ance of his store front by a coat of paint.
- A trio of medical quacks raked in the dollars on the street a couple of nights last week.
- Mr. Thomas Perryman, Sr., has just completed a neat fence in front of his residence.
- Wedding invitations. The ladies are delighted with the wedding invitations the Free Press's office executes.
- In the fall the honest farmer kills his grunters "in the moon;" in the fall the rural sportsman hunt the wild nocturnal coot.
- The Orangeville Advertiser says a man suspected of the description of Jas. Wells, the Nassagaweya thief, was seen in town last week.
- A fall poet writes that nature is now in her daisy, hay, lazy, mazy, crazy quilt. That poet must have been attending the township fall fairs.
- One of the neatest programmes we have ever seen printed in Milton was executed by the Reporter's office for the Band Concert last Friday evening.
- Owing to their youth the two Limehouse boys sent to Milton for disgraceful conduct were discharged with caution, after a severe reprimand by Judge Miller.
- Master James Warren, of Hamilton, thirteen years old, is the youngest person in Ontario holding a second class certificate.
He is studying for the legal profession.
- Our local nimmers are putting in some interesting time just now. What with wood-cock, ducks, partridge and black squirrels, there is some rare sport indeed.
- At a meeting of the Village Council held Monday, Messrs. Chase, Ryan, L.
Grant, and A. C. McKinlay were appointed trustees of Georgetown High School.
- Messrs. Worden Bros. are having their dwelling on Arthur street bricked. The residents of the East End are evidently determined to have their houses appear as well as those elsewhere.
- The Municipal Finance Minister will bring down the annual budget and deliver his budget speech at the Council next Tuesday evening. The rate will probably be struck at the same meeting.
- Will you, dear reader, please examine the address label on your FREE PRESS, and if you think the date requires any alteration, kindly take the necessary steps to have it amended, and kindly oblige the publisher.
- Our merchants—or the "most" of them at least—are running the go-as-you-please method of closing again. This, after six months of satisfactory and general closing at eight o'clock is decidedly retrogressive.
- Rockwood show on Tuesday and Wednesday was the usual success, and favored (?) with the customary wet weather.
The attendance was good and the show in all respects complete. Report next week.
- Rev. J. H. George, Ottawa, was unavoidably deterred from being present to preach in Knox Church last Sunday. Rev.
H. Norris, of Glenhalla, filled the vacancy.
He delivered two very acceptable sermons.
- The New Orleans Procyon remarks that "a novelty for schoolrooms would be perfect ventilation, plenty of room for the children and well-paid teachers." This is not so far-fetched "perhaps as one would at first imagine.
- Our job printing department is so complete and our workmen so expert that persons leaving an order for sale bills, concert posters, cards, circulars, &c., can get them done up in first-class style in the shortest possible time consistent with creditable work. Call and see us. Fine work a specialty.
- In a printer's journal we notice the following caution to country printers: "Too much free advertising is a grievous error of the country publisher. All notices, except news, should be paid for, and no deviation from this rule should be tolerated for an instant." We hope our readers will bear this in mind and not tempt us to commit this "grievous error."
- An exchange says: Have you ever stood on a street crossing and witnessed how many will drive their team up, stop them right over the crossing and keep them there even when there is a post-convention?
They don't appear to think of how many ladies are thus obliged to step out into the mud and wade around some other way.
There is generally plenty of room without obstructing our crossings.
- Hats from 75 cents to $2.50 at J.
Fyle's.
- WATERPROOF FUR.—A buggy waterproof, found on the Erin and Erasmus crossing on September 30th. The owner will please enquire at the Free Press office.

THE WEEK'S RAKINGS.

Which are Principally Local and All Interesting.

A Letter of Some Time Ago.
On Monday Mr. George Hynds showed us an autograph letter written by Daniel Hall, at Newport, in the Isle of Wight, and dated 24th of 4th month, 1788. Its extreme age renders it quite a curiosity. It was found among the papers of an ancestor of Mrs. W. J. Piggott.

