A Mother's Influence.

The following gem should be read every family:

A mother on the green hills of Vermont was holding by the right hand a son, six teen years old, mad with love of the sea. And as she stood by the garden gate one morning, she said :

"Edward, they tell me, for I never saw the ocean, that the great temptation of a seaman's life is drink. Promise me, before you quit your mother's hand, that you will never drink liquor." _

"And," he said. for he told the story, "I gave the promise and I went the Globe over, to Calcutta and the Mediterranean San Francisco, and the Cape of Good Hope; the North and South Poles; I saw them filled with the sparkling liquor that my mother's form at the garden gate did not innocent of the taste of liquor."

Was not that sweet evidence of the power of a single word? Yet that is not half. | chitis, or any affection of the Throat and "For," still continued he, "yesterday there came into my counting room a man forty years old."

"Do you know me!"

"Well," said he, "I was brought drunk into your presence on ship board; you were a passenger; they kicked me aside; you took me to your berth and kept me there till I had slept off my intoxication. You then asked me if I had a mother; I said had never heard a word from her lips : you told me of yours at the garden gate, and to-day I am master of one of the finest ships in New York harbor, and came to ask you to come and see me."

How far the little candle throws its beam! The mother's words on the green hills of Vermont! God be thankful for the mighty power of a single word.
