OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

DEAR LITTLE HEADS IN THE PEW.

In the name of the holy Sabbath.
I like in the church to see
The dear little children clustered
Worshiping there with me.
I am sure that the gentle pastor,
Whose words are like summer dew,
Is cheered as he goes over
Dear little heads in the pew.

Faces earnest and thoughtful,
Innocent, grave and sweet,
They look up to the congregation
As if it were their chief.
And I think that the tender Master,
Whose mercies ever are new,
Has a special benediction
For dear little heads in the pew.

Close in the hymns sounding
To the organ's swelling chord,
Mingle the fresh young voices,
Eager to praise the Lord.
And I trust that the ringing strain,
Has a meaning deep and true.
The thought and the music blended,
Dear little heads in the pew.

When they hear, "The Lord is my shepherd,"
On - "Suffer the little ones to come."

They are glad that the loving Jesus
Has given the lamb a home,
A place of their own with His people.
He cares for me and for you,
But close in His arms He gathers
Dear little heads in the pew.

So I love in the great assembly
On the Sabbath more to see.
The dear little children cluster,
And worshiping there with me;
For I know that your precious Saviour
Whose mercies are ever new,
Has a special benediction
For the dear little heads in the pew.

Baby a Pickpocket.

A certain precious baby had been watched by his fond mother, who wanted to discover the first signs of future genius. If he opened a book and made a noise with his mouth he was to be a preacher. If he imitated some action of an older person he was to be an actor. One day he had been forcibly emptying the pockets of his big brother, who, struck by an idea, ran to his mother and cried: "Oh mamma, I know what the baby is going to be—pickpocket!"

Pungent Paragraphs.

Breaches of promise—Those four tailor didn't bring home.

How and when the gallant grocer's clerk makes love—Across the way.

A Brooklyn boy can imitate with his mouth the sound of a lawn mower. His father is going to try and imitate a threshing machine.

Genius having succeeded in making a steamboat out of paper, it won't be long before an inventive man will produce a railroad eating-house beefsteak made of pasteboard.

A "pocket guide" for instruction in the art of swimming has been published. When you fall overboard and don't know how to swim, all you have to do is to tread water and read your guide.

"Is that about the right length, sir?" asked the skillful barber as he finished cutting his customer's hair. "I like the side and back," was the response; "but I wish you would make it a little longer on the top."

Mr. C. P. Brown, Crown Land Agent, Sainte Marie, writes: "Two or three of my friends and myself were recommended to try Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, in preference to Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites." We prefer your Emulsion, and think it better for the system than the syrup," etc.

Holloway's Pill—The stomach and its troubles cause more discomfort and bring more unhappiness than is commonly supposed. The thousand ills that settle there may be prevented or dispelled by the judicious use of purifying Pills, which act as a sure, gentle anti-acid aperient, without annoying the nerves of the most susceptible or irritating the most delicate organization. Holloway's Pill will bestow comfort and confer relief on every headache, dyspeptic, and sickly sufferer, whose tortures make him a burden to himself and a bane to his friends. These Pills have long been the popular remedy for a weak stomach, for a disordered liver, or a paralysed digestion, which yield without difficulty to their regulating, purifying, and tonic qualities.

He Did.

Job went pretty heavily into the ball business, and the venture was a complete success. This reminds us that Puritan's PAUL'S CORN EXTRACTOR is another success, and that it gives more comfort to the world than Job's boils did. Remember the name, then, for the little playful corn comes, and the remedy thereto will gladden the heart. Positively sold by all druggists. N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Proprietors.

Impaired vigor of mind and body, in both male and female, older or younger, cured by the timely use of Dr. R. C. West's Nerve and Brain Treatment. Sold at J. E. McFarlin's Drug Store, Ashton.

The Greatest Healing Compound. It is a preparation of carbolic acid, vaseline and cerate called McGregor & Park's Carbolic Cerate. It will cure any sore, cut, burn or bruise when all other preparations fail. Call at J. E. McFarlin's Drug Store, and get a package. Twenty-five cents is all it costs.

To most children the bare suggestion of a dose of castor oil is nauseating. Why not, then, when physic is necessary for the little ones, use Ayer's Cathartic Pill? They combine every essential and valuable principle of a cathartic medicine, and being sugar-coated are easily taken.

A Fine Pill.

When the proprietors of Burlock Blood Bitters put this renowned medicine on the market, they hit it exactly. They hit dyspepsia, indigestion, and liver and kidney complaints a hard blow, from which they will never recover.

G. W. Mingay, Parkdale, Toronto, writes: "My wife had several very severe attacks of cramps in the stomach." Hearing of Dr. Austin's PHOSPHATE, and its pleasantness to take, I gave her two bottles, and she has not had an attack since, and her health is much improved." For sale by all druggists.

Mr. Petrus Boileau, Ottawa, says: "I was radically cured of piles, from which I had been suffering for over two months, by the use of Thomas' ELECTRIC OIL. I used it both internally and externally, taking it in small doses before meals and on retiring to bed. In one week I was cured and have had no trouble since. I believe it saved my life."

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort to introduce it.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cements the hair firmly and uniformly, and gives it a fine, smooth, and dry texture, and thus prevents baldness. It removes the weakened glands and tendons to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcohol preparations, but remain a long time, while it makes use of a matter of economy.
