The Acton Free Press.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1888.

MANY MINOR LOCALS

Collated by the Ever Thoughtful and Alert Free Press Reporters.

—Who'll be the nominees to-day?

—Will Acton have a Council for 1888.

—Another Dominion Election for Halton.

—New Year's day was quietly observed.

—The special services were closed in the Baptist church last week.

—The January thaw came to hand on time, but was of short duration.

—The new calendar of McColl Bros. & Co. oil merchants, Toronto, is very attractive.

—Our electors will pay at nominating candidates for the Municipal Council again to-day.

—Alfred Benham, of Georgetown, has been appointed bailiff of the Third Division Court.

—Mr. Geo. Storey has sold his 100 acre farm, east half lot 11, con. 5, Trafalgar, to Mr. John McDougall for $5,000.

—Over $70 poll tax was collected in Milton for last year, which is about three times as much as is generally collected.

—There will be service in the Baptist Chapel next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, as well as the afternoon service. Mr. Walton is expected.

—Messrs. Mark Sutton & Bros. have fitted up the skating rink and opened it for the season. They claim that it is now in a perfectly safe condition.

—The FREE PRESS carrier boy desires his patrons to accept his best thanks for the many favors tendered him upon the presentation of his annual address.

—The St. Ignace Mich. News continues to introduce new material, and under the careful superintendence of Mr. C. G. Cavanagh, it is rapidly improving and winning favor.

—A number of interesting Kansas papers have been received at the FREE PRESS sanctum from Mr. Alfred A. Farmer, agent of the St. Joe & Grand Island R. R., Seneca, Kansas. Mr. Farmer is a former resident of Acton; he is doing well in his western home.

—Messrs. Hollinrake & Sons, Milton, announce that as they take stock in February thousands of dollars worth of goods must be disposed of and be converted into ready cash before that date. A tremendous clearing sale commences on Saturday next. When you go to Milton be sure to call and learn what bargains are in store for all purchasers.

—The standard Canadian Almanac issued by Messrs. Copp, Clark & Co., Toronto, is one of the most complete fonds of general information in a small, cheap volume, we know of. It contains full and authentic commercial, statistical, governmental, ecclesiastical and financial information, and has been before the public annually for over forty years.

—The picture, "Suffer little Children to come to Me," offered by the Montreal Witness to their daily and weekly subscribers, is a work reproduced in oil colors with great richness and beauty, and it is a wonder to all who receive it how the publishers can offer so much at so small a cost. The leading judges of art in the Dominion all testify to its beauty as a work of art, their testimonies having been published in the Witness.

PERSONAL MENTION

Paragraphs Respecting Visitors to and From Acton, With Whom Free Press Readers Are More or Less Acquainted.

Mr. Fred Secord is visiting friends in Orillia.

Miss Maggie Matthews spent the holidays with friends in Brantford.

Mr. Chas. L. Young, of Orillia, spent New Years with Acton friends.

Mr. James Nicklin returned to his home in Lowell, Mich., on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Bricker, of Listowel, were guests of Dr. McGarvin this week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Phillips, and children, have been visiting friends at Orangeville this week.

Miss Robinson, of Georgetown, was a guest at the residence of Mr. W. H. Storey on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGarvin, and children, spent New Year's day with Orangeville friends.

Miss Minnie Swan returned yesterday from a visit to friends in London and other points west.

Mr. Richard N. Thurtell, an old Acton boy, has been elected a member of Teeswater Council.

Misses Celia Stafford, of Toronto, and Hannah, of Berlin, have been spending the holidays at home.

Mrs. W. Riddle, of London, and Mrs. Kirby, of Manitoba, were the guests of Mrs. Adam Dickson, last week.

Mr. Thos. J. Hughes who has been residing here for some time leaves this week for Walkerton High School.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Warren and son, Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stone and daughter, Toronto, spent New Year's at Cedar Creek Farm.

The election, by acclamation, of Dr. Robertson as Mayor, on Monday, gives general satisfaction. The position is not a new one for the Dr., he having filled the office before.—Milton Reformer.

The FREE PRESS takes pleasure in congratulating Rev. G. A. Gifford, M. A., of Ripley, who has been invited to and has accepted the pastorate of the Methodist Church, Acton, for next conference year, upon whom the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, (Ph. D.) has been conferred by an old university of high standing in the United States. This degree has been earned by Mr. Gifford, after several years of earnest toil amid the pressure of his pastoral duties.

