THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1887.
NOTES AND COMMENTS.
About one hundred thousand dollars will be expended this year by the Government in the construction and repair of North-West Mounted Police barracks.

A report during the week that Henry M. Stanley was killed by natives while fighting for supplies on his way to rescue Emin Bey is utterly discredited in London.

There will be a great gathering of the temperance workers of the Dominion held in Toronto during the Exhibition. The local temperance men will endeavor to make it a big success.

Buffalo is trying to raise a fund of $100,000, which is to be offered as a prize to inventors all over the world for a practical scheme of utilizing the water power in the Niagara River economically at or near Buffalo.

Careful observers say the wheat crop in Ontario will be below the average. The sample is an excellent one, but, owing to the drought, the yield will be light. The new crops are only in need of rain. A great deal of fall wheat was winter killed. Barley has done well.

The remarkably hot and dry season which has prevailed in Ontario for a month past has had the effect of ripening the crops too quickly and as a consequence the shrinking will be very considerable. In many localities, however, rain has fallen at the proper time, and in these districts the yield will be excellent.

Whyby has not been lucky in its bonus speculations. The town has given some where in the neighborhood of $110,000 to secure the permanent establishment of railway shops, and of an organ factory, each establishment to employ fifty hands; and to-day there is but one man employed in the railway works, while the sole occupant of the organ factory is a cow.

It is astonishing to how late a period Englishmen retain their vigorous mind and body. We see Gladstone, his past the limit of three scores and ten, fighting and writing with all the energy of a young man, and now we find that his eminent contemporary, the octogenarian Cardinal Newman, contemplates publishing a volume of autobiographical reminiscences in a few months. We may be sure that the book, either in its style or its matter, will not show any signs of decrepitude.

It is expected that the British Parliament will not rise before the middle of August. The Irish Land Bill will take some time, and it is likely that there will be a long and an interesting debate on the Egyptian question. These matters disposed of, the members will be impatient to return to their homes, and domestic matters which have been allowed to stand over awaiting the settlement of the all-important Irish question will receive scant attention.

One of the prominent architects of the city said yesterday: "The present strike in the building trade has stopped the circulation of about $4,000,000 throughout the city. Fully that sum would have been expended in the erection of large buildings this season but for these troubles. Those buildings will not be put up this season, and that sum will not go into circulation. The building tradesmen are already feeling the evil effects of the strike, and next winter they will feel it more. The banks and business men generally are also being injured."

In the city of Atlanta, in Georgia, the most violent anti-prohibitionists were found in proposing that prohibition should be prohibited. The public are fast becoming of a different opinion. Mr. Julius Martine undoubtedly is. He is a leading citizen, and formerly a wine merchant of that city. When the law making liquor selling illegal went into effect he retired to his home, and was always glad to "see his friends." On a recent Sunday two guests of Mr. Martine were arrested as soon as they landed upon the sidewalk. In their pockets were found well-filled flasks. It was upon evidence thus secured that Mr. Martine was fined five hundred dollars in the city court and sentenced to a term of thirty days' imprisonment, and bound over in sums of two thousand dollars each on several charges to the Superior Court.

THE ORANGEVILLE ASSAULT CASE.
An application was made on Friday at Orangeville for Chief Justice Wilson by Messrs. Oler, Q. C., and Walsh to discharge from custody the prisoner James Bennett, who was confined at Orangeville for assaulting a Scott Act official and obstructing him in the discharge of his duty. The conviction was made by Police Magistrate Gray, and was considered on the grounds that it did not state (1) The time of the offence; (2) the place of the offence; (3) that the prisoner had elected to be tried summarily, and further because the conviction purported to be made for that the prisoner had pleaded guilty, not because he had committed the offence, but the conviction upon the grounds taken was quashed.

AN EIGHT MONTHS' TERM.
David Dewar, a Milton Scott Act Violator Arrested in Toronto.
David Dewar, who does or did run the Commercial Hotel at Milton, has four convictions hanging over his head for Scott Act violations in that town. Mr. Dewar's criminal offences entitle him to an eight months' sentence in prison. His last conviction was over a year ago. Ever since that time, however, it is said he lived for the greater part of the year closely housed in his hotel at Milton. Inspector Brothers has never been able to lay hands on Dewar and satisfy the law's behests. He has carried a warrant for Dewar's arrest during these long twelve months, but never a chance to go to execute it.

