The young Folks.

SEPTEMBER. Here's a lyric for September. Best of all months to remember: Mouth when summer breezes tell What has happened wood and dell Of the joy the year has brought And the changes she has wrought.

She bag turned the verdure red: In the blue sky overhead She the harvest-moon has hung Like a silver boat among Shoals of stars, -- bright jewels set In the earth's blue coronet. She has brought the orchard's fruit. To repay the robin's finte Which has gladdened balf the year With a music liquid clear; And she makes the meadew grass

Catch the sunbeams as they pass. Till the autumn's floor is rolled With a fragrant cloth of gold. St. Nicholas for September.

THE PROPHETS NAMENAKE. Willie was asleep, and Dan was, lopely.

Willie is the minister's youngest son, and Dan is his dog. It was Souday morning, and every one was at church but these two friends, and they had been at play in the

It was warm and sunny, and through the loft window they could plainly hear the good minister preaching, for their house was next door to the church.

" Dan," said Wille, stretching himself out on the nice, soft hay, "it is better here than at church, for you can hear every word, and don't get prickles down your back as you do wnen you have .o sit up

Dan kissed him on the nost severa times, but when Willie went asleep he went to stay, and did not mind trides. So Dan gave it op at last. He sat down with the fiunniest look of care on his wise black face, and with one car ready for outside

Now the minister had for his subject, this Sanday morning, "Daniel." Alas! this was the name he always gave Dan when he was teaching him to sit up and beg, and other tricks. While the dog was in the hayloft thinking, the name 'Daniel," fell into the ready ear. Dan at once jumped down and ran into the church through the vestry door. He stood on his hind legs, with his forepaws meekly drooping close beside the minister, who did not see him. But the congregation did. When the minister shouted "Daniel" again, two sharp soprano barks said "Yes, sir," as plainly as Dan could auswer.

The minister started back, looked around coughed and wondered what he should do luxury a mosquito must be. pext. But just then through the vestry came Willie, with bits of hay sticking in his golden curls. His face was rosy from sleep, and he looked a little frightened. He walked straight toward his father, and took Dan in his arms, and said, "Please 'scuse away." Then he walked out again with 50 cts., and $1. Sold by N. McGarvin. The minister ended his sermon on Daniel as best he could; but then he made a resolve, that if he ever preached about the prophet Daniel sgain, he would remember to tie up his little black and tan name ake.
