The Acton Free Press,

VOLUME XII. NO. 25.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1886.

Che Acton Free Press

EVERY THURSDAY MORNING. PRESS POWER PRINTING HOUSE. ONTARIO

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. THREE MONTHS 25 CTS. Invariably in advance. If not paid in advance 1.25 per year will be charged. No paper discontinued till all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING RATES 1 YK. 6 MO. 3 MO. 1100

12.00 3.50 7.00 2.50 2.00 1.00 Gaarter Column 20,00 12,00 0ne Inch. 6,00 3,50 Casual advertisements, 8 cents per line for the arst insertion, and 2 cents per line for each subse ment insertion, cash. The number of lines reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid Nonpareil.

Advertisements, without specific directions, will be inserted till torbid and charged accordingly. Transitory advertisements must be paid Changes for contract advertisements must be in the office by 9 a.m. on Mondays, otherwise they will be left over until the following week. 7 H. P. MOORE. Editor and Proprietor

THIS PAPER may be found on fleat Geo. P.

THIS PAPER may be found on fleat Geo. P.

Ort ising Bureau (70 Spruce St.) where advertising

Fintracts may be made found. IN NEW YORK.

Business Directory.

W. H. LOWRY, M. B., M. C. P. S., Graduate of Trinity College, Mem-ber of College of Physicians and Surgeons, Office and residence:-At the head of Frederick Street, Acton.

L. BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST,

C. McKINLAY, L. D. S., Surgeon A. Dentist, Georgetown, Ont., uses the new system of Nitrous Oxide Gas (commonly called Vitalized Air) for extracting teeth without pain. Having been Demonstrator and Practical Teacher in Royal College of Dental Surgeons, Toronto, patrous may depend upon receiving satisfaction in any operations performed. Will visit Acton every second and fourth Wednesday of each month. Office-Agnew's Hotel.

TOHN LAWSON, GRADUATE OF ON tario Veterinary College, Toronto,-Veterinary Surgeon, Acton, Ont. Office-In Kenny Bros. boot and shoe store, -residence in the rear. Horses examined as to soundness, and certificates given. All calls, night or day, promptly attended to. Terms easy.

TOHNSTON & McLEAN

Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers. &c. Private Funds to Loan. Office:-Town Hall, Acton. L. F. B. Johnston. WM. A. McLEAN

Beenster, Solienor, Notary Public.

Money to Loan. OFFICE-Matthews' Block, Acton, upstairs

M. E. MITCHELL.

SOLICITOE, CONVEYANCEE, &C. Ulfice-First door west of the Champion office. Main street, Milton. Money to loan at 6 per cent.

HILTON, ALLAN & BAIRD. Barristers, Solicitors, &c., . Toronto und Georgetown. Orrers-Creelman's Block, Georgetown, and 56 King Street East, Toronto.

T. T. ALLAN. J. SHILTON, E.A. J. BAIRD, E.A. PAIN. LAIDLAW & CO.,

2 Bancistre's & Solicitors. OFFICES: Over Imperial Bank, 24 Wel lington Street East; Entrance, Exchange Alley. Toronto.

John Bur, Q. C. C. A. Musten. _

WILLIAM LAIDLAW. GEORGE KAPPELE. M. BADGEROW & CO., Bullistens, Solicitors, &c.,

Outario Hall. 50 Church Street, Toronto. 675. PARSEROW, M.P.P. JOHN CARSON, B.C.L.

DATENTS SECURED FOR INVENTIONS HENRY GRIST, OTTAWA, CANADA.

20 Years Practice. No Patent, No Pay.

A. MURRAY.

· LICENSED AUCTIONEER For the Counties of Halton and Wellington. Orders left at his residence, Main street opposite Church street. Acton, or addressed to Acton P.O., will receive strict attention. Terms reasonable. Notes discounted if

MYM. HEMSTREET,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER, For the Counties of Wellington and Halton Orders left at the FREE PRESS Office, Acton or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly attended to. Terms reasonable.