The Last of the Season.
An alleged game of base ball between Acton and Campbellville was played here on Saturday afternoon. The score was 25 to 21 in Campbellville's favor. It's hard to say which club did the worst playing, and they couldn't blame the umpire, for his decisions were most impartial.

The Joseph Williams Failure.
The Georgetown Herald says: A meeting of the creditors of Mr. Joseph Williams, Glen Williams, was held here on Tuesday.
All have agreed to accept 40 cents on the dollar; 25 cents on the dollar to be paid in six months and the remainder, which is not secured, in three equal annual instalments.

Bound Over to Keep the Peace.
On Saturday morning James Hill, who lives at the Dominion Lime Kilns, was charged with abusing and threatening his wife. Ample evidence was adduced to sustain the charge, and he was bound over to keep the peace for the term of twelve months, himself in $100 and a surety in a similar sum.

Speeding in the Ring.
A writer in the Rural Canadian, referring to the annual agricultural exhibitions, says:—I do not much fancy the new-fangled phrase, "speeding in the ring." The humorous American title, "agricultural horse-trot," is better, if we must have a substitute for the old-fashioned term, "horse-race." That's what it is, call it what you will, and farmers, of all people in the world, should "call a spade, a spade."

Successful Manufacturers.
The valises and trunks manufactured by Messrs. Moore & McGarvin, Acton, are giving unbounded satisfaction in all quarters of the Province. Customers of their who made exhibits of their goods in Toronto received a bronze medal, and in St. Thomas and London first prizes. Orders are coming in rapidly, principally for their best lines, and the staff of workmen have been putting in overtime for several weeks.

A Big Fair Number.
Mr. H. C. Stovel, formerly publisher of the Mt. Forest Confederate, is now manager of the Napanee Express, and the impress of his enterprising labors is clearly stamped upon the Express. The latest accomplishment is the execution of a 20-page edition of the Express for fair week, and a very creditable paper it is. There must have been some hard work and long hours, too, for this mammoth paper—for a weekly office—was gotten out by an ordinary staff of six hands, with the usual complement of plant and presses, and all in one week.
Stovel is a pushing newspaper man.

The Florist of the County.
At the invitation of Dr. Roe we visited Floral View Greenhouses, at Georgetown, the other day. Here under 4,000 feet of glass the worthy doctor has a complete assortment of rare as well as common plants and flowers in all stages of maturity.
In this attractive spot he spends much of his leisure time to his personal satisfaction, and here the visitor receives a hearty welcome and courteous treatment. These greenhouses supply large orders to florists in the city at fancy prices. The Dr. made a magnificent exhibit at the County Show last week, embracing over 100 pots. He succeeded in winning the bulk of the prizes too.

Another Occasion for Orange Blossoms.
From the Ridgeway Pictorial we glean the following respecting the marriage of Mr. D. McMackon, formerly of Acton:—A happy event which rumor has anticipated for some time was consummated at Maple Dell on the 29th September. This was the marriage of Susie Stone to David McMackon, both of Highgate. Miss Mattie Stone, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Thos. McMackon, brother of the groom, as groomsmen. The party were dressed very becomingly. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Pomeroy. The presents were numerous and costly. About sixty guests from Acton, Ayr, Belleville, Chatham, Detroit, Essex Centre, Lambeth and St. Thomas were present. The day was pleasant and the wedding very enjoyable.

