TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 30, 1880.

ON NEW YEAR'S MORN.

A boat sailed out on the setting tide,
To tell us all that it was in the sea;
The fish were set as she floated by;
And tossed the foaming waves aside;
And the fisherman said as he sailed away:
"I come not back till the break of day."

The wind arose and the sea was wild,
And the angry waves obeyed the gale;
The fisherman thought as he sailed away:
"I come not back till the break of day."

On a cottage-home, of wife and child;
And he said as he toiled, "God I pray,
That will keep me safe till the break of day."

The morning comes like ever the sun,
But never a boat on its bosom lay;
All sit but one were in the boat;
Oh! where could the boat and the fisher be?

The fisherman's soul had sailed away
As the dawn was breaking of New Year's day.

WINTER SNAPS.

Corns cause intolerable pain. Holloway's Corn Cures remove the trouble. Try it and see what amount of pain is saved.

There is no connection between marriage bells and chestnut bells, although it may be admitted that the former is an old joke.
Holiday Pills.

The rockers on a chair never stick out half so far behind at any other time as when a man is prowling around in the dark bare-footed.

The superiority of Mother Graves' Worm Extramin is shown by its good effects on the children. Purchase a bottle and give it a trial.

A Reasonable Hint.
For an obstinate harrising cough there is no better remedy than Higgyard's Pectoral Balsam, which cures all throat, bronchial and lung diseases; it is pleasant to take and effectual for young or old.

A Heavy Load.
When I ate, my food was like a lump of lead in my stomach. I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The more I took, the more it helped me. I am like a new man now, says Ezra Babcock, Clevon P. O., Township Barrie, Ont.

It is wise to provide against emergencies which are liable to arise in every family. A cold may be a dangerous thing, or not, depending upon the means at hand to combat it. In sudden attacks of cold, crop, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will prove your best friend.

The History of Hundreds.

Mr. John Morrison, of St. Anne, N.S., was so seriously afflicted with a disease of the kidneys that droppings were developing and his life was despaired of. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him after physicians had failed.

A Reasonable Hint.
During the breaking up of winter, when the air is chilly and the weather damp, such complaints as rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sore throat, crop and other painful effects of sudden cold, are prevalent. It is then that Higgyard's Yellow Oil is found truly valuable as a household remedy.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

Mr. Peter Verneut, Hochelaga, P. Q., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil cured me of Rheumatism after I tried many medicines to no purpose. It is a good medicine." It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the reverent Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house, for use when the disease make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look into the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be; could we realize our danger, how speedily would we seek a cure; but with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold? Is it not disease of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than madness to neglect a cold, and it is folly not to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal herbs, which exert a most wonderful influence in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, soothes irritation and drives the disease from the system.