MONEY TO LOAN. Also money to loan on the most favorable terms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in sums of $500 and upwards.

TOHN DAY,

OFFICE:-Queen's Hotel Block, Market

TRANCIS NUNAN

(Successor to T. F. Chapman, St. George's Square, - Guelph, Outario.

Account Books of all kinds made to order Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling neatly and promptly done.

OHN J. DALEY. (Successor to Thompson & Jackson.) Money to Loan on Farm Property at 6 per cent. Mortgages purchased, Money oaned for parties in Mortgages and other security. Conveyancing in all its branches Farms and City property for sale. List with farms for sale sent to all parts of the Dominion to intending purchasers, and cir. calated in Europe. European capitalists wanting farms in Ontario will be sent directions through our European agencies. deace invited. Office near the Post Office testily cut. Gnelph, Ont.

ACTON BANKING CO'Y., STOREY, CHRISTIE & CO.,

-BANKERS,-Ontario.

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

MONEY LOANED ON APPROVED

Allowed on Deposits. DON'T READ THIS.

THE undersigued is prepared to furnish on the shortest notice, in any quantity and at bottom prices, first-class ing, Shingles, Wash Tubs, Churns, Butter Tubs, Pork Barrels, Wood.

ALSO. FLOUR AND FRED. and anything in the line of farmers', housekeepers' or contractors' necessities.

BUSINESS COLLEGE

treatment characterize the institution Ladies admitted to all the advantages of misition of French and German. For information address

Lumber, Shingles, AND LATH.

The undersigned desires to inform the public that he has now on hand and will keep in other kinds of Lumber, also, First and Second MOSCOW BEAVERS, class Pine Shingles & Lath.

Coal & Wood.

Having purchased the Coal business of Mr. C. S. Smith. I am prepared to supply all kinds of Stove Coal. I have also a good stock of Wood—Harlwood, Ash. Cedar and Mill Wood, at reason-Wood and Coal delivere

MUTUAL

FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

COUNTY OF WELLINGTON,

ESTABLISHED 1840.

HEAD OFFICE, - CUELPH.

Insures Buildings, Merchandize, Manu-Wellington Marble Works. factories, and all other descriptions of QUEBEC ST., GUELPH.

PROPRIETOR. Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Marble

Granite and everything pertaining to Cemetery work. Direct importer of all kinds of Granite and Having lately visited the Bay of Fundy granit quarries, and having purchased the entire stock of gray and rol granite monuments, headstones crosses, urns, etc., of Alexander Taylor, at less than cost, I will, mutil further notice, sell at prices never before known in Ontario. For in stance. Granite monuments. ft. high, $60, 7 ft $75. 8 ft. $90. 9 ft. $100, 10 ft. $120. All work and material warranted first-class. Parties wanting anything in this line will do well to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere, as I guarantee my prices are from 30 to 50 per cent, below all

-ACTON-

MEAT MARKET

Rutledge & Crosson, BUTCHERS.

Have purchased the business of Mr. 1 Holmes, and solicit a share of public

The members of the firm are practical butchers, and are prepared to ensure their customers thorough satisfaction. There will always be found on hand a full stock of all kinds of meat, &c., in season.

We have settled in Acton to stay, and feel satisfied that by transacting business upon business principles we will win public confidence and support.

Rutledge & Crosson. Acton, Feb. 9th, 1886.

NEW BLACKSMITE IN ACTON.

ANDREW TESKEY

Having purchased the General Blacksmith ing Business of Ma. P. J. SMITH solicits the patronage of all the dustomers of the shop and the public generally.

HORSESHOEING Will be made a special feature of the busi-Interfering horses carefully shod and Having had large experience in manufacture and repairing of agricultural implements and machinery of all kinds, as well as of general work, I feel that I can paranteesatisfaction in every case.

The Acton Free Press. THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 16, 1886.

POETRY. GOD BLESS OUR HOME."

....SPECIAL

ACTON PEOPLE

GUELPH.

The stock is full of this summer.

