PRINTING & PUBLISHING HOUSE. Next Door to Methodist Church

Will-Street, TERES :- The FREE PRESS will be a num in advance: $1.50 if not so paid. No Volume. VII. No. 48 paper discentinued till all arteate are paid. except at the option of the publisher. ADVERTISING RATES. - Casual advertisements, 8 cents per line for the first inser-10 lines or less, $1.00 per annum: 1 square, 12 lines, $5.00 per annum, payable in 6 months from date of insertion. Any Special Rotice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any individual or company, to be considered an advertisement. The number of lines reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of while Nonpereil CONTEACT BATES. Jae column own Year .. Ha'l column une vear Larter & damm one year in e dama da manthe Halfed imn sig months I retter redamifists months ; tire-la-mants without secide directions will be incerted till attidan ich eged urcordingle. Translier advertisements mast Chinees for contract advertisements must be la the affect of 92 m.on Mariage others wise they will be leftgover till the igliowing

THIS PAPER Part to Con Newspaper Acvertions Bureau (1) Space St., where according a structure that he made form IN NEW YORK

Halfenlam n inter months

terrer column three months

ber of College of Physicians and Sorgeons. buy a whole lot of things WATCHES erick St., Acton.

M. PORSTER, M. D. PRYSICIAN, OFFICE :- Forster's Drug Store. Next door to Creeok's Saddlery, RESIDENCE : Church street, fernierly occupied by Mr. W. Hemstreet, Wactioneer, L. BENNETT, DENTIST, George-

TOHN LAWSON, GRADIATE OF ON J. TARIO VETERINARY COLLEGE, TOBONTO. Veterinary, Sargeon, Acton, Ont. Officein Kenney & Son's boot and shoe store, residence in the rear. Horses examined as to soundness, and certificates given. All calls, night or day, promptly attended to. Terms easy.

J. FISHER, V. S.; GEORGETOWN. . Ont. will visit Acton every Wednesday, and will attend to all ealis portaining to his profession. Orders left'af McGarvin's Drag Store will receive prompt attention. Terms moderate.

T. J. PISHER. DICLLERTON; HALL & STOREY, Buristers, Solicitors of the Supreme Court. Conversnoers, de: Toronto & Georgetown. Orrices :- Ko 50, Church threet, Toronto, and McLecds Bleez, Georgetown. Money to Loan. -

JAS. S. PULLFRICK, WH. M. HALL, R.D. STORET. TYM HEMSTREET. Ligensed Auctioneer.

For the Counties of Wellington and Halton. Orders left at the FREE Papes Office, Acton. er at my residence in Acton, will be promptly attended to -Terms reasonable. Honey to Tran.

terms, and at the lowest rates of interest. in sums of $500 and upwards. -REID, VETERINARY SUR-T. GEON, Georgetown, Graduate of

Also money to locar out in most laverable

Acton every Tuesday, rom 1 to 4 p.m. All calls received promptly attended to, by night or day. Horses bought and sold on commission. Residence, West Corner from Livery Stable, Georgetown, Ont. THE PUMP BUSINESS.

The undersigned has made arrangements with Mr. Thomas Ebbage to attend to his Pump Business during his stay in the North-West. All orders, whether for new work or repairs, left at the residence of Mr. Ebbage, opposite Stephenson's blacksmith shop, will receive prompt attention, WM. E. ADIMS.

Acton, April 19th, 1882. TTILL BUY OR SELL The audersigned is prepared to purchase any quantity of elin or birch stave bolts, basswood for heading, and pine, cedar or black ash for shingles, in the log, or bolts

A good stock of shingles, staves and head-

IME FOR SALE. Lime can be had at the Canada Lime

Works in small or large quantities at any time. Apply at the Kiln, near Tolton's mill; or to C. S. SMITH May, 1st, 1882.

