YOUNG POLES CORNER.

INO AND UNO

Two and two are two little boys Who always are ready to fight Because each will with least That he knows the most.
And the other one cannot be right.
And Uno went into the woods Quite certain of knowing the way.
"The right! You are wrong!"
They said going along.
And they didn't get out till next day.
Uno and Uno went out on the lake And oh they got dreadfully wet!
While discussion prevailed.
They earnestly sailed
And the boat they were in upset!
Through such it entitled common sense They need not be foolishly strong;
And to quarrel and fight Over what we think right.
If you know, and I know, quite wrong!

A Conscientious Young Man.

There is no moral object so beautiful To me as a conscientious young man.
I watch him as I do a star in the heavens Clouds may be before him, but we know That his light is behind them, and will Beam again. The blaz of others' popularity may outshine him, but we know that, though unseen, he illumines his own true sphere.

He resists temptation, not without a struggle, for that is not virtue; but he does resist and conquer. He hears the sarcasms of the profligate, and it stings him (and that is the trial of virtue), but he beats the wound with his own pure truth. He heeds not the catch word of fashion if it leads to sin; the atheist who says, not only in his heart but with his lips, "There is no God!" controls him not; he sees the hand of a creating God, and rejoices in it.

Woman is sheltered by foud arms and loving counsel, old age is protected by its experience and manhood by its strength, but the young man stands amid the temptations of the world like a self-balanced tower. Happy he who sees and gains the prop and ebler of morality.

Unwed, then, conscientious youth!
Raise thy standard and nerve thyself for goodness. If God has given thee intellectual power, awaken it in that cause; never let it be said of thee, He helped to swell the tide of sin by pouring his influence into its channels. If thou art feeble in mental strength throw not that drop into a polluted current.
Awake, arise, young man; assume the beautiful garb of virtue. It is fearfully easy to sin; it is difficult to be pure and holy. Put on thy strength, then.
Let truth be the lady of thy love; defend her!

May It Please Your Honor.

"There are three points in this case, may it please your honor" said the counsel. "In the first place we contend, that the kettle in dispute was cracked when we borrowed it; secondly, that it was whole when we returned it; and thirdly, that we never had it." Such logic might appear ridiculous but for the fact, that the remarkable evidence produced in some of the great murder and "scandal" cases which have had legal ventilation in this country during the past few years, was of no less an edifying and convincing nature. In strong contrast to this many-sided kind of testimony, are the following emphatic and uniform statements made by well known business men of Evansville, to a reporter of the Journal who was commissioned to get their opinions and experience relative to the article in question, and of which such astonishing reports are appearing in many of our exchanges. Mr. Leval, proprietor of the Prescription Drug Store, Cor-locust and Third Streets, upon learning the nature of the writer's visit, said that his sales of the St. Jacobs Oil were large and always increasing.
That very many people to whom he had sold the article, called and reported to it to be the most excellent remedy for rheumatism neuralgia, &c. "We can safely say that St. Jacobs Oil has effected within the past year, more than any other liniment we ever have sold," were the words of Messrs.
Leman & Felling, 613 Main Street. Mr.
Frank S. Mueller, whose store is at 825 W. Franklin Street, cited the case of Mr. Henry Rhenick who for four years suffered with Rheumatism, which was cured by the use of two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil. At the Canal Drug Store, Mr. G. A. De Souther, was pleased to say that all united in claiming it the best liniment they ever used. There was a growing demand, and a number of his customers had called to testify to specific cures.
Learning that a member of the well known firm of Kerr & Morgan, proprietors of the boarding stables 216 Locust Street, had had experience with the article, a visit revealed the fact that a few applications of the St. Jacobs Oil cured him of an attack of Rheumatism, causing him to feel like a new man.
Mr. George Knorr, with the Lingle Lee Co., experienced the same happy results from a bottle of the Oil in a case of Rheumatism, which had troubled him for six weeks. Mr. W. Weber, Druggist at 630 Main Street said, that the St. Jacobs Oil could be recommended with a clear conscience for the prompt alleviation and cure of all the various painful ailments which could be resulted by an external remedy. Similar testimony was received at all the different places visited, among which were the Farmer's Drug Store of E. A. Illing, 515-Fulton Avenue; and L. W. Deuner & Co., Cor. Second and Seymour Streets. It should be stated, that our fellow citizen Mr. J. Beitelau, Upper Second Street, from his personal experience, recommends the St. Jacobs Oil as the best article of its kind.

Such inducements as these, carry no double meaning; there is but one inference; and as has been well said by the Chicago Times after interviewing some of its leading citizens, "they should be enough to satisfy the most skeptical, of the wonderful, almost miraculous properties contained in these little bottles."

I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried every thing that could be done through medical skill, but without relief. As a last resort, I tried Dr.
Thomas' Electric Oil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. I later used this wonderful healer suctroubled with the spots affected." About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever and was afraid he was in for another when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results."

The Sales at the Right House are Positively Enormous now.

The customers are so numerous that numbers on coming into these favorite stores stand and look at the crowds in utter astonishment, and many not knowing the enormous number of orders we keep remark that they will call again, as they think there is no chance of being waited upon in such closely packed crowds as that they will receive that kind, prompt and polite attention for which his stores are so celebrated, while they may rest assured that the quantities, styles and prices of his goods in all the departments are unsurpassed by any house in Ontario, as his prices are no trouble in hunting up the cheapest, most fashionable and best goods that the market of Great Britain, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium, Japan, China, the United States and the home markets afford. According to the Custom House returns the imports about twice as much goods as any other house in Hamilton. He pays cash down for his goods, and buying so very largely he gets them much cheaper than smaller buyers can do, as manufacturers make quite a difference between their prices for large and small lots of goods. Thompson's Corsets have an amazing sale. They are without doubt the best Corsets made in Canada, and far cheaper than any that can be imported.