On Thursday he heard that Dewar had passed through Oakville on his way to Toronto. The Inspector lost no time in reaching the city. He had his warrant backed by a J.P., and asked Inspector Stephen of Police Headquarters for assistance in executing it.
Police-man Vaughan of Inspector Archibald's staff was detailed for the work. Officer Vaughan went to Union Station and was not long in finding his man. Dewar was arrested as he was about to step aboard the 4.30 train on the Credit Valley Railway. He was locked up at Police Headquarters, and was handed over to Inspector Brothers the next day and lodged in the county jail.

Rev. Mr. Parker preached his last sermon in London on Sunday before going to Brooklyn.

THE REPEAL OF THE SCOTT ACT.
We understand that a petition praying for the repeal of the Scott Act is now being circulated by the hotel-keepers of the country. In all probability the required number of signatures for a repeal election will be secured—for it is a current axiom that signatures can be secured for anything—but that the petition will be defeated when it comes to a vote is much more certain.

The friends of the Anti-Scott party are it is reported, inaugurating arrangements for a final and vigorous effort to remove from the whiskey business the prohibitory measure which at present restrains them from legally dispensing intoxicating liquors, to escape the damning influence of which business the people of Halton have twined and pronounced in favor of expelling them from their borders, and have exerted themselves to accomplish the strict observance of the law and adopted.

The supporters of the Scott Act have a formidable and satisfactory reason to justify them in concluding that the prospects for the continuance of the Scott Act are in no wise jeopardized by the present action of their opponents. Many reasons might be cited in support of this conclusion, such as—

1. Those who supported the Act in the two former campaigns have, with very few exceptions, stood by it since and fully satisfied that it is accomplishing all the good results they ever expected of it.

2. They are, individually and collectively, a ready, and almost court another campaign, for thereby strength has on each occasion been realized and the ranks become united for future action.

3. Many more who previously opposed the Act are now among its strongest supporters, than have been lost by the defection of an occasional disaffected voter.

4. During the coming campaign the Scott Act will have all the leaders and prominent supporters it ever had and many experienced workers from other points.

5. While on the other hand the Anti-Scotts have lost a number of the most active and influential characters who bore the burden of the fray in former years.

6. Halton being the banner county in the adoption of the Act on the first occasion, and one of the first where a repeal was attempted on the second occasion, the vigor of the wealth and strength of the whole interests of the province were then centralized here.

7. Now, the liquor party has its own battle to fight in nearly every county.

8. The frequent and repeated outages upon officers and supporters of the Scott Act which have been perpetrated by the friends of the liquor traffic during the past three years, have caused the withdrawal of any sense of sympathy which might have been felt by the public for the hotelkeepers in the loss of their most profitable portion of their business.

Viewing all this the friends of the Scott Act have no fear of defeat. They will act on one principle for action and will meet their opponents prepared to sustain the measure which they believe has accomplished much good in the county by its provisions; and with the united determination that Halton being the banner county in the Province in the adoption of the Act, will not be the first in this broad Dominion to vote for its repeal. Come on with your campaign gentlemen. God will defend the right.

THE LAW ON FURIOUS DRIVING.
Revised Statutes, Chapter 183, entitled "An Act to Regulate Travelling on Public Highways and Bridges," contains the following clauses providing against furious driving on the public streets:

Section 4.—In case any person in charge of a vehicle, or of a horse or other animal used as the means of conveyance, travelling or being on any highway as aforesaid, through drunkenness unable to drive the same with safety to other persons travelling or being upon the highway, he shall incur the penalties imposed by this Act.

Section 5.—No person shall race with or drive furiously any horse or other animal, or shoot or use any firearm or other dangerous weapon on any highway, or in any language upon the highway.

Section 10.—In case not otherwise specially provided for, if any person contravenes this Act, and such contravention is duly proved, by oath of one credible witness, before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction with respect to the offence, he shall incur a penalty of not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, in the discretion of such Justice.

