IMPOSSIBLE.

Once there was a maid whose beauty Put to shame the choicest art. Yet she'd shirk no household duty, And she even had a heart.

O'er her face smiles chased each other -Like the sunboams in the rose-And she never let her mother Sweep the steps or wash the clothes.

Every night the grand piano Sang, responsive to the touch --And this maid of charming manner, Oft made bread and pies and such.

She was fair of form and feature, Diamonds paled beneath her glance; Yet this handsome, dazzling creature Used to mend her brother's pants.