Successor to T. F. Chapman,

BOOKBINDER

St. George's Square, Guelph. Account Books of all kinds made to order. Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling neatly and promptly done. ROYAL (OF MEGLAND) INSURANCE COMPANY, FIRE AND LUFE.

Capital, Ten Million Dollars.

Liability of Shareholders Unlimited Funds Invested, $23,000,090. Annual Income, $5,000,000. Invested in Canada for Protection of Canadian Policy Holders $500,000. The Royal Insurance Company has the Largest Sarplus of any Fire Insurance Company in the World. All kinds of property -- Country and Town solicited Also Money to Loan: D. McLELLAN, Beg. Hamilton,

We will purchase good mest of kind from those who was torsell.

TERMS.-$1.00 in Advanc.

The Necepaper .- "A Map of Busy Life, its Fluctuations and its Vust Concerns."

ACTON, ONT. THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1882.

$1.50 if not so paid,

Whole No. 380

ACTON BANKING CO'Y., tion, and 2 cents per line for each subse-quent insertion cash. Professional Cards. STOREY, CHRISTIE & CO., BANKERS,

GENERAL BANKING BUSI

Ontario.

NESS TRANSACTED. MONEY LOANED ON APPROVED

Notes Discounted and Interest allowed on Deposits.

Ellor & Propiletor Upper Wyndham Street, Guelph.

COME & SEE OUR NEW SPRING ARRIVALS FROM Gormany, France, England, and New York! Crowded Store of New Goods!

Use ! Household Goods! Ornamental Goods! Usofal Goods. W. H. LOWRY, M.B., M.C.P.S., Very Little Money will

Thousands of Articles of Every Day

CENT -- STORE and Cheap Cash Bazaar. Four doors west of Post Office.

F. KIDNER. GUELPH.

AND FEED.

In tendering hearty thanks to the people of Acton and vicinity for their kind patronage in the past, would respectfully inform them that he has coustantly on hand at his Mill, foot of Mill street, a full stock of Flour, Oat Meal, Corn Meal.

Buckwheat Flour, Cracked Wheat and Chopped Stuffs

Of all kinds, any of which he is prepared to deliver daily.

Your patronage is mindly solicited

Orders left at my residence will receive prempt attention. Torms Strictly Cash.

B. W. NICKLIN Acton, Feb. 9, 1882.

East End Butcher Shop.

ACTON, OAT.

Mariatt & Bro. Desire to tender thanks to the people Acton and vicipity for their kind patronage, since opening business here, and would respecifully solicit a continuance of the sema and can assure them that they will always have on hand a full stock of ALL KINDS OF MEAT.

This Lecture should be in the hands everyyonth and every man in the land.

The Culverwell Medical Co., this sort of thing is to go of all night." Post Office Box 450.

anthorized to receive Advertisements for people to get settled without a noise."

Choice New Styles

-THOSE-

-ARE-Selling Very Fast

GTELPH. DAY SELLS CHEAP

RECEIVED

WM. S. SMITH'S Don't fail to call and examine when you go to GUELPH. The Watch and Clock House of Guelph.

The Finest Stock we ever had of Elgin & Waltham make, in Nickel, Bilver,

I claim my Nickel cases are whiter and purer than any other, being made especially for myself. Watchmaker & Jeweller,

GUELPH. BUTCHER SHOP.

HOLMES Would respectfully inform the people o Acton and vicinity that he has purchased the hasiness and property of Mr. W. C.

Robinson, and is prepared to sapply all with

FIRST-CLASS MEAT of all kinds, and Poultry and Game in Season. Meat delivered to any part of town

Having practical experience in the Batchering Business I feel confident that I can suit all. A call kindly solicited.

R. HOLMES. Great Cause of Human Misery

MANHOOD

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culterwell's Cele-brated Fassy on the radical and permanent cure (without medi-cine) of Nervous Debfity, Mentalan ! Physic-al Incapacity. Impediments of Marriage, etc., Price, in a seated envelope, only 6 cts

The celebrated author, in this admirable E-say clearly demonstrates from thirty years encessed practice, that marmin consequences may be radically cared without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheapty, privately and radically.

