THE TOTAL ABSTAINER'S CASE

SETTLED It is said we refuse the good gifts of God, Freely bestow'd by His hand divine : But the gift of God-is the purple grape, Hanging in clusters from the vine. The gift of God is the golden grain, Waving in beauty before the breeze, The gift of God is the luscious fruit, Bending the boughs of the orchard trees;

We do not refuse to partake of these. O then they are changed from good to ill! The bounteous gifts of the Author of good Are turned into poison in place of food, To poison which courseth through every

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT.

M'LEOD, ANDERSON & CO.,

In making their announcement for the Spring, would say that owing to unforseen circumstances and the hard times prevalent in the community, they have been unable to carry out their announcement of dissolution of partnership. The said partnership will, therefore, dontinue for one year longer, so as to give all parties who are still owing > us on account a further opportunity to call and settle their accounts. We purpose to do business entirely for cash or produce; no goods will be charged. We will sell goods cheap. We have had such an experience of the old-time credit business, which enables us to say that it is a very unfair way of doing business. The honest and trusty man who pays up promptly has to pay for the dishonest man who never pays at all. We are satisfied that every person who looks at the cash system of doing business will say that it is the only honest and fair principle of doing business. We can buy cheaper, you will buy cheaper. We _ will sell goods at wholesale prices; paying cash and getting all the advantages which does acquie to the cash buyer. Try our system-seeour goods-compare prices-and we are satisfied you will save 25 per cent, on all goods purenased from us.
