Hamilton Spectator.—Berlin, Ont., is a great church town. Everybody's editors goes to church there. The mission factories that flourish in Berlin render it entirely unnecessary for the most poverty-stricken to feel embarrassed when the collection plate makes its appearance.

When the law prohibiting boys under eighteen years of age frequenting billiard rooms came into force, Mr. Wallace put up a notice accordingly, and we understand he observes the law in this particular, but we do not think we can say as much for the proprietor of the other billiard tables, as boys under eighteen are allowed to play there.—Milton Reformer.
The insurance inspectors report the woolen factory and machinery of Mr. E. Williams, Glenwilliams, destroyed by fire last week, to be a total wreck. The mill had orders enough ahead to keep it busy for twelve months. The steam stone mill was completely destroyed and the other buildings partially. THE WEEK'S TAKINGS.
Which are Principally Local and All Interesting.

Struck With Lightning.
The steeple of the Methodist Church, Georgetown, was shattered by lightning Friday night. The members of the choir were in the church practicing at the time. Some of them were pretty badly stunned by the shock. It will cost about $50 to repair the damage.
Blow off the Top of His Head.
William Dobson, a wealthy and respected farmer of Chingacousy Township, blew the top of his head off with a shotgun at an early hour last Sunday morning. No cause for the act. He was in Brampton on Saturday and returned home in the evening in good health and spirits.
A Pastor Appreciated.
At the last regular meeting of the Quarterly Official Board, of the Methodist Church, Fergus, the Rev. J. S. Collier received a hearty vote of thanks for the very faithful manner in which he has discharged his pastoral duties during the conference year. A unanimous invitation was accorded him to return to this charge for the incoming year, and they sincerely hoped he would accept the invitation.—Fergus Advocate.
A Credit to the County.
Last week Messrs. Robertson Bros., of Lot 25, Con. 7, Nassagaweya, about two miles from Acton, raised one of the finest bank barns in the county. The building is 54x80 feet, and is built upon the most approved plans. The foundation is built of dressed granite, and the whole of the exterior is finished with dressed lumber. When completed this barn will present a very handsome appearance. About 140 men were engaged at the raising.

Rockwood News.

From our own Correspondent.

The concert in the town hall on the evening of the Queen's Birthday, proceeds to improve the condition of the sidewalks of the place, promises to be a grand success. Exceptional talent has been secured.

The Rockwood Presbyterian choir, although but recently organized, compares favorably with many a long established band of vocalists. Several splendid voices are noticeable, but they all make up a harmonious whole.
A young man attending the Presbyterian church last Sunday, becoming restless, broke a flask of liquid (not licensed by the Scotch Act), which ran, much to his discomfort, over the seat and floor. It is to be hoped that the young man will never indulge in such a practice in future.

Thousands of physicians all over the United States prescribe Warner's safe cure, in bottles of their own. You pay them from $1.50 to $5.00 a visit; you can buy Warner's safe cure, six or eight bottles, for $1.25. Do not be imposed upon.

Boys For Adoption.
A second party of 200 boys (ages 8 to 10), is expected to leave Dr. Barnardo's Training Homes, London and Worcester-shire, England, early in June, and will arrive in Peterborough towards the end of the month. Applications for these boys will be dealt with in the order in which they are sent in and completed, and should be made early so that all arrangements may be made to forward them on arrival. All communications to be sent to Mr. Edward Duff, Superintendent, Dr. Barnardo's Distributing Home, Peterborough, Ont.
A Former Acton Boy's Laureate.
A couple of years ago we recorded the fact that Mr. J. E. Farmer, a former resident of Acton, had graduated with diploma from Garrett Biblical University, Evanston, Ill. We have now much pleasure in informing our readers that our young friend has just passed other important university examinations, and the faculty of the above institution last Thursday conferred upon him the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. While pursuing his studies Mr. Farmer has for several years been the much esteemed and successful pastor of the second M. E. Church, in the above city, and occupied an active position on the staff of the Alliance Herald, a monthly religious journal published under the direction of the Young People's Alliance of Chicago and Evanston. His duties have certainly been multifarious; he has worked arduously, has built up the church of which he is pastor and has graduated with honors to himself and to his alma mater. The Free Press extends its hearty congratulations to Rev. J. E. Farmer, B.D.
A Pointer for Acton.
From the Markham Economist we copy the following, which should commend itself to the residents of Acton.—Stouffville Weekly Market.—Mr. Daley advertised generally that a weekly market would be opened in his hall, Stouffville, on Thursday, the 29th ult., and patiently awaited results. On that morning, at 8:30, the wagons were whirling through the streets to the hall, and from 9 to 11 the excitement and bustle was animating and profitable; 1,000 dozens of eggs, at 10 cents per dozen, and 400 dozens of butter, at 22 to 25 cents per pound, besides dried fruit and meats, and a sprinkling of other produce changed hands. Mr. Daley charges the sellers 5 cents each per day for use of hall, weight scales, and other attendances, or $1 per annum. Some fifteen or twenty subscribed for the year. At 12 o'clock, noon, the village assumed its normal condition, and all acknowledged that Mr. Daley had given another impetus to the trade of the place through his sagacity and push. One thoroughly active business man can accomplish much in building up a village, and where there are several such in a community the place is bound to grow and prosper. Those who want to buy or sell should attend the Stouffville market each Thursday morning; there will be any number of buyers. How would a similar market taken in Markham? And we would ask why shouldn't Acton have something of a similar character?

FALSIFYING TICKETS.

The G.T.R. Evicted to Have Been Systematically Defrauded.
A New York Pinkerton detective has succeeded in locating the persons by whom the Grand Trunk Railroad Company has been systematically defrauded for a long time. Several arrests of employees have been made, and it is reported that warrants are out for the arrest of at least 250 ticket agents and clerks who have been in collusion to cheat the company. Wm. McFarlane, ticket agent at the Grand Trunk depot in Guelph, was arrested Tuesday on a charge of embezzlement. He was committed for trial. The funds, which are said to be very extensive, involving many ticket agents, were worked by doctored and falsifying tickets.
As stated last week, Mr. McFarlane, ticket agent, Guelph, was arrested and tried for being implicated in the matter. His Lordship, in passing sentence on Saturday morning, said that under ordinary circumstances he would give the prisoner five years in the penitentiary, but as the Grand Trunk authorities did not wish a heavy sentence and a largely signed requisition bore testimony to prisoner's previous good character, he therefore would sentence him to six months in the common gaol at hard labor.
Other arrests will shortly follow.

LOUIS RIEL'S WIDOW.

Said to be Dying of a Broken Heart.
WENNEPEE, May 17th.—Louis Riel's widow lies at the point of death at St. Vital. Masses were celebrated for her at St. Boniface yesterday. It is said she never rallied from the shock of her husband's execution, and is dying of a broken heart.

He Was Willing to Ante Up.

BROOKTON, N. Y., Oct. 23rd, 1885.—I had a severe trouble with my bladder. Consulted a number of first-class physicians, without benefit. After using half a bottle of Warner's safe cure I was relieved, and I would gladly have paid any physician $100, could he have done what that small quantity did. Now I am thoroughly cured. Would like to proclaim its value from the top of the White Mountains, with a voice strong enough for the whole world to hear. E. D. CAOSMUS, grape grower, late proprietor of the Rossin House, Toronto, Canada.
