THURSDAY MORNING, June 15, 1852

YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

YOUR BABY.

Two little aches,
Out at the toes, Trotting about Wherever mother goes Sewed gingham dress,
Put on just now,
No one knows how;
Little black face,
Black each wee hand—
Bees making mud pies,
And playing in the sand;
Dear precious head,
Twisted and round;
Bright laughing eyes
Can't see enough;
This is our baby
All day.

Two little feet,
Knee and bare;
Two little hands,
Bowed in prayer;
Tired little feet,
Sweat and hair;
Spanish lace feet;
Dimpled and fair;
Starry bright eyes;
Heavy with sleep;
Sleepy sweet voice; Lispings—“Father we keep!”
That is our baby
At night.

Buy Your Own Stamps.

I would do it, John; I wouldn't, if I never sent a letter!

No sense! they all do; there is not a click in the whole house but uses the firm's stamp for his own letters.
No one keeps separate his personal letters."

"Not his personal honor either, I should judge," was the rather caustic reply.

"No see here, Henderson; where's the use of magnifying such little things!"

"Because,"—and Henderson, pushing back his hat from his rather square forehead, slid into the vacant chair at the end of his friend's desk—"if you do not look out for the little things as you go along, they'll throw you just as surely as that wretched did me on Queen street."

"That was quite a serious mishap of yours," said the other, seeming rather on the alert for a chance to turn the conversation into another channel.

"Davidson was telling me about it."

"Yes; six months of indoors, a week leg for all life, and a hundred dollar doctor's bill, just for stepping on to a little nite of a thing I could have whirled away with my forefinger and thumb."

Just here the gentleman, Erick Hea-derston was waiting for, came up, and the two left the store.

John Aldrich stuck the pen behind his ear, and for several minutes he might have been seen looking fixedly at the white paper before him. As well as he knew anything, he knew, when he stopped to think, that the firm he was engaged with did not expect, when they handed over the postage stamps for correspondence it was his business to attend to, that part of them would go on his letters to his mother, his sisters, or even his sweetheart, and yet for a year or more not a week but had seen personal letters dropped into the box along with the others; yes, he had even occasionally placed stamps in his portemonnaie, so as to write in the privacy of his own room. And yet, were not stamps the same as money?!

Would he be guilty of touching so much as a penny of his employer's money? Never! not if he starved.

When John Aldrich set about his delayed tasks, there was a little frown to his head, and a settledness around the thin cut lips, as though a purpose had taken possession of him.

In after years he told his boy oft that talk by his desk, when he was only a clerk working for thirty dollars a month.

"And I believe, Rob," he said at the close, "that that little thing bid more to do with my latter success in life, than almost anything of my whole life time. Right there I vowed that no trivial thing should ever cause my downfall, and when a young man goes to keeping a lookout for the small things, the larger ones look out for themselves."

Mother! Mother! Mother!!!
Are you disturbed at night and wake up yourself by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, get a glass and get a bottle of Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere at 25 cts a bottle.

We count by changes and events within. Not by years.

A common, and often fatal, disease is Jaundice. It is the action of the action of the liver, and cleaves the blood with Decaying Blood Tissues, and the whole case may be perfectly cured.

The public mind is educated quickly by events—slowly by arguments.

Their popular styles are sold everywhere.

Nature is a big merchant, who works up every shred and act and end into new creation.

Possession is nine points of the law, and the possession of a good pen goes a long way to make a good penman. Extra Brook takes the lead of all the rest.
Can be obtained at all the Statuettes.

It's enough for a man to understand his own business and not interfere with other people's.

Skinny Men.

It takes several scruples to make a dram, without a scruple.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, Salt, Rheum-

Who shall decide when doctors disagree?
We don't know who should, but we know that the undertaker generally does.

Dropsy is essentially a watery condition of the blood, dependent upon dis-ordered kidneys. Extra-rock Blood Bitters are strongly Diuretic, and consequently the best known remedy, acting as it does upon the entire Secretory System.

You are as full of air as a music-box,” is what a young man said to a girl who had come to let him see her home. “That was the reply, “but I don't go with a cigar.”

“Every truth has two sides; let each other commit yourself to either.” Kidney-Wort challenges the clo-est scrutiny of its ingredients and its various results. It has nothing to do with the best methods and remedies, for the cure of constipation and disordered liver and kidney. But those that have used Kidney-Wort, agree that it is by far the best medicine known. Its action is prompt, through the lasting.

A Public Meeting should be called
