THE FARMER'S BOY.

I know my face and hands are brown, But I am strong and spry; You cannot find in all the town A happier boy than I. With health, with hearty appetite, With nothing to annoy, It is a sweet and true delight

To be a farmer's boy. My pants are patched, my cap is torn, There's smut upon my nose; My muddy shoes are badly worn-They laugh at both the toes. My mother makes a suit for me That I can soon destroy, .

But it is always fun to be

A lively farmer's boy! I love the mountains grand and steep, They make me think of God; The hillside pasture, where the sheep Browse on the fresh, green sod ; The spreading beech and maple trees, The squirrels, so cute and coy, ... The birds, the butterflies, the bees-

I am a farmer's.boy! I can, with jack-knife, carve a ship. Or make a whistle shrill; Can stones upon the river skip, Down by the old red mill; The tallest trees can nimbly climb, Can sing, can shout with joy, Can have a splendid, jolly time, And be a farmer's boy.

ANNOUNCEMENT. M'LEOD, ANDERSON & CO.,

In making their announcement for the Spring, would say that owing to unforscen circumstances and the hard times prevalent in the community, they have been unable to carry out their announcement of dissolution of partnership. The said partnership will, therefore, continue for one year longer, so as to give all parties who are still owing us on account a further opportunity to call and settle their accounts.

We purpose to do business entirely for cash or produce; no goods will be charged. We will sell goods cheap. We have had such an experience of the old-time credit business, which enables us to say that it is a very unfair way of doing business. The honest and trusty man who pays up promptly has to pay for the dishonest man who never pays at all. We are satisfied that every person who looks at the cash system of doing business will say that it is the only honest and fair principle of doing business. We can buy cheaper, you will buy cheaper, We will sell goods at wholesale prices, paying cash and getting all the advantages which does accrue to the cash buyer. Try our system—see our goods—compare prices—and we are satisfied you will save 25 per cent. on all goods purchased from us.
