Which are Principally Local and All Interesting.
Board of Health.
The Board of Health for this municipality for the present year is as follows:—The Reeve and Clerk, ex officio members, and Messrs. H. P. Moore, James McLam and W. B. Kenney. Dr. Lowry medical health officer, and R. B. Cook, sanitary inspector.
The Election Law.
It is believed that it is intended to influence any voter to vote for any particular candidate or refrain from voting, the betting is a corrupt practice and is punishable as such. It is held that if a bet is made by the candidate of his agent or agent, it would void the election.
A Pastor Beloved by All.
At the meeting of the Official Board of the Methodist Church on Monday evening, Nov. 8, Phillips, was tendered a hearty and unanimous invitation to continue the pastor of the church to the end of the ecclesiastical term—three years. His term here will expire on June, 30th, 1888.
Important Dates.
Almanacs for 1877 give the following particulars of interest:—St. Valentine's Day comes on Monday; Lent begins on the 33rd of February and ends on the 10th of April; All Fool's day comes on Friday; Palm Sunday on April 3rd; Good Friday on April 8th; Queen's Birthday on Tuesday, Dominion Day on Friday, and Christmas on Sunday.

Musical Charms the Heart of So-
A number of the members of McNabstreet church Hamilton are people who left other Presbyterian churches when the obnoxious "Kist o' Whistles" was introduced, but now McNabstreet church is itself to include in the history of an organ. At the annual meeting of the organ committee reported having secured $9,500 in subscriptions, and recommended the purchase of an instrument. The report was adopted.
Robbery in Trafalgar.
A negro named Smith, who has been working for Mr. Jas. Sherwood, of Trafalgar, went out to the stable with the others to help with the milking, on Sunday last, but went back to the house and stole $91, which Mr. Sherwood, had just received for milk on Saturday. The man was soon missed as was also the money. They found the man's tracks and followed them across the county but he has not yet been captured. He has been in prison different times.—Referer.
The late J. D. Williamson.
The remains of the late J. D. Williamson, whose melancholy demise in the city of Edinburgh on the 21st of last month, was noted in these columns, arrived in Guelph on Monday, and the funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from Knox Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Beattie and Griffin, D. D. The funeral was very largely attended. As a last and mark of respect to one who had for many years led an active life in their midst, the merchants of the city, without an exception, closed their places of business during the time that the funeral was taking place.
Mr. Waldie at Acton.
Mr. Waldie's meeting in the town hall, on Friday evening, was well attended. Col. Allan occupied the chair. Upon the platform were Messrs. Waldie, McLeod and Barber, of Georgetown, and Clements of Toronto. Mr. Waldie opened the meeting with an interesting speech, embracing particularly the points referred to in his address to be found in another column. He spoke quietly and deliberately, and was accorded the respectful attention of his audience. He was followed by the other speakers above, each of whom dealt upon some phase of the questions prominently before the electorate in this contest. Mr. Henderson was not represented.
Newspapers from Foreign Points.
Mr. John Moore, Jr., has kindly handed us copies of the following foreign newspapers, picked up by him in his recent travels:—The Egyptian Gazette of Alexandria, Egypt; The Ceylon Observer and The Times of Ceylon, of Colombo, Ceylon; The Hong Kong Daily Press of Hong Kong, China; and The Straits Times, of Singapore, India. Several of these journals present an unusually primitive appearance, while others are on a par with the ordinary British papers in style and arrangement. The papers are on file here and any who desire to examine them are welcome to call and do so.
A Geographical Social.
An exchange says: The very latest thing in social gathering is the "geographical social." The gentlemen are given cards on each of which is printed the name of some county in the province, while the ladies are each given a card with the name of the county seat printed thereon—all for a dime apiece. These cards hint up the county seat of his county to take to refreshments. If you cannot tell the county seat to your county you must pay 10 cents to the fund as a forfeit before you can obtain the desired information. If this does not afford sufficient amusement for the evening, geographical conundrums, charades, etc., can be introduced.
A Proprietary Religious Weekly.
The Ontario Guardian, the official newspaper of the Methodist Church, has done an entire new dress and presents a very fine appearance indeed. The Guardian is one of the best religious weeklies published on the continent. One reason for this is that the energies of the church throughout the Dominion are concentrated upon one paper, and its interests are loyally presented, and sustained by ministers and people. The publisher, W. Briggs, D. D., and the editor E. H. Dewar, D. D. are men of sterling worth and practical ability, and by their energetic personal efforts, the Methodist Church has a literary advocate and representative which is an acknowledged leader in religious circles. Every Methodist family should subscribe for the Guardian.

