is asually

It goes against the grain to gamble in orn and wheat.

has become of the rest of the harness ? Some housekeepers are so wasteful that the more flour they have the more they thoughts with the everlasting wants of Sophrania: "Can the weather prophets foretell sudden rain storms in sammer ?" unmistakable sound, which made me long They could, probably, if they knew the dates on which Sunday-school picnics would

A little boy who wouldn't run to the ed as a tall gentleman entered the room store for his mother until he had had a run when it was dry."

A Minnesota girl walks eighteen miles every day, to and from the printing office it; if it displeases, they are apt to avoid it. in which she is employed. Her beau must If home is a place of criticism, where faces be working somewhere in the neighbor- are stern, and words are harsh, and fault hood of that printing office.

The Smallest Baby Alive. A centleman from Candelaria informs us that the smallest baby in the world was born in that camp at noon on the 3rd last. The father is a miner in the employ of the Northern Belle mine, and weight 190 pounds. The mother is a stout, beakby woman, weighing perhaps 180 pounds. The human being can be, but upon its birth it of my breakfast, and still more at the only weighed eight ownces. Its face is thought of never seeing or speaking again about the size of a horse chestnut, and the say that a ring worn on the little finger of small that three of its size could play hide to be the smallest baby ever born .- From

Newspaper Secrets. There is probably no newspaper man of me ; I could not refrain from langhing. My experience in the country who does not on a late exhibition trip to the States," name is Robinson. Your friend Mr. Bebert | hold secrets of importance in his mind, said Mr. Neville to the writer, " my old son lives in one of the other houses. We which, if made public, would create a sen- foe, the rheumatism, attacked me, sad ing up a path, I found the door invitingly frequently got parcels and letters, and even sation, but would stamp him as being unopen and the housemaid putting fluishing callers come to the wreng house: but in reliable, and consequently unfit for his long taker my return house i tried all our experience we have mover had so profession. The great race for precedence several remedies and found them enamusing a mistake so early in the day as in the publication of news impels him to turely useless. Having read the indorsedo his utmost to outstrip his contempor- ments of well known people who had Now, this epularation toned down my aries, but a higher feeling, the diotates of used St. Jacobs Uil, and heen cured day, really appeared an absurd question to anger considerably; but the words which honor, keeps secret the trust reposed. Fre ask the girl; but we get accustomed to followed were like balm to my troubled quently persons would like to know the once I was as well as ever, and fully able maining here and breakfasting with us." galley boy, his efforts are equally as fruit edy and one that seems to me to be in-

Beware.

A new postal law or decision in the U. 8. knowest we have no stiding place." Many Of course the breakfast was delightful. suthorizes the publishers of newspapers to of his congregation who knew of his fruit-I found Mr. Rebinson and his wife sensible, arrest any man as a thief who takes their less endeavors in house munting could not such friendly rivalry were they streaming genial, kind-hearted people. I found their papers and refuses to pay for them. A lit- help smilling quietly at the truth of his rethrough two open French windows, which plees even more sensible, more genial and the of the same kind of law in Canada marks. stairs to announce me; when something received from her a rosebud for my buttor- soribers by the present Division Court mice, rosebes, bed-bugs, flies, anta, moles, like the following dialogue ensued: "Please hole, which I kept for some years after- process which is alow, doubtful and ex- chipmunks, gophers. 150. "Mr. Brookes ! Who is he !" was the re- plexed by thinking how I should manage judgment, but quite snother to enforce Had Suffered many Physicians

Kill time to-day, and, to your sorrow, He'll stare you in the face to-morrow Kill him again, is any way,

The Praise of Good Doctors. The best of the pill-box crew, Binos ever time began,

There's Dr. Diet, he tries my tonges "I know you well," says be; Your stoenach is peer and your fiver is

We must make your food agree. And Dr. Quiet, he feels my wrist, and he gravely shakes his boad. "New, now, dear sir, I must imast

But Dr. Merryman for me, Of all the pill-bex crew, For he smiles and mys, as he lobs his fee, "Lengh on, whetever you do."

