TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 25, 1882.

YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER.

THE KITTEN'S FRIGHT.

Little Kitten Cottontail.
Rubbed her sleepy eyes.
Went out for a morning walk,
Stared in wild surprise!

Mew! mew! cried Kitten Cottontail.
To her sister calling,
"Poppy, Poppy, let us hide;
See! the sky is falling!"

Cottontail and Poppy ran
Down the road together; a rainy gale met, and stopped
To talk about the weather.

"Mew! mew!" said Kitten Cottontail.
"Mew! mew!" said Baby Fluffy;
So they all ran on again.
With their arms linked.

Mother Tortoise called them back:
"What means this?" she cried.
"Sister is falling!" answered they.
"Come with us and hide."

Mother Tortoise called was wise,
And her speech was slow;
"Such little cats!" she said.
This is only now!

FIFTEEN YOUNG MEN.

At a respectable boarding-house in New York, a number of years ago, were fifteen young men. Six of them uniformly appeared at the breakfast-table Sabbath morning, shaved, dressed and prepared for public worship, which they attended both forenoon afternoon. All became highly respected and useful citizens. The other nine were, ordinarily, absent from the breakfast-table on Sabbath morning. At noon they appeared at the dinner, shaved and dressed in a decent manner. In the afternoon they went out, but not ordinarily to church; nor were they usually seen in the place of worship. One of them is now living, and in a respectable emplacement; the other eight became openly vicious. And these failed in business and are now dead. Several of them came in an unusually and awfully tragic end. Many a man may say, as does a worthy and wily old sage, "I keep my coat at the Sabbath-day-table." If, truly, it is true, say all.

I have reasons to believe it the best preparation of the kind in the market. It cures Dyspepsia, Biliousness, and Torpidity of the Liver, Constipation, and all diseases arising from Impure Blood, Female Complaints, &c.

Holmes' Ointment and Pills.—Bromism and Gout.—These purifying and soothing remedies demand the earnest attention of all persons liable to gout, sciatica, or other painful afflictions of the muscles, nerves, or joints. The Ointment should be applied after the affected parts have been patiently fomented with warm water, when the ointment should be diligently rubbed upon the adjacent skin, unless the ointment should cause pain. Holloway's Pills should be simultaneously taken to reduce inflammation and to purify the blood. This treatment allays the violence, and relieves from the pangs of gout, rheumatism, and all spasmodic disease, which spring from hereditary predisposition, or from any accidental weakness of constitution. This Ointment checks the local remedy. The Pills restore the vital power.

Beware of Imitations.

Since Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have been endeavoring to pass off Electric and Electric Oil for the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Beware of these similar named articles. If their originators had any faith in the healing properties of their own medicines they would, like honest men, give them a name of their own, and not try to sell them on the reputation of another; but as they know their preparations have no merit, they resort to the most unprincipled means of selling them by getting a name as near as possible to Electric. We therefore ask the public when purchasing to see that the name Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is on the front of the wrapper, and the signature of Norrison & Lyman, the proprietors for Canada on the back.

Robert Lubbock, Cedar Rapids, writes: I have used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil both for myself and family for rheumatism, with the very best results. I regard it as the best remedy for this disease, and would use no other.