Down came the woman again, ... "Fourth floor's compliments to third ever-commenced. I was claborating a keleton for a scientific essay, and it disurbed me seriously. I endured it as long . I possibly could, and then I had resource nce more to the janitor's wife.

"Third floor's compliments to the fourth | bad. loor, and will feel obliged if she will favor ne with a little peace and quietness, long | bear, and Tom into a tomb. nough to do some necessary writing."

eased abruptly. But that evening, when I was beginning o solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, tap, came the mitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if he will favor her with a little peace and quietness, long enough to write a letter."

How I hate that woman ! So we lived for a munth, exchanging constant missels of warfare. I could cheerfully have given up that miserable French flat and gone back to boarding, only unjuckily I had engaged it for a year. The fourth floor elocationized, and had friends to select private readings, whose voices vere deeper than Hamlet's and more sonorious than that of Charlotte Cushman. . She was charitable, and had classes of heavybooted girls twice a week, to sing hymns and learn to sew. A single lady, indeed If she had been a quadruple lady she could not have made more noise, nor enjoyed the his own" to "tallowed his town."

making of it more. At the close of the month, however, an incident happened which turned the cartent of my whole life. I went on a picnic. I don't often go to affairs of that kind; but this was an especially select affair, gotten up here by my friend Harold Webster. I went, and there I met Barbara Willis, and lad to a lady. fell straightway in love with her. She wasn't exactly joung-neither am I-and to my taste a full-blown rose is sweeter than a bud, wherever you find it growing. She was dark eyed, with full cherry lips mun-brown hair, and a complexion as fresh as roses and ivory. We talked-our ideas coincided exactly. It seemed as if our souls were two looking glasses, to mirror each other's. were old, old friends."

As I spoke I gently pressed her band, and she smiled back anutterable things. I went to my friend Webster, who was making up quadrilles on the upper deck. We were accompanied by an excellent

"Oh, Harold," said I, "I can never thank you enough for introducing me to tribate to the press, and write when the "Do you mean Barbara Willis?" mid he. Well. I do think she is rather a fine when I feel like it, and draw a little income on the promenade deck and watched the divided pro-rata, and each one's share was moonlight ripple over the surface of the

"A bachelor's life is but balf a life, Miss | yers got it. "I can readily imagine that," said she "I live in a flat." confessed I. neighboring ristaurant had brought in my

" Do you ?" said Barbara, (the sweet, old frugal dinner a mold of current jelly, a Euglish name was just like her). "Why, "Isn't it dreadful !" said I. "Horrid !" said she, clusing her lips as

"And there's a female dragon occupies the floor above me and torments me out of

"Well, if this isn't a remarkable coincidence," said Barbara. "There's a detestable old crab of a bachelor under me, who takes all the pleasure out of my exist-

"Nobody, sir." the man auswered. "Last | ence. "Should two lives be thus blighted ?

"I-I don't think they should," said Barbara, looking intently at the boquet of pansies she held in her hand. It was past midnight when the bost landed. Harold Webster came up.

"I promised to see you home, Miss Willis," said he, rubbing his hands briskly. "You need not trouble yourself; Webster," said I. "I shall be most happy." I called a back, belped the divide Bar bars in, feeling more and more as if I were walking in cloud land. "Where shall I drive to?" said the min. "No 69 Ravenal street," said she, fourth floor." What I" cried I, "not to Fernandino "Exactly," said she.

"Why, that's where I live !" "Are you the third floor?" she cried out

"Are you the fourth?" I counter-ques-"But you're not s'erab at all."

"Nor are you a dragon. On the conning. . I took my violin up stairs the next voungeter with his face one mass of suds day, and helped my divine Barbara out and his mouth so full that she barely unclasses. I listened enchanted to her recita- times yesterlay !" tion of Tennyson's Brook ; and at the end of the quarter we are to be married-Bardisobeyed your grandmother, who lold you eldest, " Beading, spelling and definitions." just now not to jump down those steps ?" | "And what do you get my little one?"

