THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 18, 1884.

IT PAYS.

It pays to wear a smiling face,
 And laugh out trouble down,
 For all our troubles wait
 Our laughter or our frown.
 Beneath the magic of a smile
 Our doubts will fade away,
 As melt the frost in early spring
 Beneath the sunny ray.

It pays to make a worthy cause,
 By helping it, our own;
 To give the current of our lives
 A true and noble tone.

It pays to comfort heavy hearts,
 Opposed with dull despair,
 And leaves in sorrow darkened lives
 Our gleams of brightness there.

It pays to give a helping hand
 To every earnest youth;
 To note, with all their waywardness,
 Their courage and their truth;

To strive, with sympathy and love,
 Their confidence to win;
 To give to open wide the heart
 And "let the sunbeam in."

—ANNA E. TRACY.

An Ancient Incident Modernized.

A certain man journeyed from the cradle to the grave. He was among saloon keepers who took his money, ruined his name, and destroyed his reason, and then drew him out in the street. A moderate drinker passed by, looked on him and said: "Serve him right; he is a fool to get drunk." A Christian viewer also passing looked on him and said: "The brute! He is not fit to live; he is a disgrace to his family." But a fanatic, so called, seeing him, had compassion on him, raised him up, assisted him to his home, ministered to the wants of his family and himself, got him to sign the pledge, and pointed him to the "Lamb of God" that taketh away the sins of the world; "let him in comfort and happiness." Who, think you, was the greater friend of humanity, the saloon keeper, the moderate drinker, the Christian, or the fanatic?—Catholic Temperance Advocate.

Equal To The Emergency.

"Isaac, my child, had you put art de coash on de clocks, eh?"
 "Art but two, farder."
 "Yi art but two, my child? No de matter you mit dem two coash, Isaac?"
 "De coash is art right, farder."
 "Val, put dem coash, ma teash, put dem out."
 "De poy dummy's nose was broke."
 "Ah! his nose was broke. You'll make nothings. You tink dere was no leetle poys mit broken noses will see how nice dey would look in dem fine over-coash, ain't it?"
 "Art right, farder. But what shall I do mit de man dummy?"
 "Put him over, put him over, Isaac."
 "He's got no bet, farder."
 "He's no bet got? How comes dose things, eh?"
 "I was loose poeome, and some childrens ran away mit it last night."
 "Main crassins chimney! You bollocks must dem childrens mit de station houses taken up. But, after a moment's reflection, I would put de block outside, (to) Isaac."
 "Mitout a bet, farder?"
 "Yi not, my child? Since them Merino Panis is gone to places, and dose nominations of de President is being settled, plenty man my store go by every day vot lose dem hats, don't it? Put him over, put him over, too, mein solin. Dat was a good shoke. Py und py I told him to Sholomon. He will pay the lager."

Prominent among the greatest medical discoveries, by the many cures it has effected, McGarvin's Speedy Cure leads the van. Subjected to the minutest chemical analysis, it has been found to contain one of those injurious ingredients characterizing the worthless specifics daily offered to the public. Every ingredient possesses a peculiar adaptability to the various complaints for which it has been compounded, and its efficacy is being established by testimonials hourly received. We are therefore confident that we have a preparation which we can offer to the public with the assurance that it will be found not only a relief but an absolute cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Constipation and Impure Blood. Free trial bottles at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store.

"What—What's the matter now, John's Husband—Oh, that neuralgia and toothache near kills me."
 "Why—Why don't you go to J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store and get a bottle of Fluid Lightning? You know it cures all such things as Toothache, Neuralgia, Headache, Lumbago, Earache, Sore Throat, etc. It gives instant relief."
 "Field Lightning."
 "There are but few that have never suffered almost intolerable pain from Toothache, Neuralgia, or like acute pains. To them such an instant relief as Fluid Lightning is an untold blessing in time of trouble. No disgusting offensive medicines to be taken for days. One application of Fluid Lightning cures. Sold at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store."
 "SORE CORN KILLER. Dr. Starr's Corn Solvent. The Wonderful Corn Remover, it is easily applied, causes no pain and will positively remove the most obstinate corns in 3 to 6 days. Sold in Acton by J. E. McGarvin, Druggist. Price 25 cents."

Dr. Starr's Corn Solvent will positively do all that is claimed for it; there is not a corn in the world that it will not remove if used according to directions. Sold in Acton by J. E. McGarvin, Druggist, price 25c.

Pectoria! Pectoria! Pectoria! the great remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Indigestion, Hoarseness, and all affections of the Lungs and Throat or Chest. Pectoria! Pectoria! Pectoria! breaks up the cough, 25 cents per Bottle. Don't give up until you have tried Pectoria, all Druggists and General Storekeepers sell it.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; one so trifling with the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unnoticed exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
 "In 1871 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed nearly all my time in bed. The doctor gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it cured me. I am now 62 years old, and have never since had a cough or cold."—A. J. CRILEY, Leeds, N. H.

Croup—A Mother's Tribute.
 "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup. He seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which was always kept in the house. This remedy was used, and in less than half an hour the child was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Cherry Pectoral had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude?"—MRS. J. W. HARRIS, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most efficient remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."—MRS. J. W. HARRIS, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."—JOSEPH W. ALDEN, Lowell, Mass., April 1, 1881.

"I can say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long ago have been in the grave."—E. BRADDOCK, Palestine, Texas, April 2, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.

MANHOOD
 HOW LOST. HOW RESTORED.
 We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Carter's "Manhood Restored" which is the most complete and reliable work ever published on the subject of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Exhaustion, Impediments of Marriage, etc., resulting from overwork.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 25c. (Two postage stamps.)

The celebrated author, in this admirable work, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' experience, that the most distressing and dangerous cases may be radically cured without the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, and which will not only restore the system to its original vigor, but will prevent a relapse, which is the condition of many of our physicians' prescriptions, and which, if not remedied, will eventually lead to the grave.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every young man and every man in the land.