WRITING DESKS,

And 1,000 other things,

SUITABLE FOR XMAS. PRESENTS

It will pay you to visit

GUELPH

INOVERCOATINGS

PLAIN MELTONS, ALL SHADES

NAP BEAVERS,

Plain & Fancy Worsteds.

SHAW & CRUND

Merchant Tailors, Guelph.

VENETIANS,

FANCY CHECK MELTONS,

DAY'S BOOKSTORE

TOY. BOOKS,

HAND SATCHELS,

We come from the fog-laden streets of From wide windy spaces where the cold has no pity, From close darkened room, or from bleak DAY'S BOOKSTORE hill and moor, To thankfully enter the welcoming door,

We come from the fights and the races and strife, Nice, New Fancy Goods From the tempests of words that are thus dering lond. Bought by Mr. Day when in England

And God bless our home !

And God bless our home! O snug little nest, in a shelter so cheery, Each day line its Sabbath of prayer and CHOICE BOOKS, BIBLES sacred and calm, So God bless our home! DRESSING CASES, No spot is so dear to the heart, nor is any Ignored by so few, or beloved by so many Wheres dear eyes smile on us and voices speak,

There find we the pledge of the Heaven that we seek. And God bless our home! Yes, God give the home His abundant good God shelter its roof from all evil distress And grant to its inmates the spirit of love Which rules in the House of our Fathe And so bless our home.

God make us uuselfish, devoted and dutiful, Meek, merry, and kindly, wise, tender and beautiful. And not only hear when we offer prayer, But himself loves our home, and abides with And so God bless our home.

OUR STORY.

THE WORKINGMAN'S WIFE

"Don't fall in love with her, Junius." "Your caution comes too late, old man. I'm in love with her already."

Franklin Bartley looked solemnly at Dr. Junius Dale ; shook his head as if to say 'Tis true, 'tis pity ; pity 'tis, 'tis true," "My dear fellow," said Bartley, the aged | Clissy can't come up stairs." mentor of the pair, "you cannot more afford such a wife than you can afford a steam yacht or an ivory-mounted billiard

"There's no occasion to tell me that." mournfully replied Dr. Dale. "I'm quite aware of it already.' If I was rich I'd marry Miss Clarke to-morrow-always providing that she thought me worthy of acfrom her fascinations in the future."

"A sensible decision," observed Bartley. "But she is so pretty," yearningly narked Dr. Dale.

Granted." "And sho sings like a nightingale." "She ought to, with all, the cultivation that her voice has received." " And she has such a winning way with "What difference does that make you?" said Bartley. " Haven't you resolved John H. Hamilton, that hereafter she is to be nothing to you?", knew that I was nothing more than a vil- gram Mr. Stuart embodied in a letter is ever at thy command? " Y-yes; but_"

Bartley. "Clissy Clarke is nothing on is a hopeful, willing, working bee of a wife Clissy?" -one that can aid you with heart and hand to climb life's hill. You saw Miss Clarke at the Winfield masquerade last night, in white satin and pearls ?"

"And very beautiful she looked," cried the young physician, firing suddenly up atthe recollection of Miss Clarke's auburn hair, all twisted with ropes of seed-pearl, and violet blue eyes, sparkling with girlish

"Did she look like a poor man's wife? " Not a bit of it.". "Then be warned," said Bartley shortly.

Remember the old story of the moth corching its wings in the candle flame." Dr. Date was silent. He had promised himself the pleasure of a call on Clarissa Clarke that very afternoon.

There was something about the girl that attracted him with almost magnetic force. The tender light of her eyes, the sweet intouation of her voice, the rosy flushes of color that overspread her checks when talked to her were all separate attractions: and yet he knew that he, like the hero o French romance was "a poor young man." He recollected, now, that he had eve said something to Clissy about going to the Clarke cottage that day. "It won't do," he said to himself. had better keep away."

