THE * ACTON * FREE * PRESS *

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, DEC. 17, 1885.

Limehouse Sparks.

From our own Correspondent.
 Piles of snow.
 Farmers are hauling in wood.
 The Woollen Factory has been shut down for a few days.
 A stranger intends starting up a business in Mr. R. Wheeler's old stand.
 Capt. Stephen Marshall is stationed at Whitby instead of Eastern province as reported.
 Mr. W. Nickell is doing a good business here this fall, and has quite a good stock on hand.
 Considerable talent has been engaged for the Methodist tea-meeting to be held here Xmas night.
 Lewis Coventry has given up the plough and is learning telegraphing with Mr. Ellis at the station.
 All are invited and welcome to our Public School examination to be held here next Friday afternoon. Come all. Come early.
 Mr. R. Wheeler's entire stock was sold last Friday at 40 cents on the dollar. Mr. Andrew Wheeler bought it for another party, so we understand.
 There was no service in the Presbyterian Church here yesterday on account of Anniversary services held in the Presbyterian Church, Georgetown.
 Our baker, Mr. Statham, had a very narrow escape with his life last Tuesday. As he was driving past the station crossing an eastern bound train struck the end of his rig.
 Dec. 14th, 1885. ROCK.

The Canadian Pacific Railway.

The Canadian Pacific Railway are breaking the record every day. Now the North Shore Railway has been transferred to them; their time bill has been arranged that through connections to Quebec and Points in the Lower Provinces can be made from Ottawa, Toronto, Detroit, and all points West, via St. Martin Junction, 12 miles North of Montreal, thus avoiding tedious waiting at connecting points and enabling passengers to reach their destinations in as short a time as possible.
 We have no hesitation in saying that for comfort, excellence of road, and the politeness and attention of their servants, the Canadian Pacific Railway stands pre-eminent as the Model Road of Canada, and although one may feel inclined to smile at their steamers advertising the road, a trip will convince any unprejudiced mind that the road, equipment, scenery and punctuality are superlative in every sense of the word.

Christmas Items.

—Over 600 pairs boys' and men's boots and shoes, clearing them out, from 50c. upward. Big value. Nelson McRae & Co.
 —Where are those fellows going? Don't you know? No! why they are going down to Stoddard's to get a boss oyster stew. That is where you can get one and don't you forget it. He is open at all hours, and always pleasant when you call on him.
 —Now is the time to secure a first-class suit or overcoat, as we are giving special values from now till 1st January, and we have a first class cutter and give perfect fitting garments every time. Nelson McRae & Co.
 —For the holiday season. A large consignment of choice new goods of new designs all suitable for handsome Christmas presents. Call and examine our goods and compare prices and you will be convinced that Howson's is by far the cheapest place in town. Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, we remain yours truly, J. E. Howson, next door to Drug Store.

—Now is the time to secure bargains in ready made clothing, boots and shoes, and fur goods. Nelson McRae & Co.

Family Reunions.
 No doubt many of the families in town will have reunions during the holidays, and of course a fine photograph of the group will be desired by each member of the family. The Metropolitan Studio can give you a most attractive picture. Call and see. If any member of the family is too feeble or unable to visit the gallery let me know and I will arrange to take the picture at your home.—A. A. ROBY, Photographer.