ARGUE THE SECOND.
His Loyalty to Our Beloved Queen Demands a Celebration.
THE ELECTIONS.
I should like to point out to the citizens in general of our thriving town, the advisability of making arrangements for a grand jubilee demonstration on the 30th of June. Other towns and villages are already considering the idea and making preparations, and why should not we?
—We ought to have a programme, and attractive, one prepared. Something after this style might be found suitable. A grand procession of the band in the morning; in the afternoon athletic sports, open to Acadians only, in the Driving Park, followed by a match game of some sort, say cricket, foot ball, base ball or some other. Ah, happy thought! I might have a match game of cricket, Englishmen vs. all comers; let those Englishmen who blow so much of their love of sports stand against all comers (of this town only), and show us what their national game of cricket really is. Or, it shows are not enough Johnny Bulls we might have the opposing teams, East end vs. West end, married vs. single or some other combination. Then in the evening we could have a grand fire work display, fire balloon ascensions and so on, interspersed with selections by the band.
—In order to meet expenses I should suggest a collection before that day, and then only a small entrance fee to the grounds. This would enable all, both young and all rich and poor to enjoy the festivities. The season of the year renders it especially agreeable to have some pleasure out of doors, rather than a concert in the Town Hall.
—Let a committee be formed and let us all unite on that day to celebrate the 30th year of the accession of our Queen—that Queen who has always loved, and been loved by her subjects the world over; who has always had their interests at heart and has endeavored to rule her people well, and is above all a woman in the brightest, holiest and truest sense of the word. Let us all, the Rose, the Thistle, the Shamrock and the Maple Leaf—that emblem of our fair land of ours, with its sturdy sons and fair daughters, so dear to all our hearts—unite under one head to celebrate the jubilee of the head of a nation whose drumbeats echo the earth, on whose dominions the sun never sets, whose glorious record is written indelibly on the pages of history, and who is at once the envy and pride of the whole earth.
—The bringing forward, at this early date, of the above project may seem rather premature to some of my readers, but other towns are already discussing the affair and getting things into shape, and I don't see for my part why we should be behind. At any rate it can do no harm to have the subject thoroughly ventilated. It is worthy of it.
—I should be glad to receive suggestions from anyone as to the above scheme for the celebration of the Jubilee. The general opinion of the public is, that something should be done in this direction and I have no doubt that if a proper committee was appointed to interview the Council on the matter they would lend their valuable assistance to the furtherance of the scheme.
—Owing to election matters taking up so much of my spare time my usual quota of correspondence is rather slim this week. The excitement of the campaign is now, however, fast reaching the culminating point. It is to be sincerely hoped that every man will do his duty by his town and his townsmen during the coming week. Let us all unite and show the rest of the county that our progressive little town will not be content to take a back seat in the matter of County representation.
—Rat for Henderson.
Acton, Feb'y, 16th, 1887.