—Go to J. Fyfe's, Acton, for your clothing. He can suit you for price, quality and style every time.

HOME GLEANINGS

Which are Mostly of a Local Character and all Interesting.

Acton's Board of Education.

Owing to the withdrawel of Mr. Wm. Williams there was no school election yesterday. The Board is now composed as follows:—Geo. Hynds, J. E. McGarvin, Dr. Lowry, Thomas Ebbage, Isaac Francis and A. E. Nicklin.

Eye Knocked Out.

Mr. Donald Cowan, 6th line Erin, met with a serious accident last week. When he was attending to his stock a cow hooked him in the eye, piercing the eyelid and dislodging the eye from its socket. Medical aid was called, and it was found necessary to remove the eye.

Fun for the Scotchmen.

The Epistles o' Airlie is the title of the collection, in book form, of the "Airlie" letters which have appeared in Grip during the last few years. It is the best book of Scottish humor ever published. Mr. J. W. Bengough has drawn special illustrations for this edition, and the book is destined to become immensely popular. Price 25 cents. Grip Publishing Company, Toronto.

Georgetown High School.

Another half-year's work at the High School has been closed. The attendance has averaged about eighty and school accommodation has been taxed. At the entrance examination there were thirty-nine candidates. No doubt a large portion of these will pass, and the majority of those who are successful will desire admittance to the High School here. What is to be done with them is the question.—Herald.

Letting Him Down Easy.

The Brampton Conservator says:—Will Smith, late of Cheltenham, moves to Pennsylvania in a few days, having secured a position in the Reformatory there for five years. The government pays the expense. Will secured this by too great a fondness for the contents of the mail bag he carried from Cheltenham to the C.P.R. station. The letter he took as a keepsake contained $100, and sent the reformatory will contain him.

The Successful Examination Teachers.

Following are the names of those who were successful in the examination at the County Model Schools:—Ephraim J. Buck, Susie Carrique, Wm. A. Gilchrist, Alphonso F. Brain, Maggie R. Kennedy, Donald S. Moore, Annie Coty, Wm. F. Patterson, John W. Chapman, Mary Nohan, Frank M. Werden, Maggie McDonald. A number of these, we believe, have been unable to secure schools for 1888, owing to the surplus of teachers throughout the Province.

Burglary at Cerwhin.

During the absence of the postmaster, Mr. Peter Little, in Guelph on Saturday afternoon, his store at Cerwhin was entered by some party or parties and some stuff taken. Entrance was effected by breaking in a window. Some one was noticed in the house by a passing neighbor, but his suspicions were not aroused until he had gone past and happened to turn round and see the window. By this time the party had made himself scarce. It is thought that some neighbor knew of Mr. Little's absence and took advantage of the opportunity to get what he wanted. The post-office was not molested with, so far as was known.

The Bell Telephone Office.

With regard to a paragraph appearing in a recent issue of the Free Press stating that acting Judge James Haverson had decided in court that any person paying a rental for a telephone had a perfect right to let whom they choose use it in spite of any rule of the company to the contrary," Mr. Haverson writes to-day that the Free Press was mistaken, that no such decision was given, and that in the particular case referred to the defence was "that the telephone had not been used by outsiders, not that the defendant could allow any one to use it."—Ed. F. P.

J. G. Owen of Streetsville Disappears.

On Saturday the rumor spread in town that the well-known auctioneer, J. G. Owen, of Streetsville, had left for parts unknown. Beyond from Streetsville this week confirm these rumors, and there is now no doubt that J. G. is rusticating in the Dominion of Uncle Sam. We are not in a position to say whether he took a pile of money or not. Some people claim he has gone away poor; others that he absconded with a large amount of borrowed money. The reasons for Mr. Owen's flight are not known. It was generally supposed that he was a man of means, and making money fast. Personally we have found him as square and honest a man as one could meet.—Brampton Conservator.

Christian Unity.