And at ten I go to bed, And I laugh in the face of cold or heat And thus have the doctors said. And so I count them up again, And praise them as I can, There's Dr. Diet,

And Dr. Quiet,

Prudery is a perfume that conceals viti-

Nothing overcomes passion more than

It is not wise to reject benefits when

Happiness is like the echo; it answers you, but it does not come.

Fortune has rarely condescended to be the companion of genius.

panion of weak sninds; it is a plant that From the manner m which praise and man ought to covet defamation. In life it is difficult to say who do you intentions or friends with the best, When a man dies they who survive him ask what property he has left behind. The "When sorrow has left its traces," what | angel who bends over the dying man asks

Unless a man can link his written to the thoughts and feelings of the soul

Many a child goes astray, not because there is a wast of prayer or virtue at home, need sunbeams. If a thing pleases, they are apt to seek finding ever in the ascendant, children will

A lady sings at an ainsteur concert, and receives the honor of an excore. Her little daughter protests furiously. "It isn't fair, and you're real mean!" cries the child ; "my ma sang her piece 6) speaking, I made a frantic rush at my child is a male, as perfectly formed as any right, and you've got no business to go and make her do it all over again,"

A Western farmer of the old school, issmile as I left the room, when-would you physician that the child would live and week he wipes on his handkerchief. He prosper in good health, notwithstanding its wants a whole hour at noon, and after sup-

Rough Siege Laid to Him.

Mr. James O: Neville, the well known

A clergyman in a neighboring city who scarching the town over in vain for a house to live in, began his prayers as follows: "O Lord, we are wanderers here below. Thos

Don't Die in the Room.

and grew no better but rather worse. Mr. D. H. Howard, of Geneva, N. Y. after dismissing his physicians, tried nearly, half a green of the various blendand liver remedies advertised, with no benefit; when one bottle of Burdock Blood, Bitters, opredi him of Parelyess and General Debility. At the selected

Are the doctors who have most to do With the bealth of a bearty man. And so I count them up again, And praise them as I can a There's Dr. Diet. And Dr. Quiet, And Dr. Merryman.

sprung.

You go at ten to bed."

So now I sat when I ought to sai

And Dr. Merryman.

Words of Wisdom.

Faith and hope cure more diseases than

The secret of felicity is a fudicious interruption of routine.

they may be refused.

A man without secreey is an open letter for every one to read.

When duty seems to clash, "the moral Excess of ceremony is always the com-will never grew in a strong soil. blame are dealt out in this world, an honest -

the most mischief, enemies with the worst what good deeds he has sent before him. men, so that they shall draw from them as trom wells, there is no more immortality than the muscles and the arteries. Home Sumbine.

drink of water, pleaded in extenuation of but simply because home lacks sunshine. his disobedience that "even a river couldn't A child needs smiles as much as flowers

naturally spend as many hours as possible

A Daughter's Protest.

size of its limbs can be imagined when we menting the paragon hired man of the party of thus speaks of him of the present : "He its mother was easily slipped over its foot wears white shirts and collars. He won't I said a harried "good-morning," and nearly up to the knee. Our informant states eat with a knife. He wants napkins, and was trying to make a ghastly attempt to that it was the opinion of the attending if we won't hang up a clean towel once a down to a newspaper."

General Import and Export Agent of the "Atlen Line," and General Dominion Shipping Agent, of 538 Dorebester street, montreal, is an active member of the Shamrock La Crosse Club, -. " White Upon the first application, I saw at use stereotyped plrases under some circum- heart. "Mr. Robertson will have finished authorable of certain matters published, to attend to my bu iness. I have not breakfast by now. I cannot think of al. and whether his efforts are directed to hap the least suggestion of rheumstian had just been hastalled, andt who was

" Rough on Rata." Clears out rate age of 50, he says he fee lyong states