And so, instead of following the dearest inclination of his heart, he betook himself with Spartan resolve, to the public library. " I'll read up that case on the investigation of cholera microbes," he thought. "It a man expects to make any mark in his profession, he must keep posted up in these

So he disappeared into one of the alcoves of the library, with his medical quarto and his memorandum book, and set to work in good earnest.

But he had not fairly entered into merits of the microbe question when twitter of sweet girl voices from the adjoining alcove struck upon his ear. "Oh, Clissy-Clarke !" said one. called for her, and she wouldn't come. was baking day, and there was Clissy up to hired servant. Even the fine washing-for | think?

her elbows in flour and spices."

they keep only one little bound-girl-and Mr. Clarke won't woar a shirt unless Clissy has ironed it."

"How does she find time for her music and oil painting?" asked the second. "Oh, she rises at dawn. She says the best time of the working day is before sews for the family-" "Makes all her own dresses don't when little children visit her.

"Yes, and her mother's, too. That satin dress she were at the party last night was | Ettie, arrived in this city from his home her grandmother's bridal gown made over, in Liverpool, England, and stopped at the and the pearls were borrowed from Miss Riggs House. The little girl, though have Layton. It don't cost her anything to ing seen but ten summers, is a very intelli-From the floroe din of voices, the conflict dress. She'll take the horridest old affair gent juvenile traveler, and took great interand remodel it with a scrap of ribbon or a lest in seeing the sights of the capital. Bu panel of velvet until you'd think it was tshe had a great desire to see the wife of the From the riot, unquiet, and stress of the | made by a French dress-maker. I declare, | American President, and not knowing how I wish I had her knack. Papa is always her object could be accomplished, detergrumbling about my bills. But that ain't mined to make a personal application for all. Do you know, she gives Bessie Layton | the favor. She kept her peace and composed O place of sweet rest for the troubled and music lessons, and carns quite a nice little | a letter to Mrs. Cleveland, in which she income for herself? And she writes book | said she was a little English girl, and that, reviews and things for the newspapers, and as her mother had been presented to the Where the Church in the House is kept keeps Mr. Clarke in books that way."

> live and die an old maid, see if she don't. | receive, but was destined to be greatly surnovels at last. Let's go."

tongues of these idle, gossiping girls.

true, noble-hearted working girl. ome to the assistant librarian.

aven't you?" said the assistant librarian. ing," said the doctor, cheerfully...

the outskirts of the village, where Clarissa follow. Her hostess entered into conversa- and have him bore up six or eight inches Clarke lived. An apple cheeked little tion with her freely, and took great interest into the head without noticeably interfering brother came to the door in answer to the in hearing all about the child's home and with the brain which was supposed to fill cross the threshold. "I'll come in and wait," said he.

And then she's got my trousers to mend.

had done in the white satin and pearls on each, and a picture of the President, to- pull, but when he backs up to you and the evening before. How he managed to speak out the dear- fortune. ceptance; but as I am only a straggling est wish of his heart, Dr. Dale never quite young doctor. I'll do my best to keep away knew. He had prepared a form of words turously, and her father was so well pleased on the way, but they, vanished utterly out by the honor bestowed on his daughter that of his mind when the eventful moment he forthwith cabled the circumstances to that he loved her.

he told her of the morning occurrence. "Stick to your colors then, man," cried | tice-for the present, at least. But now I | evening, and which also expressed his own earth but a society belle. What you want | run the risk of sharing my scanty fortunes; | little girl.

"Willingly, Junius," she answered, looking up into his face with her frank blue eyes. "And to tell you the truth," she added, smiling a little shyly, "I'm almost glad that you are not a rich man. Because, dear, I shall be so glad, so proud, to help you a little in my humble way." So they were married. A few weeks subsequent to their bridal Franklin Bartley married an heiress.

