CRUMBS FOR BREAKFAST.
Provided by the Ever Thoughtful Free Press Reporters.

—There was frost on Monday night.
—Pine plank is being laid down for the new sidewalks.
—Potato bugs have commenced their depredations for the season.
—This is the month for the pure, unadulterated gilt-edge butter.
—The senior department of the Public School re-opened on Monday.
—Mr. S. Denny's new house on Wellington Street, is up and enclosed.
—A month more and the school children will be enjoying the midsummer vacation.
—The poundkeeper has handled a good many cattle, and several sheep the past week or two.
—Spring crops are all looking well in this section, indications point to a bountiful harvest.
—The officers of St. Alban's Sabbath School have sent to England for a new library.
—The Guelph June fair was very successful, about 400 head of cattle being offered for sale.
—Overcoats were brought into requisition on Monday evening. This after a sweltering Sunday.
—Mr. W. P. Brown is offering his excellent farm, and also his village property for sale. See adv.
—Potatoes are almost a drug on the market. First class potatoes can be purchased here for 25 cents a bag.
—The letter of Mr. R. W. Phillips, Ontario Forestry Conservator, in another column is worthy of perusal.
—July 21st has been set apart as decoration day by the Oddfellows of Guelph and will be a public holiday.
—These are the days when the little busy bee is heard to sing—"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like comb."
—Georgetown and Brampton Fire Companies are having a little war over each other's merits as how well they race.
—In the Brampton band contest on Queen's birthday, Norval won the first prize of $50 and Streetsville the second of $20.
—The white dress and straw hat are gradually gaining ground. They move with the almanac as much as with the weather.
—No council meeting last Tuesday evening. The members can perhaps explain why. Court of Revision and council met Tuesday.
—The first match between the Oakville and Milton baseball clubs came off on the 25th, the former club winning by a score of 25 to 18.
—A smash-up on the G.T.H. at Shakespeare the other day caused the destruction of a locomotive and some cars, to the value of $50,000.
—Messrs. Harry Edmondson of Cascade, Minn. and A. Stafford of Kansas City, Mo. have kindly sent us budgets of American papers. Thanks.
—An advertisement in the Free Press costs very little, and guarantees a good return for your money. We have the circulation to warrant it.
—Sunday night's storm caused considerable damage in Nassagaweya, several barns were unroofed, houses injured and fences were scattered in every direction.
—Messrs. Moore and McGarvin have secured the whole of the premises recently vacated by the Canada Glove Works for their sachel and purse business.
—An unusually attractive ad. for Messrs. H. & J. McKay, leading wholesale and retail carpet dealers, 48 King St. East, Hamilton, will appear in our next issue.
—Lacrosse is all the go now. The boys are showing up well, and a good lively team is likely to come to the front before long. They will be known as the "Stars."
—Today the "Lion," Guelph, opens a great summer sale, and bargains of a very interesting character will be offered. Full particulars in their adv. in next Free Press.
—We are pleased to notice that all the new fences—of some old ones, too—are being painted. Our citizens are not at all stingy about exterior improvements of this kind.
—The implement agent is now on the most friendly terms imaginable with the farmers. Book agents, patent right men and other peripatetics are also hovering around.
—Now is the time for the performance of statute labor, and when pathfinders should know the condition of their beats. They should so far as possible enforce the provisions of the Act.
—A meeting will be held in the town hall next Wednesday evening to appoint a committee of citizens to select the site for the new cemetery from the property chosen by the electors at the late election.
—Barn raisings are now frequent in this vicinity, within a couple of weeks three fine barns have been raised by Messrs. Joel Leslie, David Williamson and Thomas Cameron. Others are progressing.
—We are in receipt of a new piece of music, entitled "Our Brave Boys," referring to the soldiers in the North-West. It is published by the Stayer Sun, and is sold for 30 cents a copy. The words are very appropriate, but the music is not particularly attractive.
—Sprightly correspondence to a local paper is a help to the people of the vicinity represented. It advertises it above other sections of the country, attracts buyers of stock, etc., from other places, and adds to the dignity and importance of the people to a far greater extent than is ordinarily supposed to be the case.

THE WEEK'S RAKINGS.
Which are Principally Local and All Interesting.

