TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1887.

THE LINE FENCE.

Old farmer Smith cano houn in a mif.
From his field he sits every day.
While his sweet little wife, the pride of his life.
At her wheel was spinning away.

And ever and anon a gay little song.
With the buzz of her wheel kept time;
And his wrathful brow is clearing now,
Under her cheerful rhyme.

"Come come, little Turk, put away your work;
And listen to what I say;
What can I do, but a quartet brew?
With the man across the way?

"I have built my fence, but he won't come more;

"To play a single rail;
His cattle are in and the feed gets thin—
I'm tempted to make a sale!"

"Why John, dear John, how do you do!
I'm afraid it will be as they say."
No, no, little wife, I heard that strife
In a lawyer's hands don't pay.

"He is picking a flaw, to drive me to law—
I am told that he said he would—
And you know, like aco, law engaged me so,
I vowed that I never should.

So what can I do, that I will not rise
To the man across the way?

"If that's what you want, I can help you to hunt.

That man with a scoper gray.

"Thirty dollars will do to carry you through.

And then you have gained a neighbor,
It cost us more to peep in the door

Of a court, and as much more labor.

"Just use your good sense—let's build him
a fence.

And shame bad acts out of the fellow."

They built up his part, and sent to his heart.

Lov's cart where the good thoughts mellow.

That very night, by the candle light,
They opened with interest a letter;

Not a word was there, but three greenbacks fair.

Said—the man was growing better.

Gems of Thought.

One is never too old to be remembered and loved.

The brighter the light that casts them,
the darker will be the shadows.

He must be a thorough fool who can learn nothing from his own folly.

Nothing is so credulous as vanity, or ignorant of what becomes itself.

Nothing is denied well directed labor and nothing is attained without it—except poverty.

Give work rather than alms to the poor.
The former drives out indolence, the latter industry.

The man who has made no mistake is not in condition to know when he has succeeded in anything.

A Good Lesson.

On one occasion, an extremely hot day,
Dr. Wadday, of the British Wesleyan Conference, was preaching in a chapel to a small congregation which, in spite of an excellent sermon, showed a general disposition to go to sleep. The Doctor per-ceving that all but three or four were in a somnolent condition, conceived the idea of gradually increasing the length of his pauses, of speaking in a perfect monotone, and lowering the pitch, until finally every individual in the congregation was sound asleep. He then took his hat and quietly departed, teaching them a lesson which they were not slow to learn when they awoke and found the preacher gone.

WINTER SNAPS.

There is nothing equal to Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator for destroying worms. No article of its kind has given such satisfaction.

The Best Made to Here.

After eight years suffering from deafness so bad that I was unable to attend to my business, I was cured by the use of Hargard's Yellow Oil. With gratitude I make this known for the benefit of others afflicted. Harry Ricardo, Toronto.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most potent blood purifier, and a fountain of health and strength. Bewise in time. All-beneficial infections are promptly removed by this unequalled alterative.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by Dr. McGarvin, Drugget.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, ringing, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their heart's content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Volumes of Bombast have been published about the multifarious and irreconcilable effects of many proprietary remedies. The proprietor of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery content themselves with facts susceptible of proof. They state their Pardon to be what it has proved itself to be, an eradicator of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver and Kidney troubles, and a fine general alterative.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, and all summer complaints, see sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. What True Merit Will Do. The unprecedented sale of Busch's German Syrup within a few years has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual care of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heal the parts affected and leaves them in a perfectly healthy condition.