A Double Dose of Happiness.
On Tuesday an event took place which tends to strengthen Acton's reputation as a place where the marriage-vows are very frequently brought into practical service.
And the affair of Tuesday was none of your ordinary pair-at-a-time weddings, but one of those rare occasions where two pairs of hearts "which beat as one," are united at the one ceremony. The event to which we refer was the marriage of Mr. L.
G. Matthews, Baker and General Merchant, and Miss Jennie Blair, also of Mr. W. R.
Kenney, of Kenney Bros., Boot and Shoe Merchants, to Miss Tillie Blair. The young men are among our most respected business men, and have each spent the whole of their lives—about 25 or 30 years—in Acton with honor and credit to themselves and their families. The brides are sisters, daughters of Mr. Thomas Blair, of Kilbride. They have both spent a number of years in Acton, and during that period have won the love and esteem of a very large circle of friends, and Messrs. Matthews and Kenney are considered fortunate in having secured such estimable young ladies to preside over their future homes.
The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. Blair, by Rev. J. W. Cathcart, and was witnessed by the members of the three families and a number of guests.
The presents were numerous and handsome.
The wedding party arrived in Acton on Tuesday evening, and, setting a worthy example for future hymeneal participants, wisely spend their first days of wedded life together in their own homes, the former on Frederick street, and the latter on Elgin street. The Free Press and the many friends of the happy couples extend their heartiest congratulations and sincerest wishes.

-If you want a nobby durable and cheap suit, go to J. Fyle's, Acton.

Happily Wedded.

In St. Paul's Church yesterday at 1 p.m., Miss Annie Henderson Laidlaw, only daughter of the late James H. Laidlaw, of Ayr, and step-daughter of Mr. Archibald Campbell, of Acton, was led to the altar by Harry, son of Dr. G. A. Purvis, of Portage du Fort, Quebec. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. R.
J. Laidlaw, pastor of St. Paul's, in presence of relatives of the bride from Acton, Georgetown, Guelph and Hamilton, and friends and acquaintances from Hamilton, by the hands of some of whom the church was tastefully decorated with flowers in honor of the occasion. After the ceremony the happy couple proceeded from the beautiful church to the music of the wedding march, and the pealing of wedding bells, and attended by the invited guests, repaired to the residence of the Rev. R. J. Laidlaw, where they were entertained until the hour of the departure of the east-bound train, which carried the happily wedded pair toward their new home at Port Colborne, Quebec, followed by the hearty good wishes of many friends. The bride has many friends in Hamilton, having formerly resided here for some time as a member of her uncle's family.—Hamilton Times.

Agents Wanted.

Clement & Co., of 48 Wellington Street East, Toronto, or St. Francis Xavier Street, Montreal, want a General Agent.
They are the exclusive owners of the Schofield Patent Cake Griddle, the Celebrated Emery Knife Sharpener (known as the "Carver's Friend"), the Emery Scythe Sharpener, the Jay-Eye-Saw Wire Curry Comb, and other specialties. If you want to make money, write to them at once for an outfit, and to secure what territory you can handle.

THE OLD CEMETERY.

Violators of the By-law Closing the Promises Find That They Cannot Violate with Impunity.

$25 AND COSTS IN FIRST CASE.

The first case of violation of By-law 145, which was passed with a view of preserving the public health, and which prohibits further interments in the old cemetery, came up for hearing before his worship, Reeve Storey, last Friday.

Neil McArthur of Erin was charged with having violated the by-law by burying his sister there on Sunday, 3rd October.

Neil McArthur was called and pleaded not guilty.

J. E. McGarvin, clerk—gave evidence that by-law 145 was in force.

J. A. Speight, undertaker, called, said—The defendant engaged hearse and ordered him to bury deceased in the old cemetery.
He followed instructions, and went to the cemetery with the corpse and saw it deposited there on the 3rd of October. Defendant was present and took part in the burial.

Wm. Smith, laborer—admitted that he had dug the grave in the old cemetery.
Defendant and two of his brothers were there when the order was given.

Thomas Elston—Am a village constable.
Upon learning that defendant and his brothers intended to inter deceased in the old cemetery I went to warn them of the consequences as it was contrary to law.
I think it was defendant who spoke up and said they were going to bury there anyhow. I then left.

This concluded the evidence.

Mr. Storey, Reeve, upon rising said he regretted that it became his duty to fine Mr. McArthur for the infraction of a Municipal By-law, but if the laws of the Mun-cipality were to be preserved and respected it was necessary that violators be punished.

