

THE NEW COUNCIL'S POSITION.

When the Cemetery Committee concluded last October to suspend operations in connection with the opening of the new cemetery...

We pledge ourselves to support the whole of the Cemetery property and the possession of the Corporation...

That they are and have been in favor of the course pursued by the Cemetery Commission...

That they desire that policy continued...

That they favor the retention of the whole nineteen acres for cemetery purposes...

By the defeat of Mr. Ismond we interpret that the people consider...

That a paid commissioner of streets and sidewalks is an unnecessary and too expensive a luxury for a municipality of Acton's size to enjoy.

The judgment is rather harsh on Mr. Ismond, and is, in fact, almost unjust...

It is stated at Ottawa, that Sir John Macdonald will sail for Canada on Thursday, Jan. 14th.

A census of Toronto population taken in December, places the number of residents at over 120,000...

Mr. Erasmus Wiman, of New York, did a very generous thing recently in paying a $500 debt for a Canadian who had languished for six long years in Ludlow St. jail in that city.

The Detroit Free Press says: "Canada is rapidly becoming a net-work of telephone lines."

Hon. R. W. Scott, author of the Canada Temperance Act, or "Scott Act," as it is commonly called...

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The People Want the Cemetery; the Whole of It. For They Elected the Full Cemetery Ticket.

Monday morning dawned with a drenching rain storm in full progress, and notwithstanding the fact that it was the occasion of the annual Municipal Election...

The policy of the Cemetery Committee of last year was supported by Messrs. Henderson, Fyfe and Cameron, while Messrs. Pearson, Ismond and Moore, interpreted the wishes of the people as opposed to the actions of this Committee...

As a result of the election some new blood, of a desirable nature has been introduced, and we firmly believe it will prove beneficial to the Council and in the best interest of the town.
