A MODEL WOMAN.

I know a woman wondrous fair-A model woman she-Who never runs her neighbors down When she goes out to tea.

She never gosains after church Of dresses or of hats: She never meets the sewing school And joins them in their spats.

She never beats a salesman down Nor asks for pretty plaques; She never asks the thousand things Which do his patience tax.

These statements may seem very strange, At least they may to some-But just remember this, my friends, The woman's deal and dumb.

youth, faded or gray hair to a matural, rich brown coldr, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vidon is unequalled; it contains unither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, giossy, and silken in appearance, and imperts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfame.

MR. C. P. Baicura writes from Kirby, O. Ja'y 3, lact: "Last fail my hair connucted failing out, and in a short time I became nearly bail. I used part of a bottle of Aven's Hair Vigor, which stopped the failing of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigoruse of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. Bower, proprietor of the McArikar (Okio) Esquirer, says : "Aven's it the Vices is a most excellent preparation-for the la'r. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Victor is also a sure care for dendruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRDAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Bos'on, Mass., Feb. 6, Vocalists, writes from Bos'on, Alast., Fro. 5, 1830: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which flecting time procureth, I have used Aven's HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orstors, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from is Elm St., Chrice'own, Mass., April 11, 1872, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair eams off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using Aver's Hair Vious the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is new as good as before it fell. I requirely used but one bettle. before it fell.