ERIN FREE PRESSINGS.
From our own Correspondent.
By-minutes of Erin Council we learn that Mr. Thos. Talbot, has been appointed assessor, and Mr. Robert Lafog collector, for 1887.
We understand that Oprence school house is to have a new bell. It certainly is a pleasant thing in a neighborhood to have a good-sounding bell rung at regular times.
Deprived of the privilege of marking our ballots at the local and municipal elections, we are to enjoy it this time in the Federal election.
The next meeting in June of our County Council is to be held in Guelph. Harrison came very near having it.
On the standing committees of the County Council the Erin members are placed as follows:—Mr. Burt, legislation; county property; Mr. Robertson, county roads, printing; Mr. Kirkwood, assessment, and boundary line bridges.
A six-clause resolution on the Scott Act which seemed to aim a kind of an indirect blow at it, was relegated to a committee which after several meetings decided to leave it over until June, having only got the length of passing clause one.
Politics, politics, "National Policy," "Canada Pacific," etc. John A. denounced on one hand, and held up as the paragon of excellence on the other. Is there not a middle point somewhere?
We notice that with reference to the questions submitted to our two candidates about their intended course with regard to the immediate enactment and thorough enforcement of prohibition, and the perfecting and enforcement of the Scott Act, Mr. James announced his intention of supporting all proper measures for the same, and Mr. Goldie refused to give any answer in writing.
Query—What more harm would it be for merchants and others to stand in the sheds and by the gates of church property on Sunday and prohibit their announcements to the intending worshippers, than to cover the sheds and gates with posters? Please let some one answer in the next.
Won't it be fine for you Acton people to have one of yourselves in the House of Commons?
Erin, Feb'y, 16th, 1887.

If elected I will faithfully discharge the duties of the responsible position, and do my utmost to merit your interests.

DOMINION ELECTIONS.
TO THE ELECTORS
OF THE
County of Halton.
GENTLEMEN:—
Having received the unsolicited and unanimous invitation of the Reform Party of the County to become their Candidate for the House of Commons, I have pleasure in accepting the same, and shall from this time to the close of the Polls, take every opportunity of making your personal acquaintance at Public Meetings and otherwise.
My Platform shall be to promote such Legislation only as will tend to make this Canada of ours a happy, united and prosperous Country.
To that end, I shall not favor any theoretical changes in the Tariff, which would disturb either the business of the country or its Manufacturing Industries.
The finances of the Country should receive careful attention and every judicious effort to economize expenditure will find in me a warm supporter.
I believe large savings in expenditure can be effected, a portion of which could and should be applied to a reduction of the postage rate from three cents to two cents, so as to place the correspondence of Canadians on the same level in that respect as prevails in England and the United States.
On the Temperance question, my thirty years record is well known. Future Legislation on this question shall have my careful and earnest consideration, and I shall only support such measures as I believe to be fair and in the best interests of the Country.
I am opposed to the present Dominion Franchise, and, instead thereof would prefer manhood suffrage with a registered Voters' List and provision for removals from one constituency to another.
Our North-West Territories should be a free Home to actual Settlers and all dealings with speculative corporations should cease.
If elected, I shall enter the House as a loyal supporter of the Reform Party; but whatever the consequences may be, will prefer Country to Party and will assist the Government of the day in maintaining peace at Home and dignity in our dealings with our neighbours.
I desire to aim at higher and broader views of public duty. Trusting that my fellow electors will support me in this direction with a hearty vote.

CATARRH THROAT CURED.
Listen to W. H. Gibney, Esq., of the firm of W. H. Gibney & Son, Acton, Glove Manufacturers, &c. Dr. Washington, 316 Yonge St., Toronto.
"I was first affected in my throat with a dryness, and though I dislike having my name appear in connection with testimonials, I was, nevertheless, required for such as are similarly affected, as well as having a desire to see given the results of your treatment, I make a public statement in this case. Prior to my acquaintance with you, I had suffered for two years from repeated attacks of catarrh sore throat, each attack being more protracted and violent than the former. At these times I had violent fits of coughing, and would discharge large quantities of mucus. Feeling alarmed, and having the best medical skill available, including much special treatment, and took almost everything known to medicine without experiencing a particle of relief. Last spring I went to Europe. The change did me good, but my throat returned and I was obliged to visit this place. I thought I would consult you, although I could not see you, and you advised me to come to you. However, I was favorably impressed with your remarks, and decided to give your treatment a trial. The result I can best describe to you. It is a complete cure, and my throat is now as healthy as ever. I am, therefore, glad to see you, and to give you my thanks for the relief you have given me. You are at liberty to make what use you please of this notice, and I shall be pleased to place my name at your disposal at any time."
Yours very truly,
W. H. GIBNEY.