" It's like Bartley," said Doctor Dale. He always looks out for the main At the end of five years, however, Franklin Bartley came back to his native village moody and disappointed man.

money had all been dissipated in unwise speculations, his wife had returned to her friends, minus her fortune "A young man married is a young man married." he quoted, gloomily. " Except. perhaps, in Dale's case. He seems to have grown rich, by degrees. And he is happy too, even in the obscurity of a country physician's life." "Thanks to my helpful little wife;" said Dale, with a glance of pride and tenderness towards Clissy, who sat on the doorstep with two chubby children playing about her knee. "We have worked together, Clissy and I, and our reward has not been withheld from us."

Mike's Watch.

" Paddy, honey, will ye buy my watch?" mutchin of the cratur." "Is the watch a dacent one?" "Sure, and I've had twenty years, and it niver once desayed me." "Well, here's yer tin, and now tell me, does it go well?" "It goes faster than any watch in Connaught, Munster, Ulster, or Leinster, not barrin' Dablin," "Bad luck to ye. Mike, then ye've taken me in! on it!"-Eng. Ex.

A 9-yr-old boy signed a pledge a month

MRS. CLEVELAND.

An incident occurred at the White House on Tuesday, says the Washington Republi can, which shows the manner in which Mrs. breakfast. She finishes the housework, Cleveland extends hospitality and the matronly kindness which inspires her actions

Several days ago Milton Stuart, in company with his brother and little daughter Queen, she wished to meet the first lady "Dear me!" said the other, with a yawn, of this country, and hoped she might be who at the party last night would think given the privilege before she crossed the ocean again. This she mailed with some "Humph !" remarked the other. "She'll | misgivings as to the answer she would

Such girls always do. Come, here are our prised and delighted. On Tuesday morning the answer came, and when the children, tell me what heathens are?" The perfumed silken flounces rustled out | envelope marked " Executive Mansion " was | Small boy (who has been reading about the of the library; the sound of chattering torn open the missive within told her that Belfast riots)- Heathens is folks who voices died away, and still Dr. Dale sat, Mrs. Cleveland would be very pleased to don't fight over religion." with his pencil in his hand, staring down have her come to see her that afternoon: At a recent marriage ceremony in one at his memorandum book. It seemed that | Little Miss Ettie bustled about very busily, of the Providence churches the contracting the gloomy veil which dropped between and with remembrances of descriptions parties were thirty minutes behind time, him and his future life were lifted. In his of the formal receptions which the Queen and the organ pealed out : "Oh, dear, what heart he could have blessed the agile gave, made quite an elaborate preparation can the matter be?" for the great event and, went over to the | A Bethel justice was recently applied to Clissy, then, was no mere butterfly, but White House. She told the usher who she for a warrant by a father who desired that was, and a card, bearing her name, was his son should be put under bonds to keep He carried back the ponderous medical taken in to Mrs. Cleveland. What was the peace. The justice declined to issue her surprise, on being shown in to be the warrant; and told the father that his "Much obliged," he remarked succintly. received in about the same manner she son would not injure him, even if he had

"Yes, I've had very good luck this morn. | kiss, and told she was very welcome indeed. | breed." She was quite dazed at this, but it was only home folks. She was then shown over the the upper storey. "Yes, Clissy's at home," said he. "But | White House and given the unusual priviflowers, and told about everything. In this | for comfort. ing even prettier, if it were a possible hotel she carried with her two photographs than a fly," said one of them. "Well,"

She recited the incidents of her visit rapcame. He could only remember that she his wife in Liverpool, who in turn comstood before him in all her fresh, young municated it to her circle of lady friends, beauty, like a human apple-blossom, and all of whom united in sending a return message expressing their appreciation to But after he had her hand in his, one Mrs. Cleveland for the favor she had shown arm caressingly thrown around her waist, the little English girl, and assuring her who stand in need of aid. that she would henceforth occupy a large "Until then, dearest," he said, "I looked place in their affections, and that they the best may be made of those that are. upon you as a sort of unattainable luxury would always think of her with the same lage doctor, with more ambition than pract which he mailed to Mrs. Cleveland Mast feel that I may venture to hope. Will you gratification at the hospitality tendered his