Alphabetic Cariosities.

The Protean nature of the vowel sounds is familiar to all. A few amusing examples will show that the consonants are nearly as

B makes a road broad, turns the sar to a C makes limb climb, hanged changed, a

"There was no reply, and the music lever clever, and transports a lover to D turns a bear to beard, a crow to crowd > maked anger danger and evil devil. F turns lower regions to flower regions. G changes a son to a song and makes one

H changes eight late height, and arm to

K makes now know and eyed keyed. L transforms a pear into a pearl. N turns line late linen, a crow to a crown and makes one none. P meatmorphoses lumber into plumber, Q of itself hath no significance.

S turns even to seven, makes hove shove. and word a sword, a pear a spear, makes slaughter of laughter, and curiously changes having a hoe to shaving a shoe.

T makes a bough bought, turns here there, alters one to tone, changes ether to tether, and transforms the phrase " allowed

W does well-e. g., hose are whose ? are becomes ware, ou won, omen women, so sow, vie view ; it makes an arm warm, and turns a bat iuto-what?

Y turns for to fury, a man to many, to to toy, rub to a faby, ours to yours, and a

A New Arithmetic.

A man refuses a $70 Watch for a $45 shot gun, pays $3 for repairs, and then exchanges it for a $30 horse, which kicks a $28 cow to death and then dies of a broken heart. How much did the man lose ! In a certain room there are eleven women sitting down. A lady passes the house " Miss Willis," cried I, "why is it that | with a new spring bonnet.on. Find the we have never met before ? I feel as if we i number that got up and rashed to the window. (That is where you get foole i. One of them was too lame to get out of her

The distance from a roadside fence to certain harvest apple tree is three times times the distance from the ground to the first limb, which is two yards, one frot and nine and a half loches. What is the distance from the fence, and how many bar-

vest apples can a fat boy eat ? -A man died leaving property valued at $17,000 to a certain relative. Eight other relatives wouldn't have it that way, and We grew confidential as we sat together | contested the will, the property was then found to be seventeen centa. What became -but, of course, you know that the law door ' Pen and Quill Manufacturer: ' You put above your door and in your Humor of the Day. Why do ducks put their heads under Yes, Augustus, you are right, soldiers nd Watchmakers do make time what louse; Even the most ambitious of men are wil Who manufactures quills must be ling to take second rather than first place goose !" . . . ; in an affair of honor.

Riches may have wings, but they are usually clipped so that they cannot fly over water ? To liquidate their bills.

" Anxious Inquirer." -- A vessel is spoken of as she, because "she" has to be managed It takes 800 full-blown roses to make a tablespoonful of perfume, while ten cents' worth of cooked onions will scent a whold neighborhood.

Be Was Satisfied. We publish the following parabraph from the Christian at Work to order that our local clergymen may take advantage of it when the occasion requires:-" Last Sonday evening a Boston divine auddenly pansed near the close of his sermon, and said : 'We would all be glad if that young man in the vestibule would come inside and satisfy himself whether she is or is not here. That would be much better than keeping back pew.' And in the solemn silence that followed, the congregation could hear sound outside as of the retreat of an army with beaners."

Getting Them All Out. Little boy has been swearing, and hi mamma, to punish him, washed thoroughly the inside of his mouth with soapsuds, "to," at she explains to him, "clean away But what matters it what we said? the naughty words." A few days later, Things were altered from the very begin- while passing the bath-room, she sees the with a sonata of Beethoven's. I suggested derstood his sputtering explamation: "Geta new educational theory for the hounailed ting them all out mamme ! Swore five

What They Got

A berr of Hitle children were telling Edward, what do I hear-that you have, their father what they got at school, . The "Orandma didn't tell us not to page ; she said the father to a rosy cheeked little felGROWING OLD.

