CAUTION.

McQuillan & Hamilton, of the Wellington Marble Works, Guelph, have the reputation for doing the best and cheapest work to be done. As a distinguished agent of another company has been going through the vicinity of Rockwood and Acton, and in some cases received orders from parties, leading them to believe that they were purchasing from the above firm. Some of the parties have refused to pay for the work received, and in calling at our office to notify us of the fact, found that they had been deceived. We have warned the public by advertisement not to deal with any agent who could not produce satisfactory evidence that he was working for us. Our blank order sheets show our names in several places.
