much appreciated. Little Fairy is a musi-

A good programme has been arranged for and ample provisions are being made for seasonable refreshments. The public generally are invited.

-From the Herake report of the Easter examinations at Georgetown High School, we notice that the following pupils from Acton were among those who took highest marks in the various classes :- Emma Moore, Katie Allan, Artie Smith, Frank Worden, Charlie Henderson, Frank Pigott, and Willie Kahnawin.

-The splendid organ used on the occasion of the anniversary social in the Oddfellow's hall, a couple of weeks ago was from the wardrooms of Mr. C. W. Kelly, Guelph. Mr. Kelly thinks there is no organ like " The Bell," and from the large number he handles he is quite successful in convincing the public to his opinion.

-The business of Messrs. Moore & Mo-Garvin, trunk and satchel manufacturers continues to increase so that additional factory accommodations are necessary. They have this week a staff of workmen engaged in enlarging the premises, by which they will secure about one third mere floor

THE WEEK'S RAKINGS. Which are Principally Local and All Interesting.

Rapid Vegetation.

The warm weather that has prevailed for the last two weeks and the genial shower of this week, though very light, has had ; very marked effect on vegetation. The wheat and grass has made rapid growth and all the fruit trees are in blossom.

A Handsome Present. On Monday last Miss Jessie Warren, Celar Creek Farm, was the recipient of handsome upright Lansdowne li suo at the hands of her uncle, Mr. Robert Warren. To say that Miss Warren appreciates her of her voice and power of modulation in uncle's generosity would be putting it very tone and compass, with entire lack of mildly indeed.