At its-I well remember when-I fancied all folks old at ten. But when I'd turned my first decade Pitteen appeared more truly staid. But when the afteenth sound I'd run. I thought none old till twenty-one. Then, oddly, when I'd reached that age,

I held that thirty made folks sage. But when my thirtieth year was told, I said, "At twoscore men grow old?" Yet twocoors came and found me thrifty, And so I drew the line at fifty.

But when I reached that age, I swore None could be old until threefcore, And here I am at eigty now,

As young as when at six, I trow !

'I'is true, my hair is comewhat grey, And that I use a came to-day; Tis true, these rogues about my knes, Say "Grandpa !" when they speak to me;

I thought all people old at ten! Perhaps a little wiser grown-Perhaps some old illusions flown; But wond'ring still, while years have roll'd

But: bless your soul, I'm young as when-

When is it that wman grows old?

Cetting Particular. There was a time in Pittsburg, Pa., when man had only to enter a speculator's office and exhibit a lump of coal to find a ready sale for his land, but that time will never return. A representative of the New was seated in an office in that city a few days ago, when a stranger entered with his lump, placed it on the table, and asked:

"What's that ?" "Coal," was the reply. "Do you own the land ?" "Yes, sir."

" Yes, sir."

" How much ?" "Two hundred acres."-"Did this coal come from your land?

"Did you carry it there ?" " No, air." "Did you take it off the surface !" "No, sir; from a shaft."

"Was this the only lump of coal on your " No, sir." "Didn't you stop at a coal yard and get

"Do you want to pay $100 to have that shaft examined by an expert ?" "No. sir." "Ah, good day, sir! you have a hig thing, no doubt, but I am running to barley this year."

Wise Words. Experience is the extract of suffering. A mind once cultivated will not he fallow for half an hour.

Care for what you say, or what you say will make you care. Memory records services with a pen, in, furles with a graver.

Think wrongly if you please, but in all cases think for yourself. The public mind is educated quickly by events -slowly by arguments. Patience, the second bravery of man, is, perhaps, greater than the first. There is no strength in exaggeration : even the truth is weakened by being ex-

Excess generally causes reaction, and produces a change in the opposite direction, whether it be in the reasons, or in individuals, or in governments, pressed to strong.

A Quill Manufacturer. Theodore Hook addressed the following fines "To Mr. Blank, who put over his

You're manufacturer of pens and quills; And for the first, you well may feel : Your peus are better far than most I've But for the quills, your words

Choirs. To some choirs: Don't sing quite so slow. To other choirs : Don't sing quite so fast. If the congregation sleep under your Ringing, it may be the sign of singing too slow. If they are unable to "catch on," it may be a sign your singing is too fast.

"Sambo, me b'y," explained Pat, a rellicking Irishman, to a jolly darkey, "tell us what makes your nose so flat." "Dunno, Mars Pal," answered Sam ; "but I spec' it's to keep me from pokin' into udder people's business."

Just at the Wrong Time.

Mr. Robert Wilson, of the City Surveyor's ffice, and Street Commissioner of the Eastern Division for the Board of Public Works; Toronto, Out., who is very fond of shooting, save : "To lose a duck hunt is a loss for which there is no adequate recompense. This misfortune lately evertook me. The boys got together recently and made arhalf-inch draught on the occupants of the rangements for a good bunt. At the time the arrangements were entered into I was n good health generally; but, just as the shooting was to take place, my old snemy. the rheumatism, came back to stay with me awhile again, and I had to forego the pleasure. The rhousiatism has been a source of great bother to me, and I have done a great deal of doctoring for it, without much good, When this last attack came on me and crippled my hands so that they were drawn up. Oil, the Great German Remedy. I tried it. I am happy to say, and the result is that a am now cured as, well as ever. St. Jacobs Oil succeeded where more than a sonre of other imments and medicines have failed."

