THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1886.

THE BABY'S BEDTIME

This is the baby's bedtime; Dimple chin climbs on my kuce, -With "Mamma, I's dest as s'cepy And tired as I tan be." So I take up the little darling, And undress the weary feet That have been making since daylight

A music busy and sweet. "Tell me a pitty 'tory," She pleads, in a sleepy way. And I ask, as I cuddle and kiss her, " What shall I tell you pray?" Tell me," and then she pauses To rub each sleepy eye-· How zo bid pid does to martet.

Then I toll, as I smooth the tangles Ever at war with the comb, · How the big pig went to market, And the wee ones stayed at home; And I count on the rosy fingers Each little pig once more, And she laughs at the " pitty 'tory,'

And ze 'ittle pids all c'y."

As if unheard before. Then I fold her hands together Upon her breast, and she In her lisping, sleepy fashion, Repeats her prayer with me. Before it is ended, the blossoms Of her eyes in slumber close, But the words that are left unuttered

Then I lay the bright head on the pillow, With a lingering good-night kiss, Thinking how much God loved me To give me a child like this. And I pray, as I turn from the bedside, He will help me guide aright The feet of the little darling I leave in His care to-night.

He who loves the children knows.

New Quilts, New White Cottons, New Grey Cottons, New Tickings, New Shirtings, New Glughams, New Tweeds, New Carpets, New Prints, New Sateens, and hundreds of New Goods contained in 130 cases and bales have arrived, and most of them are cheaper than ever before. The wide fast-colored Prints at 61c. and 71c. are creating a sensation. The Dress Goods in black and colored are marked down to about two thirds of what they are worth. The Mantles, Mantle Cloths, Shawls, Blankets, Underclothing, etc., will be sold off at and under cost. No goods will be marked up again. The 3c. Gray Cotton, the Yard Wide, 4c., 5c., 6jc., and up to the best are far below their value. Just see the 6jc., 7jc., 10c. and the higher-priced White Cottons. They are all a yard wide, and their cheapness is talked of all over. The forewomen in Mantle, Millinery and Dressmaking Departments begin on Monday, the 15th instant, to make up a grand display in their several lines. Miss Amiss has been down in New York. for over three weeks amongst the most fashionable dressmaking houses there, to get the latest styles. She gives ladies the most complete satisfaction in fitting. Every dress will be warranted to fit well. Thirty bales of Carpets arrived, and are selling very cheap. Mind the Right House is on King Street East, one door west of Hughson Street.