PROTECTING OUR FISHERMEN.
The crews of American Schooners Arrested for Fishing in Canadian Waters.
GLOUCESTER, Mass., July 25.—A telegram was received to-day from U. S. Consul Carleton, at Bouris, P. E. I., stating that six schooners and all the crews of the schooners Col. J. H. France and Argonaut were seized yesterday off the coast of Cape Breton, P. E. I., by the Dominion cutter Critic. It is said the vessels' boats were close in shore with the seines set, when the cutter appeared. The vessels cleared out and escaped the cutter, but before the boats could escape they were seized. It is thought the vessels will be seized before getting home, as they will have to put in for assistance.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.
Rev. M. C. Cameron, of Milton, in the Reception of a Repeal Testimonial.
On Wednesday evening a large gathering assembled in Knox Church to give an expression of their esteem to the Rev. M. C. Cameron, D. D., who is to assume the pastorate of Knox Church, at Harrisonburg. Lawyer Elliott occupied the chair. Mr. Hugh Campbell read the following address and Mr. C. P. Preston presented Mr. Cameron with a very valuable gold watch.

ADDRESS.
Rev. and Dear Sir,
The members and adherents of Boston and Knox Church congregations, Keegan and Milton as well as your many friends in this vicinity desire to express to you their appreciation of your resignation of the pastorate of this address and presentation their good will and the esteem in which you are held both as pastor and neighbor during the eight years you have been amongst us.

We will pass over these years not forgotten, however, of the fact that this was the first field in which you were appointed to do the Master's work, and your earnest and untiring endeavors to be a faithful minister in the charge of which you were assigned; also the pleasure and joy we have derived from having social intercourse with you, and finally, that you will permit us to say that you have secured the esteem of those of us who have had the privilege of knowing you, and will have behind you many grateful friends and many pleasant recollections.

It is with pleasure we congratulate you on your exit to another and more important field of labor, where you and your family will be followed by the best wishes of those amongst whom you have labored for the past eight years, for your continued success and welfare.

We hope and trust that your labors in your new field will be successful, that your life may be long and useful, and that the dear Father will call you home, may we all meet in the better land where as pastor and people reunited, it will be our privilege to greet you in his heavenly abode.

Who hath redeemed us by His precious blood!
On behalf of the congregation,
Wm. HARRISON,
Wm. CALDWELL,
Mr. Cameron acknowledged the address and presentation by a happy response. Rev. Mr. Day, M.A., added a few appropriate remarks. The good wishes and prayers of his congregation go with Mr. Cameron to his new field of labor.—Champion.

THE TWELFTH IN STREETSVILLE.
There was great fun at Streetsville on Tuesday. About five o'clock there was a regular Donnybrook fair going on. The hotels were ransacking houses. Drunks were everywhere. In one place on the street three men fighting in a boggy one had the other in chains, and when it came to his face in pieces. The horse in the meantime wandered in its own sweat will and fell into a culvert, the fight never stopped. Then a lot of spectators got on the horse's neck while others unchained the animal. In a bar room a drunk took a notion to let his wife strike three women who were on one after the other. A notion came of seeing a man of calling him a liar while the offender pleaded innocence without avail. It would by his being struck. One of the funniest sights was three men fighting on the street, each for himself. They were each to be broken, and an old feud of the cause of the row. Two men were noticed talking in a store, all at once they clinched and made for the road, nearly doubling up a man who stood in the way. The Twelfth was celebrated in propriety in Streetsville, and don't you forget it. The Twelfth was celebrated in Streetsville, and don't you forget it.

TORONTO'S WONDERFUL GROWTH.
An Increase in the City's Assessment this Year of a Hundred Millions.
There will be a unprecedented increase in the city of Toronto assessment of property this year. The total value of the ten million dollars in the assessment was the largest ever recorded. The city assessors have only been at work a few weeks but they have already gained information which warrants the statement by the heads of the assessment that the increase in the assessment this year will be more than five million dollars. With the rate of taxation at 16 mills on the dollar an increase of $12,000,000 to the assessment means an increase of $192,000 in the city's revenue from taxation.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.
A. G. T. freight west Thursday night met with a bad accident at Baden. While between Hockwood and Guelph the train broke apart, but it left Guelph at 12.55 all right. While running into the station yard at Baden at 2 o'clock the engine struck a cow throwing it against the side where it rolled on to the track again, derailling seven beef cars and other freight. The cars were not much damaged but the train was wrecked. The freight was thrown from the top of the train and killed. The track was badly torn up, but a force of men were put on, and everything was cleared by nine o'clock next morning. The midnight express west was far as Peterburg, and then had to back up to Guelph, and go round by Harrisburg. The fast express east the same morning also had to take the same route.