Wool, Wool.
The highest price will be paid in cash or trade for any quantity of good, clean, merchantable wool delivered to McLennan, Assiniboia Co. (Georgetown).
Auction Sale.
Mr. J. Haslett, who recently disposed of his business and property to Mr. John Nelson, Rockwood, has decided to open business in Detroit, and remove to that city shortly. Mr. W. Housh, auctioneer, will sell Mr. Haslett's household furniture, etc., on Saturday. Sale to commence at 2 p.m.
More Train Accommodations.
The G. T. R. authorities have arranged for an accommodation coach east and west in addition to the regular train service. This coach, attached to a freight train, will pass through Acton at 8 o'clock a.m. and return at 11:30 p.m. The 8 o'clock train will be of much convenience to the residents of Acton and Rockwood.
Annual Convention.
The annual convention of the Halton Temperance Alliance will be held in the Methodist Church, Milton, on the 22nd of June, inst., at 10 o'clock a.m. The various amendments that have been or are about to be made to the Scott Act will receive the bulk of attention. It is desirable that every locality be represented.
Bye a Baby Bunting.
For several weeks the members of the Municipal Council have—in their minds—been singing the old nursery ditty:—"Bye a baby bunting, papa's gone a hunting," to their squirming little charge. Papa didn't come, but the little one's mamma Mrs. Jane Gerwin, has been subpoenaed to stand her trial to-morrow at 8 o'clock, for abandoning her child.
Banquet and Jubilee.
This is likely to be a red-letter day with the Salvation Army corps here, being the occasion of their first banquet and jubilee. Staff-Capt. Margetts, A.D.C., of Hamilton District, and a number of other officers and privates will be present. An interesting time is anticipated by the soldiers. We wish them success and hope the proceedings will be conducted with order and decorum.
The Cow By-Law.
There seems to have been, for a week or two past, some disposition on the part of certain persons to ignore the provisions of the Cow By-Law. This however, is not to be allowed. The constable whose duty it is to superintend this matter has been on the "war path" and every animal running at large has been impounded. This is no doubt annoying to the owners, but they must remember that if the law is respected they will be put to no trouble or expense.
Garden Party.
The first garden party of the season will be held next Thursday evening, 18th inst., in the grounds of Mrs. Edward Moore, at the corner of Church and Frederick streets, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church. A pleasant evening is in store for those who attend. The Methodist Church choir will be present, and Acton Cornet Band is expected. The grounds will be well illuminated. Admission, 25 cents. Proceeds to be applied to the building fund of the Methodist Church.
Dominion Day in Acton.
We believe it is the intention to have a big demonstration in Acton on Dominion Day. Canvassers are hard at work and hope in the course of a day or two to have sufficient subscriptions to warrant them in issuing an extensive programme and to offer about $300 in prizes. The attractions will probably include horse racing, bicycle racing, lacrosse match, foot racing, jumping, and other games and sports. If the celebration is finally decided upon, the matter will be made public by posters in a few days.
The Canadian Pictorial.
The tenth number of the Canadian Pictorial and Illustrated War News is before us. It contains the following illustrations:—"Brigade Funerals of Lieut. Fitch and Private Moore, Royal Grenadiers." "How the Royal Grenadiers got their Dinner before Batoche." "Mr. Leamon's Portable Life Pits in Action." "Big Bear, the last of the Rebels." "The 38th Battalion (Dufferin Rifles) of Brantford." Also a fine two-page Supplement showing Sandy Sketched from the Front, by Mr. F. W. Curzon. The paper sells at 15 cents per copy, obtainable from local booksellers and from the office of publication.
Halton P. S. Inspector.
As previously announced Mr. Alex. McMillan has been appointed Public School Inspector for this county. Owing to the council's decision to make an appointment for this day, Dr. Lusk was barred from making application. We are sorry for this as the Dr. was the only Halton aspirant and for this reason—qualifications being equal—we considered that he had prior claims to the office. However, we are confident the council have made no mistake in their appointment. Ten years' personal acquaintance with Mr. McMillan proves to us that he is a considerate and painstaking teacher, a pleasant and unchangeable friend, a courteous and highly educated gentleman, and one who is in every way competent to successfully superintend the educational interests of our county. We heartily congratulate Mr. McMillan and extend the same to the people of Halton.
Confirmation Services.
The first visit of the new Bishop of Niagara to the parish of St. Alban's, Acton, and St. John's, Rockwood, was made last Sunday. At Rockwood in the morning the Bishop, assisted by Archdeacon Dixon, of Guelph, Rural Dean Bull, of Hamilton, and Rev. W. J. Pigott, the incumbent, consecrated the new St. John's Church. This beautiful edifice was erected at a cost of nearly $4,000, and the credit of Rev. Mr. Pigott and his liberal parishioners, be it said, the church was wholly paid for before consecration. In the evening the Bishop addressed a class of fifteen candidates for confirmation in St. Alban's Church, here, advising them in plain and impressive words as to their personal duty as followers of our blessed Lord and Savior. At the conclusion of his remarks he proceeded with their confirmation by the laying on of hands and invoking of Divine benediction. Revs. Bull and Pigott assisted in the ceremony. The lady little edifice was crowded to the doors.
