YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

Take Care.

Take care of the children.
For know, they are weak.
No matter how few there may be.
If prudently placed,
It is their future.
To a thrifty and beautiful use:
Take care of the children.
The weak of time.
Life's sweet opportunities given:
The safer we keep them,
The brighter they will shine.
Oh, waste not one day of the year!
Take care of your children.
Along the highway:
Lead care of your strength and your health.
Without this in vain.
In vain all the blessings of wealth.
Take care of your children.
For each one has his share.
Do not lightly with care as you go.
And reach out your hand
To the poor and the sad.
Who suffer so much here below.
Take care of your children.
And which way they tend.
From childhood to the old age.
Take care of your children.
And you'll find it all true.
And God will take care of your soul.

Mother's Turn.

It is mother's turn to be taken care of now.
The speaker was a winsome young girl, whose bright eyes, fresh color, and eager looks, told of light-hearted happiness. Just out of school, she had the air of culture, which is an added attraction to a bright young face. It was mother's turn here.
Did she know how my heart went out to her, for her unselfish words!
Too many mothers in their love of their daughters, entirely overlook the idea that they themselves need recreation. They do without all the ease, quiet and charming things, and say nothing about it; and the daughters do not think there is any selfishness involved. Jeany gets the new dress and mother wears the old one, turned upside down and wrong side out. Lucy goes on the mountain trip, and mother stays at home and keeps house. Emily is tired of study and must lie down in the afternoon; but mother, though her back aches, has no time for such an indulgence.
Dear girls, take care of your mothers. Coax them to let you relieve them of some of the harder duties, which so weary they have patiently borne.

Triple Maxims.

Three things to do—think, live and act.
Three things to give—your time, your tongue and conduct.
Three things to cherish—virtue, affection and duties.
Three things to love—country, gentleness and affection.
Three things to attend for—honor, economy and friends.
Three things to hate—envy, and gain and ingratitude.
Three things to teach—truth, industry and contentment.
Three things to admire—intellect, dignity and gracefulness.
Three things to like—cordiality, goodness and cheerfulness.

No family dyes were ever so popular as the Diamond Dyes. They never fail. The Black is far superior to logwood. The other colors are brilliant.
Beware of the stocking that catches no Christmas presents.
"Women that have been pronounced incurable by the best physicians have been completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
Beware of the cook who can make hash of everything except corned beef.
