THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 23, 1884.

MASTER SQUIRREL.

Master Squirrel, blithe and gay, Come and live with me, I pray. Nuts have I for thee to crack; Gingerbread thou'lt never lack; Sugar-plums and popcorn sweet; For thy pleasure, shall thou eat. A golden cage shall be thy nest; A bed of down thy place of rest; A life of ease thy lot shall be; If thou wilt come and live with me.

Nay, my winsome little maid, I prefer the glen and glade; In the trees have I my home; Through the woods I'm free to roam. Nuts have I and oak to spare; Fruit and corn and berries care. When the sportsman's gun I hear, Many a hiding-place is near. A golden cage and wealth to me Are no exchange for liberty.

Bill Nye on Phrenology.

An erudite phrenologist once told me that I would shine as a revivalist, and said that I ought to marry a tall blonde, with a nervous sanguinary temperament. Then he said: "One dollar please," and I said: "All right, gentle scientist with a lawyer's mane, I will give you the dollar and marry the tall blonde with a bank account and billions temperament when you give me a chart showing me how to dispose of a brown eyed brunette with a thoughtful cast of countenance, who married me in an unguarded moment two years ago."

Love's Labor Lost.

"Madam, may I kiss these beautiful children?" inquired Uncle Dick Oglesby, as he leaned over the front gate. "Certainly, sir, there is no possible objection. They are lovely darlings," said Uncle Dick, after he had finished the eleventh. "I have seldom seen more beautiful babies. Are they all yours, marm?" The lady blushed deeply. "Of course they are—the sweet little treasures! From whom else, marm, could they have inherited these lisp-like eyes, these rosy cheeks, these profuse curls, these comely figures and these musical voices?" The lady continued blushing. "By the way, marm," said Uncle Dick, "may I bother you to tell your estimable husband, that Richard J. Oglesby, Republican candidate for Governor, called upon him this evening?" "Alas, good sir," quoth the lady, "I—" "But these children, madam—you surely are not a widow?" "I feared you were mistaken, sir, when you first came up. These are not my children. This is an orphan asylum"—Chicago News.

Advice to Young Sportsmen.

"Always bear in mind that it is the muzzle of a gun that is dangerous; therefore, never allow the muzzle to point toward yourself or any other person. Never put your hand over the muzzle of a gun, nor allow another person to handle your gun while it is loaded. Use a breech-loading gun with rebounding hammer. A muzzle-loading gun is both inconvenient and dangerous to load. Harmless guns are beautiful and convenient weapons, but they are not fit for boys to use, especially boys who are just beginning to shoot.

If you are hunting in company with others, be careful and courteous, always refraining from shooting at birds that are flushed nearer to your companions than to you, and do not allow your gun, under any circumstances, to point at, or in the direction of, any human being. Open your gun at the breast and take out both shells before climbing over a fence, getting into a wagon, going into a house, or handing the gun to a person not used to firearms. Never drag a gun toward your muzzle foremost. Treat an unloaded gun with the same care that you would use in handling a loaded one. "I did not know it was loaded" has caused many terrible accidents. It is best to thoroughly clean and dry a gun after it has been used all day, and when not in use should be kept in a woolen or leather case. Never shoot at harmless and worthless birds "just to try your hand." Most small birds are pretty, some of them sing sweetly, and nearly all of them are useful as insect destroyers. It is brutal to kill them for any other than scientific or artistic purposes. When out hunting, observe everything, so as to remember the minutest details of visible nature. Knowledge thus gathered is invaluable. Boys, when hunting together, should be very cautious in thick cover; as there, one may be quite near another and not see him.

An End to More Suffering. Edward Sheppard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Best and Comfort to the Suffering. "Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain, both internal and external. It cures Pain in the Side, Back or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Toothache, Lamago and any kind of a Pain or Ache. "It will most surely quicken Blood and Heal, as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Reliever, and of double the strength of any other Blixir or Linctum in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for Cramps in the Stomach, and Pains and Aches of all kinds" and is for sale by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

Advice To Mothers. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all Druggists throughout the world. If a few grains of common sense could be infused into the thick noddles of those who perpetually and alternately irritate and weaken their stomachs and bowels with drastic purgatives, they would use the highly accredited and healthful laxative and tonic, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, which causes "good digestion to wait an appetite, and health on both."

Maldies Multiply one another. A simple fit of digestion may—especially if the constitution is not naturally vigorous—throw the entire mechanism of the liver and bowels out of gear. Sick headache follows, poisoning of the blood by bile enters, and there is grave and serious disturbance of the entire system. Check the threatened danger at the outset with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the medicine that drives every impurity from the blood.

Holloway's Pills.—The diseases common to our rigorous climate which endanger the constitution will always exist, though many may be mitigated and their effects removed by timely aid appropriately applied. Holloway's Pills are acknowledged far and wide to be the most effective purger of the blood, the most certain regulator of disordered organs, and the safest and surest aperient that can be prescribed. This medicine is applicable to all alike, young or old, robust or delicate; it increases appetite and regulates the bowels. After the disorder is subdued occasional doses of these Pills will prevent any relapse, and moreover secure, promote, and testify the good results which flow from perfect purity and regularity.

Why suffer from weak nerves, want of appetite, and general debility letting the loss of sleep and rest impoverish the system and thin the blood, when such a really meritorious remedy as Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine may be had at any drug store. This article is recommended by the highest members of the medical faculty in cases of indigestion, general debility, loss of appetite, and nervous affections of all kinds. It is also especially beneficial to children and delicate females, and to business men, students, and those who have much brain work. We would say, Never be without it. It will strengthen you, keep your system in regular order, and enable you to successfully grapple with the work you have to do. It is pleasant to the taste, and contains nothing injurious to the most delicate constitution. Remember to ask for the Quinine Wine, prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, and we are sure you will be satisfied that you have full value for your money. Druggists sell it.