CHICKENS HATCHED BY THE HEAT.
INDIANAPOLIS, July 21.—A novel sight was witnessed here yesterday as the result of the high temperature of the past three weeks. Some time ago a firm received a consignment of eggs packed in boxes after the usual manner. The eggs were placed in storage and yesterday morning the consignee opened the case. When the lid was removed the low call of chicks sounded in his ears. One entire layer of eggs was found to be hatching out and in a few minutes after the eggs were brought to the light they were well developed. The hatchlings picked their way through the shells. Another layer began to hatch out about noon and it now looks as though the entire consignment will hatch.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE SCOTT ACT.
KESWICK, Ont., July 26.—Messrs. Britton & Whiting have issued a writ at the instance of the Provincial Secretary for the sum of $661.82 demanded from the County of Frontenac for the enforcement of the Scott Act, and which had been refused to pay.

GREAT NAVAL REVIEW.
LONDON, July 25.—The papers here concur in the opinion that the review which took place at Spithead on Saturday was the finest display of naval strength the world has ever seen.
The Paris Figaro says a long time must elapse before it will be possible to again witness so superb a collection of war ships. England may justly be proud of her review. It was an imposing manifestation of her strength and wealth.

AN IMPARTIAL VERDICT.
Given by the Most Distinguished Judges and Jury in Ontario.
WITH WHICH WE ARE FULLY SATISFIED.
Managed With Judgement and Ability.
The Acton Free Press is not published in a very large town but it is one of the best of our local exchange. Typographically it has always been among the best in the Province. Its local news is very full and carefully edited. In all respects the Free Press is impugned with judgment and ability. It is gratifying, therefore, to see that so really excellent a local newspaper is appreciated by the community among which it circulates. The appearance of the first number of the thirtieth volume, is able to present his readers with an enlarged and improved sheet. We congratulate him on the new volume of Acton and vicinity—of which the Free Press has done much—upon such evidence of respectability. Acton should be as proud of the Free Press as the Free Press should be of Acton.

People of Acton need not be Ashamed.
DARVELL STAIR.
The Acton Free Press came out last week with a partly new dress and enlarged to double royal. It was the initial number of the 23rd volume. The proprietor, Mr. H. P. Moore, now turns out as next and news a paper as any that comes to our exchange table, and we congratulate him on the property which the enlargement and other improvements indicate. The people of Acton need not be ashamed to own a newspaper of such standing as the Free Press. More power to his elbow and more encouragement to improve is all the harm we wish our county.

The Greatest Stride Yet.
The 23rd volume of the Acton Free Press began last week with a complete new dress of new design and arrangement from seven to eight columns per page with a corresponding increase in the length of the columns. This is the greatest stride made by the Free Press, and one which gives it rank in point of size with any of the best on the continent. Moreover it is the proudest and most complete village paper published in Canada. Acton citizens may be congratulated upon Mr. Moore's enterprise.

Adding Merit to Merit.
RENEWED MERIT.
The Acton Free Press, which enjoys the reputation of being the best village country paper in the Province, has now added merit to merit by the addition of an extra column to each of its four pages. Apparently this improvement has been suggested by the business of the village, as its advertising patronage seems to have developed promptly and proportionately. Such a course is the only one that can be credited to a much larger place than Acton.

A Charming Sheet It Is.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
We are in receipt of the Jubilee issue of the Acton Free Press, and we are charmed and pleased as well as commencing the Jubilee of Her Majesty, the Free Press assumes its thirtieth year, and we are proud to say that it has the most and handsomest weekly newspaper in the Province. It is a model of typographical beauty and with the proprietor abundant success for his enterprise.