When ladies kiss are they really doing to each other what they would that men should Why suffer from Indigestion and Dyspepets when Burdock Blood Bitters will portively bure there silments? A trial bottle only costs to cents. Many a man's conscience is just us good he now it forty, for the simple remon that it has never hoos used. The poiseless tener of their way-the. smooth, easy writing pens of the Esterbrook likel Pen Car whose man have only came to the door and said, if wouldn't low, who sat at that time slyly driving a become, so described papellar, how

THURSDAY MORNING, June 1, 1882. Pobtry.

> THE HOURS. The hours are viewless angels That still go gli ling by, And bear each moment's record up To Him who rests on high. The poison or the nectar, Our heart's doep flower-caps yield,

A sample they still gather swift,

And leave us in the fold.

The deeds are known before h

The tale is told in Heaven.

And some by by on pinions Of gorgeotts gold and blue, And some by on with drooping. Of sorrow's darker hue. and as we spend each minute That God to us has given,

And we who walk among them, As one by one departs. Think not that they are hovering Forever found our bearts, Like summer bees that hover Around the idle flowers, They gather every act and thought,

These viewless angel bours.

And still they steal the records.

My hear a poison flower.

And bear it far away This mission flight by day or night, No magis power can stay. So teach me Heavenly father, To spend each flying hour, That as they go, they may not show

OUR STORY.

A Bachelor's Confession. I live in a French fist. Of course there are objections to French flits. So there are to most things. I can't afford a botel and I detest a boarding house. A bachelor of thirty odd, who had been at the mercy of boarding bouse keepers all his days, can easily understand that.

Bo, when I engaged a suite of roomsthird fi or in & French flat edifice and arranged my household goods therein, with a fine look out over a green dot of a park in front, and the glummer of a pulisade in the rear, above a forest of chipping. I considered myself well off. What is my profession? I haven't any | brass band. in particular. I am an artist and draw a little, daily, in front of my sasel; I.con from a snug hitle property left me by an girl uncle in India Consequently: I was abie to decorate my new quarters very prettily with Bagdad furs, old China thragons, black Watches and gold Japanese ecreens at hard picked up at a bargain. and gold Japanese ecreens and pictures 1 tides. And when the fire was burning cheerfully in the grate, the first rainy May evening, the student lamp shining softly on the softly. red, carved table, and the waiter from a divine aflatus scizes me. I read the law and Gold Cases. slice of roast leef, and a raspberry dampi- how strange ! So do I !" ing. I considered myself pretty comfort-"Upon the whole," says I to my self, "I i though she meant it. rather approve of French fluts."

> I rang the bell The junitor + a respectable sort of a fellow, a round jacket and carpet slippers-answered the sammons. floor above f party moved out vesterday. New party "A large family !" I said rather dubl-"Bless your heart, sir," said the man, no family of all -a single Jady, sir."

At this I congratulated myself more and "I shall have the prospect of a little seace now, I think," said I, and ate my dinner in a fool's paradisc of happiness. The single lady moved in on the morrow. She must have moved in when I was down selecting some new mill-boards and color tubes for the summer sketches I intended to make, for when I returned, fondly expecting once more to enter into my kingdom of peace and serenity, prerything was There was a banging and pounding over head, a thumbing and hammering-a sound as if some midule-aged glantess in hobnuil shoes, was enjoying herself in a prom-

I sent for the janitor in a rage.

"Is this house coming down?" said L "It's the new tenant a-movin' in, sir, said be, apologetically. "Does her furniture consist entirely Herring's sales and square pianos?" said I "There are two planes ar," said he She's musical."

pianos ! And does she play on 'em both !

"Don't know, sir, I'm sure," said the man, with a distressed expression of coun-

I endured the noise until midnight, and bers and L then I sent up the janllor's wife. "The third floor's compliments to fourth floor, and would like to know

No. 20 King St. West, Toronto, is floor, and wishes to know if he expects jump down those steps, boys and I tempenar hall into the door panel.