Why a Pittsburg Man Went out of the Liquor Business. "I hear that Smith has sold out his saloon." said one of a couple of middle aged men who sat sipping their beer, and eating a bit of cheese in a Smithfield street saloon last Friday night. "Yes," responded the other, rather "What was the reason? I thought he was just coining money there." The other nibbled a cracker abstractedly for a moment, and then said: "It's rather a funny story. Smith, you mow, lives on Mount Washington, right near me, where he has an excellent wife, a nice home, and three as pretty children as ever played out doors. All boys, you know, the eldest not over 9, and all about the same size! Smith is a pretty respectable sort of a citizen, never drinks or gambles, and thinks the world of his family. "Well, he went home one afternoon last week and found his wife out shopping, or something of that sort. He went on through the house into the back yard and there, under the apple tree, were the little fellows playing. They had a bench and some bottles and tumblers, and were playing keep saloon. He noticed that they were drinking something out of a pail, and that they acted tipsy. The youngest, who was behind the bar, had a towel tied around his waist, and was setting the drinks up pretty free. Smith walked over and looked What's the price?" "Ten shillings, and in the pail. It was beer, and two of the boys were so drunk that they staggered. A neighbor's boy, a couple of years older, lay asleep behind the tree. "'My God, boys, you must not drink that,' he said, as he lifted the six-year-old-from behind the bench. "" We's playin' s'loon, papa, au' I was a sellin' it just like you,' said the little fellow. Didn't ye say it niver desaved ye?" "Sure Smith poured out the beer, carried the birth, he was born Oct. 28, 4004 B.C. It and I did-nor did it-for I niver depinded drunken boy home, and then took his ownboys and put them to bed. When his wife came back she found him crying like a or so ago, and when told by his mother night and sold out his business, and says "Well, I never !" said the other, with a that it didn't amount to anything, replied he will never sell or drink another drop of "It may not; but if dad had signed one liquor. His wife told mino about it, and "Oh, she does all the housework," said when he was 9 years old he might have she broke down crying while she told it." the first, speaker, scornfully, "like any amounted to something." What do you This is a true story, but the name was not Smith - Pitteley Dispatch

PRICE THREE CENTS.

CANADIAN JUBILEE SONG. BY JOH'S IMBIE, TOBONTO.

jects true are we!

thy honor true.

VICTORIA! VICTORIA! a name to us so dear! Thy loyal sons in this fair land send forth a British cheer; Across the ocean's briny foam-we hail thy Jubilee! thou knowest that we love thee,-thy sub-

Chonus.-Victoria, to thee, From loyal hearts and free, 'At this glad time, from every clime,

Come shouts of Jubileo The sun ne'er sets on thy domains, thy flag floats p'er the free : Thy colonies, like gems of wealth, bespangle every sea; Thy ships of war, like buttresses, defend nd not a son of thine would shrink to shed his blood for you!

CHORUS. -" Victoris, to thee," etc. Oh! may thy life our noble Queen, be spared from grief and pain, and may the land we love so well her prominence maintain:

For fifty years thy loving rule hath blessed us day by day; Ah! we shall miss thee, gracious Queen, when thou art called away ! CHORUS, -" Victoria, to thee," etc.

The Odd Corner. Sunday School Superintendent-" Now,

"Got through with it pretty quick, would have been welcomed by her mother. | threatened to do so. "I don't know about Little Ettic was given a warm hug and a that," said the father; "he's a mighty bad

One of the most humiliating experiences He went straightway to the cottage on a preface to more graciousness that was to in a man's life is to sit in a dentist's chair

A Western paper speaks of "Dakota as a she's fixing a chicken for papa's dinner. lege of being introduced into the private summer resort." When the thermometer apartments of Mrs. Cleveland, where she in that part of the country reaches 120 dewas entertained with every expedient that | grees in the shade, we should say that But Dr. Dale la ughingly pushed his way | could amuse her. | She was shown pictures, | altogether too much summer resorts there way two hours were consumed, and when I Two little boys were discussing the And in five minutes Clissy came in, look- the little English lassie went back to her strength of a bee. "He can't pull more thing, in her calico morning dress than she of Mrs. Cleveland, with her autograph on said the other, "I dunno how much he can gether with many wishes for her good pushes, I guess you'll fall back every time."

