

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1883.

TO LET.

Events went out to serenade
The lady whom he loved best,
And passed beneath the mansion's shade
Where erst her clausus used to rest.
He waited till the morning light
Came dancing o'er the hilltops' rim,
But no fair maiden Unseen his sight.
And all seemed dark and drear to him.
With heart aches of eyes ached,
He dropt to his knees there that before,
When to his horror and amaze,
He saw "To Let" upon the door.

Colored Common Sense.

A friend of the colored persuasion addressed a meeting of his friends the other day as follows:—

The sun has now kivered for pullin' ole hats and pillars enter'd de broken windows. I'll seize de occasion to ax you to remember:

Use a front gate off its hinges means a ship-shod man in de house.

Take red nose incases & hungry flour barrel.

Dat man ober dat work sittin' on de fence and discussin' de needs of de kentry.

Dat de less politicks a man has de go cash he kin pay de goode.

Dat arguments on religion won't build churches nor pay de preachers.

Dat's a family which neber borrows nor lends keeps maybun de longest.

Dat beauty will starve in de parlour while common sense will grow fat in de kitchen.

Dat de world full of mice-holes, an all de eats need do ax to watch an' wait.

Dat economy don' mean bayin' kaliker fur de wife qu' broad-cloth for herself.

Dat progress don' mean fittin' old duds to new buildins'.

Dat liberty don' give you de right to eat another man's chickens.

Dat success achieved by rascality ain't fish net made of yars.

Very Awful, Indeed.

Dat's the sweetest, what is it? Are ye sick? What ails my precious pet? And the young husband bent tenderly over the graceful form of his blushing bride.

Oh! Adolphus Edward, it's too dreadful for anything!

Bad news from home?

Worse! Worse! Oh, what shall I do?

Tell your own darling habby.

It's that awful Selina Tarbox, she's—

She's what, my precious?

She's got a bouner trimmed exactly like mine and to-morrow's Sunday!

Then the afflicted beauty buried her face in her husband's breast and trickled her big tears all over his $1 shirt.

Old Age.

A charm belongs to youth in its freshness and hopefulness which all are ready to recognize. But to a thoughtful mind there is a sweet charm in the mellow and cheerful old age, the evening of a well-spent life. The decay and sadness but who has not felt the calm influences of a calm and coolness even sink soft into the very depth of his honest being? So does the companionship and influence of one who grows old steadily and graciously bless and refresh.

What makes life decay is the want of motive.

The manners of nature make a man; the manners of art unmake him.

Higley's Sarsaparilla

Impure blood and low vitality are the great sources of most diseases for which Burdock Blood Bitters is the specific. S. Perini, Uriggiet, of Lindsay, writes that Burdock Blood Bitters give more general satisfaction than any blood purifier in the market.

There's not a string attuned to mirth but hath its chord in melancholy.

Have you a beautiful home? If you have, keep it so; if not, make it so.

Mr. W. A. Wing, Westport, writes: "I wish to inform you of the wonderful results which followed; the use of Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. A couple of months' standing had reduced me to such an extent that I was unable to work. I tried many remedies without effect; at last I used this Emulsion, and before three bottles were used I am glad to say I was restored to perfect health.

There are few occasions when ceremony may not be dispensed with; kindness never.

Now, that there is a reliable remedy for kidney troubles, half the terrors attached to these complaints have been removed. For this let all be thankful, and to Dr. VAN BUREN'S KNOWN CURE award all praise for having thus removed a heritage considered fatal disease from our path. It was never known to fail. Sold by J. E. McGarvin.

The talent of success is nodding more than doing what you can well without a thought of fame.

Mr. Wm. Boyd Hill, Cobourg, writes: "Having used Dr. Thomas' Electrolyt for some years, I have much pleasure in testifying to its efficacy in relieving pains in the back and shoulders. I have also used it in cases of cough in children, and have found it to be all that you claim it to be."

Watkins has made most extensive and important improvements in his celebrated store this spring. He has fitted up sumptuous Carpet rooms on the second story of both stores, where about $300,000 worth of magnificent Carpets, Linoleums, Floor Oil Cloths, Mattings, Rugs, Mats, Carpet sweepers, etc., are kept at prices so cheap as to cause a saving of 50% on the retail price. The old carpet room is given up to good style for a Music Room, Lace Curtains and Cloth-room, and there is an elevator put in which takes customers up from the eastern store to the Carpet-room, or to the Pictures-room at the top. Goods are to be had at the lowest prices this spring. Just think of it, excellent yard wide Bleached Shirtings is selling off at only 8¢, well worth 10¢. Lots of Green and White Marcelline Quilts, slightly damaged, selling off at an immense reduction. A large lot of Lace Scarfs and Embroidered Collars, bought at less than half their value, are to be sold at 5¢. Fancy Handkerchiefs, extra cheap. Twenty dozen of children's Real Lace Collars at 15¢, well worth 25¢ each. A lot of Lace Scarfs at 15¢, worth 40¢. Another lot at 20¢, with embroidered ends, each 25¢.