His decision was, that defendant, Neil McArthur, shall pay forthwith a fine of $25 and costs.

It was far from his desire, he said, to impose penalties of this character and he felt pained that the hostility to municipal authority of certain parties, called for such action. In the case of some of those who had contravened the by-law who resided in Acton and the immediate vicinity, there was some cause for leniency and sympathy, inasmuch as they had expressed a desire to comply with the law if they could obtain burial plots in first survey—the front six acres—of the new cemetery. However, pending the action of the courts the Council had not seen proper to sell plots there, but had since made a new survey outside the old corporation limits. But, in McArthur's case there was no ground for sympathy.
He had been warned of the consequences of burying in the old cemetery, but had brought the corpse from the County of Wellington and buried in defiance of the by-law. This stubborn resistance to authority will not be punished, and should any further burials take place he would impose the full penalty provided in the by-law, viz: $50 and costs. Continuing the magistrate said, in order, however, to show you that this court tempers justice with mercy I will make this promise, that in case you I will recommend the Council to refund the fine imposed.

The fair and impartial hearing of the case and the promise of the presiding magistrate have been very favorably commented upon by citizens generally since the holding of the court, and it is agreed that no fairer treatment of the defendant could be looked for under the circumstances.

The case against John Duff, also of the county of Wellington, will be heard in the court room in the town hall to-morrow at two o'clock p. m.

Fall & Winter R. B. JERMYN, Fall & Winter
1886 ACTON 1886

I take pleasure in informing the residents of Acton and vicinity that my stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS is now very complete. Without doubt no dealer in Acton has ever shown such LATE STYLES, VARIETY AND GOOD VALUE as I am now in a position to offer. Although many lines in Dry Goods have increased at least 20 per cent., I had the good fortune to buy heavily early in the season, so customers may rely on getting goods at the very lowest possible CASH PRICE. I would again remind the public that my staff is not allowed to misrepresent goods, and a child receives the same good value as a grown experienced person.

The business that I did during the spring and summer was very encouraging, indeed; so with increased facilities and double the stock, I do not fear for the Fall and Winter Trade.

I wish to direct special attention to the following lines, which for variety and elegance combined are so perfect and varied that very few houses outside of the principal cities can show such perfection in their selection:—

DRESS GOODS—The fashionable shades are grey and navy blue—200 pieces to select from, in English, French and German makes, viz.:—Jersey Cloths in black and colors, Boucles, Foulos, Ottomans, Serges, Flats, Meltons, Cashmeres, All-wool Combinations, Combination Winceys, Silks in black and colors, Satin Merveilleux, Plushes, Velvets and Velvetens. (Large and small buttons and clasps to match the goods.)

Special values in Boating Shawls, Mantles and Walking Jackets, Gloves, Hosiery, Corsets and Ladies' Underwear.

STAPLES—Grey Cotton, White Cotton, Wool and Cotton Shirtings, Ducks, Denims, Fabling, Crashes, Towels, Linens, Sheetings, Ticks, Blankets, Flannels, Yarn, etc., etc.

MILLINERY—Miss STRINGHAM has charge this Fall and Winter. This lady is thoroughly posted in her business, having had charge of some of the best establishments in Western Canada, so ladies may rely on getting correct styles, and I will guarantee prices to suit.

Men's and Boys' Ready-made Clothing. Men's and Boys' Woolen Underwear.

BOOTS AND SHOES for ladies, misses, children, men, youths and boys. All new goods, at prices as low as THE WHEAT.

GROCERIES—I have received advice from Yokohama, Japan, that the s.s. "Rio" sailed from that port on August 13th. It has ten chests of uncolored Tea on board for me. It is due at British Columbia on Sept. 7th, and the goods will reach here about 1st October. Call and try a sample pound of the first tea that was ever imported to Acton direct. The choicest Groceries always on hand.
