At the end of October there was deposited in the Government Savings Banks the sum of over $4,000,000, an increase of over $2,000,000 in two years. If country is going to ruin at the rate it said to be by certain of its residents, it likely to arrive at its destination with a Halton's first repeal petition contained 2,160 names, and the total vote for the petition was 1,767, while the vote against it was much larger than for the act. The second petition just completed has only 1,770 names, and the indications are for more disastrous defeat for the antis.-London Adrertiser.

For eleven assizes in succession the Sheriff of Halton has presented the judge with a pair of kid gloves—probably a run of maiden assizes unprecedented in Anglo-Saxon history. The absence of crime i Halton hardly supports the contention that the county has grown worse under the Scott Act.-Chicago Canadian American.

The election petitions yet to be decided are: Against Conservatives in Kingston Dundas, North Lanark, East Bruce, West Middlesex, Peel, South Victoria, Muskoks and Algoma. Against Reformers in Halton. Russell, East Simooe, North Victoria Centre Wellington, East Elgin, East Hastings, Prince Edward and Glengarry.

The quarterly return made by Police Magistrate Young, of this county ending Nov. 30th, may be summarized as follows: 10 fines for violation C. T. Act, amounting to $650 and costs; 5 for third offences sentenced to two months each in jail; 2 for assault, fines $20 and costs; I sent to the Reformatory for 5 years; 1 committed for

ONE LIFE LOST-EIGHT BADLY TRJURED.

Sept. For over four weeks, every night

Grain, Dec. 3,-The "Royal City" was ever visited by a fire which endangered which was the barning of the Commercia hotel at 2 a.m. It was one of the largest hotels in the city. The flames had made awakened, and as the fire originated near the hall in the first flat, escape by the stairway was impossible. All the guests and boarders had to jump from the wir lows. The flames had made such rapid progress that it would have been death by ladder company. Some jumped from the fourth storey on to an adjoining roof. Most of them, however, leaped from the second and third storeys. All the inmates escaped in their night clothes. The domestics and women boarders were taken to other hotels and properly provided for.

INJURED IN ESCAPING. Mr. Haugh, the proprietor, with family of thirteen, slept on the second flat Mr. Hangh was severely injured in resc ing his children, and is now in the hospital Some of the boarders and domestics who amped from the upper storeys were also njured and taken to the hospital. The third and fourth storeys and the attic are completely gutted and the lower flats are so badly damaged that the hotel will have

ONE MAN BURNED TO DEATH. To the list of the injured has to be added the loss of one life, the body of Charles Rake, a moulder, aged 37, being founamong the debris on the third storey this afternoon. Search was made for his bod among the rains by about twenty of his companion moulders, and at 3:80 his charred remains were found. He was lying o his back, with one hand over his heart and the other at his side, broken. Decease was a member of the City band, and has It is reported in New York that the been in Guelph about six weeks. His relatives live near Berlin. His trunk ound in an alleyway, where he had probably thrown it from his bedroom window, but knowing the rough nature of the ground in the alleyway he did not follow it, and evidently in trying to make his way to a front window he was suffocated, as his body was found in a room across the alike?"

MIRACTLOTS ESCAPES, There were between seventy-five and eighty persons in the botel, and although many jumped from the second and third all escaped without broken bones. The screaming of the girls and women at the windows crying for help; and having jump, no help being at hand, were heartrending. Mr. Charles Haugh jumped from the fourth storey, and escaped with such slight injuries, that, on hearing two of his little brothers were still in the building, he rushed through the flames upstairs, tossed the little chaps to those below holding blankets, and then in jumping from the second storey himself received severe in juries and was taken to the hospital. David Pirritte was thrown by the breaking of a ladder from the third storey on to the telegraph wires, which broke his fall. He got off with a few bruises. Many others had very narrow escapes. LIST OF THE INJURED.

The following is a list of the most severeinjured:-John Haugh, the proprietor badly burned on face and hands and body proised; Miss Hanna Haugh, painfully injured on left side; Charles Haugh, right arm and left leg powerless, bad gash over left eye; James Clancy, hands and face badly burned; Miss Maggie Doberty, back ajured very severely; Miss Vina Checkley, back and shoulder painfully injured; Mis-Mary Reidy, injured internally and body bruised; Sarah Johnston, body very much bruised; Wm. Mieno, of Peterboro', hip dislocated and back injured; James Bogue, Peterboro', shoulder injured. Most of the above are in the hospital.

LOSSES AND INSUBANCES. The fire is supposed to have originated the furnace. The loss on the building will amount to about $10,000, insured for $9,000 in the Waterloo and Mercantile. The loss on the contents is estimated at $4,000; insured for $3,000 in the Royal of Liverpool. Every inmate of the Lotel lost clothing and valuables. Baird's Comedy Company estimate their loss at $300.
