TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1880.

GOT THEM ON YOUR LIST.

As sometimes it may happen that dry goods must be bought, You should have a little list, you should have a list.

Of the places in the city where low prices can be caught, And this never should be missed; that never should be missed.

There's the toilet for the summer, a most important thing, Which, of course, includes the toilet, for the balmy, gay spring.

And a number of things, making quite a lengthy list;

Oh, they never should be missed; they never should be missed.

First of all there comes the trunk—a very big one;

To hold the fancy odds and ends, and all the ribbons blue;

Then a combination suit, which you'll buy at the least cost;

This never should be lost; this never should be lost.

And a dress of summer fabric; a pretty small or large;

So pretty, bright and lovely, like the dewy sun-kissed morn.

You should have these on your list, should have them on your list;

For they surely would be missed; they surely would be missed.

Then there's the summer silk, of texture bright and rare,

That matches so superbly your dark or golden hair.

And white, embroidered robes, or in colors,

If you like,

With a stylish little parasol to finish up the "dike."

And lace and embroideries in all the latest styles,

And a fan of snowy whiteness to cover up

You should have these on your list; you should have them on your list;

For they surely will be missed, they surely will be missed.

To mention all the fancies in the toilet of the spring—such tedious things; would be quite tedious things;

So we take it that you know them and will buy 'em all in time;

Caring little for the jingle of this silly, monstrous rhyme.

But there yet remains the object, ere its mission is complete,

To tell again the story which the public will repeat;

That the places to find bargains—the best in town—me guess.

Are those that advertise in the Action Free Press.

You should add them to your list, you should add them to your list;

For they never should be missed; they never should be missed.

ALL SORTS.

Is there anything more annoying than having your corn stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced.

The sure effects of Ayer's Sarsaparilla are thorough and permanent. If there is a lurking taint of scrofula about you, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will dislodge it, and expel it from your system.

A FAIR PROPOSITION.

There could be no offer more fair than that of the proprietors of Higgyard's Yellow Oil, who have long offered to refund every cent expended for that remedy, if it fails to give satisfaction on fair trial.

A whisker dye must be convenient to use, easy to apply, impossible to rub off, elegant in appearance, and cheap in price. Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers unites in itself all these merits. Try it.

HIGH PRIDE.

Mrs. John Neelands, writing from the Methodist Parsonage, Adelaide, Ont., says: "I have used Higgyard's Pectoral Balsam in our family for years. For heavy colds, sore throats and distressing coughs no other medicine so soon relieves."

Have you ever tried McGregor & Park's Carbolic Cerate for sores of all kinds? It is beyond doubt the very best preparation in the market for healing and curing Sores, Burns, Cuts, Pimplies, Blotches, and the only proper method of applying Carbolic Acid. Sold at Dr. McGarvin's Drug Store for 25c. per box.

DECLARED INCURABLE.

E. C. McGovern, of Syracuse, N. Y., who is a well known resident of that place, was declared incurable by his physician, the disease being a complication of kidney and liver complaint. In two days he found relief in Burdock Blood Bitters, and in one month he entirely recovered.

A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes: For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which caused me much pain and annoyance. Mr. Maybee, of this place, recommended Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for it. I tried it, and before one bottle was used I was cured. It is an article of great value.

QUININE AND CHILLS.

Quinine is the popular remedy for chill fever, but it does not always cure. Esquire Petton, of Grass Lake, Michigan, took in all 600 grains of quinine for chronic chills and malarial fever. After that various other remedies had failed, five bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him.

This is to certify that I have used McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and do honestly say that if it cost me one hundred dollars ($100.00) a bottle I would not be without it, as it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used, and I feel like a new man—Yours truly, ALEX. STEEL, Carlton Place, Ont. This medicine is for sale at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Dr. McGarvin's Drug Store.

The True Elixir of Life.

Thomas Robinson, Farmham, Centre, P. O., writes: I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I got a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and found it gave instant relief, and since then have had no attack. I would recommend it to all.

People who read and reflect, after reading, upon the many published testimonies regarding Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, can scarcely fail to perceive that evidence positive and concurrent could not be adduced in behalf of a remedy of doubtful efficacy. The facts proven by such evidence are that it roots out impurities of the blood, restores digestion, enriches the circulation, and regulates the bowels and liver.
