THE WEEK'S RAKINGS.
Which are Principally Local and All Interesting.
Choked With Dust.
"I'm almost choked with dust," said a municipal father the other day. "And I wish you would remain so." An unsympathetic elector, "until you devise some means of sprinkling our streets."
Fire Crackers Again.
On Queen's Birthday the residence of Mr. Mm. Mash, about two miles from Milton, caught fire from fire-crackers. The flames were extinguished after some slight damage had been done to the kitchen roof.
—Sun.

Howard Clifton and the Cornet Band.
Howard Clifton and his Church Choir Concert Co., will give an entertainment in the town hall this evening, under the auspices of Acton Cornet Band. This company has visited Acton on several former occasions and never failed to please the large audiences which greeted them.
Weeds and Thistles on the Roads.
It should be considered part of the road work everywhere to keep the weeds and thistles cut down, which spring up along the sides of the highways, as the statute requires; and this work should never be neglected. There is scarcely a neighborhood in which the highways do not mature enough weeds and thistles to seed half the adjoining fields.
Further Survey of Fairview Cemetery.
Mr. John Davis, P.L.S., is engaged in surveying a portion of the rear part of Fairview Cemetery. An acre or so will be surveyed into plots and it will form a very attractive part of the cemetery. The natural walks, the trees and shrubbery, etc., will, as far as possible, be retained, and with the exercise of a proper taste a most picturesque effect will be secured.
Concert and Convention.
The Ketchikan Concert and Convention Co. will be here to give a concert on Tuesday evening, June 8th. Their object is to hold a convention which will last five days, four hours per day, for the benefit of those who are interested in vocal music. Admission free, children under fourteen not admitted unless accompanied by parents. Don't fail to hear them. For further particulars see bills.
Timely and Common Sense Advice.
"If your local paper," writes an old journalist now long out of business, "happens to read on your toes a little in performing its mission don't get your back up and abuse the editor, but stop and take a good breath and think for a season, and see if you can't remember some of the favors and kindness it has shown you in the past. Then reflect that it may not be long before you may want some favor again."
Fatal Accident at Rockwood.
James Grieve, a man in the employ of John Burns, farmer, about one mile east of Rockwood, was killed at 8:30 Monday morning. He was driving along with a load of manure, when the horses became frightened at something and ran away. In his efforts to stop them he was thrown under the front wheel of the wagon, which passed over him, causing injuries from which he died shortly afterwards. He was a hard-working man, and leaves a wife and six children, for whom much sympathy is felt.—Guelph Mercury.

June Roses.
Rich, blooming and variegated as the roses of June, comes the American Agriculturist for this month, with its one hundred original illustrations and original articles, by forty-four well-known writers in various parts of the Union, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Every number now of this periodical is better than its predecessor, and the publishers announce that they are providing for still new features and illustrations. The second paper, in the series of the Homes of our Farmer Presidents, will be written by Donald G. Mitchell (k. Marvel); subject, George Washington. The accompanying engraving will probably be as large as that of Jefferson's Home, which was the first of the series, to wit: 27 inches long and 17 inches wide. These engravings of our Farmer Presidents are to be presented to all subscribers of the American Agriculturist as they appear. Price of the American Agriculturist, English or German, $1.50 per year. We will club with the Free Press for $2.10 a year, each subscriber to receive both papers and the special engravings and descriptions by American authors as they appear.

The Library Magazine.
One hardly appreciates the vast amount of valuable and entertaining matter which is contained in The Library Magazine, if he sees it in weekly form only; when its several issues are brought together in monthly parts it presents an array of valuable and timely articles that is fairly astonishing. The part for June contains a score of important papers selected from the best current literature, British and American, besides which there are the departments of "Books and their Authors" and "Literary Notes and Comments," which contain well-nigh two hundred notices and notes. It is [doubtful if any other magazine, in Europe or America, furnishes so much valuable and interesting reading, even at five times its cost, which is only $1.50 a year. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 303 Pearl Street, New York.

Unable to Dress or Undress for 10 Years.
Lockport, N. Y., April 25th, 1884.—For ten years I suffered from lameness. Could not dress or undress myself. Different physicians failed to do me any good. Had constant desire to urinate, when I could not pass a particle of water. Suffered tortures. Took three bottles of Warner's safe cure, which effectually and permanently cured me. Never knew it to fail.—FAYETTE HASKIN.
