

THE DREADFUL BOY.

Tom looking for a dreadful boy. Does any body know 'em? Who's leading all the other boys? They say he's a real one. I think if I could find that boy, it's worth what he's worth. A-linging all the other boys. To certain moral ruin. There's Tommy Green, a growing lad; His mother has informed me. The way that he is getting bad would certainly alarm me. She feels the blame should rest upon John Brown—a recent comer. For Tommy was a lovely child A year ago this summer. But when I spoke to Mrs. Brown Her innocent soul was shaken. To think that Mrs. Green could be so very much mistaken; She did assure me Johnny was As good a child as any. Except for learning naughty things From Mrs. Whiting's Benny. And Mrs. Whiting frets because Of Mrs. Blackham's Teddy; She fears he's taught young Benjamin. Some wicked tales she tells. Yet Ted is such an innocent (I have it from his mother)— He wouldn't think of doing wrong. Unscathed by any sin. O when I think I've found the boy Who ways are so disgraceful, I always get some other else. And I've had some other place in. If we cannot search him out, He will most certainly spoil All the boys who otherwise Would ornament our city.

Some painting is not a contagious disease, usually, but it's sketchin' all the same.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements useful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness over every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success has been proved by the fact that it has been bought for sea-land. It is the only preparation of the kind that can be used on the scalp of the entire world of its people. The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction. The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dandruff, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