More Than Ahead of the Times.
CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT.
In a bar room a drunk took a notion to let his wife strike three women who were on one after the other. A notion came of seeing a man of calling him a liar while the offender pleaded innocence without avail. It would by his being struck. One of the funniest sights was three men fighting on the street, each for himself. They were each to be broken, and an old feud of the cause of the row. Both Sides are Printed in Acton, Too.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
Last week the Acton Free Press published its thirtieth birthday, but on a new dress and enlarged and improved generally. Its printed newspapers in the province, and both sides of it are printed at Acton, too. Last week each subscriber for the Free Press was presented with a complimentary copy of the Jubilee issue, in commemoration of Her Majesty's Jubilee.

One of the Liveliest and Most Readable.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
That last and only local newspaper, the Free Press of Acton, celebrates its 30th year by coming out in an enlarged form of four additional columns. The Free Press has the reputation of being one of the best printed local papers in the country, and we always find it one of the liveliest and most readable of our exchanges. Mr. Moore has our heartiest congratulations on his prosperity.

The Dude of the Provincial Press.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
The Acton Free Press, the liveliest newspaper in the Province, celebrated its thirtieth birthday last week by appearing in an enlarged form, printed from entirely new type. It looks simply immense, is full of choice reading matter and is one of the best printed local papers in the country, and we always find it one of the liveliest and most readable of our exchanges. Mr. Moore has our heartiest congratulations on his prosperity.

Next Spicy and Able Edited.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
The Acton Free Press, now entering upon its 30th year, comes to us this morning enlarged from next to 24 columns sheet. It is and has always been a most spicy, cheerful and able edited county newspaper, a credit to its town, and in its new venture we wish it production success, financially and otherwise.

Brightest and Nearest of Exchanges.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
The Acton Free Press has a new dress and enlarged to double royal. It was the initial number of the 23rd volume. The proprietor, Mr. H. P. Moore, now turns out as next and news a paper as any that comes to our exchange table, and we congratulate him on the property which the enlargement and other improvements indicate. The people of Acton need not be ashamed to own a newspaper of such standing as the Free Press. More power to his elbow and more encouragement to improve is all the harm we wish our county.

REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
Last week the Acton Free Press climbed up the pole of progressiveness and placed the pin one notch higher, and by the use of pin and persistence of the paper and the amount of printing reading matter contained in its columns, it could be hard to think it any higher. Success, Bro. Moore.

Great Pile-up in Congratulating.
PALMERSTON TELEGRAPH.
We have great pleasure in congratulating the Acton Free Press on the happy occasion of its 30th year in which it has continued the 30th year of its existence. Good, Friend Moore; and that the Acton Free Press should be able to make such enlargements is our warm wish for you.

May It Meet Unbounded Success.
MARKHAM STANBISH.
The Acton Free Press has always been a spicy, newsy, neat paper, and last week on commencing the thirtieth year of publication, it comes to hand enlarged and admirably improved. Mr. Moore's right deserves success. May it be unbounded in the Standard's wish.

Has Always Issued a Bright Newsworthy Sheet.
SARATOGA JOURNAL.
The Acton Free Press celebrated the jubilee year by donning a new dress. Friend Moore has always issued a bright, newsy sheet, and in entering its 30th year, the paper gives promise of better things. The Standard sheet, though, Bro. Moore, is not in keeping with the age.

Equal to any Village Paper.
GROTON HERALD.
We are glad to state that last week the Acton Free Press had enlarged its paper. The Free Press is an enterprising journal. Ten years of hard work and good business management has resulted in any village paper in the Province of Ontario.

Clean in Tone and Typography.
GROTON NEWS-BECKER.
The Acton Free Press has been enlarged and other wise from its former size and enlarged to double royal. It is now on its 30th year and continues to hand this week enlarged and improved. The Free Press ranks among our best printed exchanges. May it continue.

One of the Finest.
REMARKABLE EXPANSION.
Our respectful exchange, the Acton Free Press, comes to hand enlarged and improved. It is now on its 30th year and continues to hand this week enlarged and improved. The Free Press ranks among our best printed exchanges. May it continue.