Gems of Thought. No virtue is acquired in an instant. Some virtues are only seen in afflictiou. We want not time, but diligence, for reat performances Cultivate forbearance till your heart yields a fine crop of it. One ungrateful man does an injury to all

When the best things are not possible, Wealth may or may not the within thy a star to be worshipped afar off only. I love they bore their sovereign. This cable- reach. But what matters it, since virtue Sow an act and you reap a habit; sow a > ter and you reap destiny. Courage may be virtue when the daring act is extreme; and extreme fear no vice when the danger is extreme. Those successes are more glorious which bring benefits to the world than such ruinous ones as are dyed in human blood.

He who decides in any case without hear-habit and you reap character; sow characing the other side of the question, though he may determine justly, is not therefore

He Could Run Errands. "Mamma," said a little five-year-old boy, "I wish Jesus lived on earth, now." "Why, my darling?" " Because, I should like so much to do mething for Him." "But what could such a little bit of fellow as you are do for the Saviour ?"

then looked up into his mother's face, and

The child hesitated for a few moments

"Why, mamnia, I could run on all His errands for him. "So you could, my child, land so you shall. Here is a glass of jelly and some oranges I was going to send to poor, old. sick Margaret by the servant, but I will let you take them instead, and do an errand for the Saviour, for when upon earth He said, 'Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of one of these, ye did it unto me."

So remember, children, whenever you do kind act for anybody because you love Jesus, it is just the same as if the Saviour were now living on the earth, and you were doing it for Him.

Adam's Birthday.

There is a question, which I fear it will be difficult for you to answer. Nevertheless I will ask it and if you do not find the lauthority on which to base an answer J shall excuse you. When was Adam born? According to act of the English parlisment, passed to establish the date of Adam's is not known that any portion of his family celebrates the day.

Broken Down. Being completely broken down in health, was induced to try that valuable remody, Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle made me feel like a new man, restoring me completely to health. Goo, V. Detlor, Napanee, Unt.

Notes Discounted and Interest

20,000 | 235,00 | 820,00 | 87,00

Lumber, Lath, Staves, Head-

THOS. C. MOORE -GTELPH-

GUELPH, ONTARIO. MIHE THIRD SCHOLASTIC YEAR begins September 1st. Patronage drawn from Ten States and Provinces. oung men and boys thoroughly prepared for business pursuits. Graduates eminentsuccessful as Accountants, Business Janagers, Shorthand Writers, Clerks, Salesmen, Travellers, etc., both in Canada and the United States. Moderate rates, thorough, practical work and courteous the College.

Splendid facilities afforded for the ac-property, on the Premium Note System. F. W. Stone, Cnas. Davidson, - President.

JOHN TAYLOR, Agent

Pause and Consider That it will be to your own interest to patronize home trade. We would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Acton and sur rounding country that we are again in full running order, and in a better position than before the fire to fill all orders entrusted to while you wait, and Mouldings, &c., made with neatness and despatch.

Lumber will be Dressed

us. To parties building,

she has legs or no.

N. B .- We are also prepared to fill: all PUMPS on short notice, and from long experience in the business we feel confident that we can give satisfaction every time. So come on with your order and help to roll the bal along. Money makes the mare go, whether

THOS. EBBAGE. Manager

BAKERY

EXCELSIOR

ACTON

BREAD

Will be left daily at the store of JOHN NELSON

For the accommodation of customers.

The Delivery Waggon will also call three times a week as usual.

Mrs. T. Statham.

THE HANLAN BARBER SHOP, MILL STREET, ACTON. An easy shave, a stylish hair-cut, a good seafoam, an exhibarating shampoo, always given. Razors honed and put in first-class

J. P. Worden, Tonsorial Artist.

cenditions Ladies' and children's hair cured.

ANDREW TESKEY.