LITTLE PROBABILITIES.

When he brows his mother cries, "Clouds to-day and gloomy skies."

When he tears fall soft and fast, "Summer showers that will not last."

When he romps in noisy play, "Boisterous winds, and light to-day."

When he's sweet and still and grave, "Fair and clear—a warmer wave."

When he cries with might and main, "Storms and cyclones, wind and rain."

When he's bright and blithe, and gay, "Sunshine, breeze—a perfect day!"

Ah, you look so grave and wise, "Little Probabilities."

Since you make for us our day, Listen, baby, when we pray.

Give us only pleasant weather, Banish frowns and tears together.

—Frost's Companion.

THAT GARDEN LONG AGO.

I remember, I remember A garden long ago; It was laid out in modern style, In curious bed and row.

Along the narrow gravel path a violet blue glow, And on each side a snowball bush, And royal damask rose;

While hollyhocks and four-o'clocks and pink and poppies glow In every nook and corner Of that garden long ago.

I remember, I remember The branching lilac tree, Its fragrant purple blossoms So oft in dreams I see!

Cholera and all summer complaints are so quick in their action that the cold hand of death is upon the victim before they are aware that danger is near.

After years of suffering, persons who have vainly sought remedial help from other sources, have obtained the long desired relief from Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, which puts a stop to the torment of Dyspepsia, renews activity of the Bowels and Liver, relieves malaise incident to the gentler sex, and builds up failing health and strength, gives purity to the blood, and tone to the whole system.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease.

It is the duty of every person who has used Doan's German Syrup to let his wonderful qualities be known to their friends in general.

Mrs. Agnes Black, of Orton, Ont., says: "For five years I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion. I tried one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was getting better; I then bought three more and it has cured me."

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves' Worm Expeller deranges worms, and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs twenty-five cents to try it and be convinced.