At the anniversary services of the Methodist church, Georgetown, last week, a number of the ministers from the sister churches were present. Among the addresses made on the occasion the Herald reports Rev. Joseph Fennell, incumbent of St. George's Church, as follows:—"Mr. Fennell spoke of the pleasure it gave him to associate with people of other denomination. He was very glad to be with the people of the Methodist Church on this occasion. Thought the time was coming when the churches would be united. The Methodists made the first move in this direction when they united the branches of their denominations." This is how it should be, and the spirit manifested by Rev. Mr. Fennell is greatly admired.

The Brick Church Soiree.

Unfortunately for the success of the annual tea-meeting of the Brick Church, the night was very stormy and the attendance much smaller than it otherwise would have been. A long list of speakers were invited but only Rev. R. Phillips, Acton, put in an appearance. Mr. Geo. H. Kennedy, Georgetown, occupied the chair in his usual acceptable manner. Short addresses were made by Revs. Messrs. Phillips, Swann and Barnby, the pastors, and Mr. H. P. Moore. Excellent readings were given by Messrs. Strachan and Bailey, of Rockwood, and Johnston of the vicinity. The Choir of the Rockwood Methodist Church rendered very creditable and highly enjoyable music. The viands provided by the ladies were abundant and relished by all.

A Much Regretted Failure.

It is a good many years since a business failure of any importance has occurred in Acton, and we regret that it now becomes our duty to announce a very serious one. Owing to the recent failure of the Toronto Tanning Co., and a firm in Port Hope, by which losses of some $6,000 were realized, Mr. James Moore, of the Canada Cordovan Leather Works, has been obliged to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Moore's integrity in business as in all other matters is unquestioned, and that he has been compelled to take the step referred to is universally regretted. This action will not effect the business of Moore & McGarvin, trunk and travelling bag manufacturers, in which Mr. Moore has been interested. The business of this firm will be resumed as usual after the annual stock-taking which is now in progress.

Concert in Rockwood.

An enjoyable concert was given in St. John's church, Rockwood, last Wednesday evening. Rev. George A. Harvey of Guelph, presided. The Guelph Glee Club contributed several numbers and were enthusiastically received. Songs were rendered by Mrs. Schultz, Miss Doran, Miss Chisholm, Messrs. Gallaher, Williams, Nicholas and Brazor, and a duet by Miss Chisholm and Mr. S. Saunders.

SCHOOL PRESENTATION.

On Friday Last a few of Mr. Baynton's friends called on him at his school in S. S. No. 10, Esquesing. After some preliminary proceedings, Mr. Jos. E. Bates took the chair and explained the object of their visit. The following address was read by Master Willie Hampshire, the other boys whose names are appended assisting in the presentation:

ADDRESS.

Dufferin School, Dec. 22, '87.

DEAR TEACHER.—It is with feelings of regret we have learned that you are about to sever your connection with us. During the time you have been with us, by your kind and obliging manner you have endeared yourself to all. Please accept these presents as a slight token of our love for and you as they will help to remind you of your many friends in Dufferin School. Our friendly interest in you will not cease; on the contrary, we will be pleased to hear of your success and happiness in whatever sphere of life Providence may have in store for you. In conclusion we all join in wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Signed, on behalf of your many friends,
WILLIAM HAMPSHIRE,
THOMAS MICHIE,
MALCOLM TURNER.

The presents were handsome and costly, consisting of a very handsome writing desk, with furnishings, a silver napkin ring, a fine Christmas card, and a richly engraved toilet glass.

The chairman made a well-chosen speech, commenting favorably on the fitness of the pupils' action in showing their respect; testifying to the progress of the school, and his own and the rest of the section's satisfaction during the past year; lamenting the causes which made it necessary for them to part with their teacher; and ended by wishing him success in his new school.

Mr. Baynton, in a few words, thanked the pupils for their kind and useful presents, and while disclaiming that he was altogether responsible for their advancement during the past year, he assured them they would always remain in his kindest remembrance.

The proceedings were closed by music and all present singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."—SUBSCRIBER.

ROCKWOOD NEWS.

The skating rink was opened for the season on Monday, when a good attendance enjoyed a few hours pleasant recreation.

The elections are over and I notice no one has since offered to shake hands with me more than twice in five minutes nor asked me if the baby had got that tooth through.

A concert was given in the town hall last Wednesday evening in aid of St. John's Church, but unlike the majority of concerts given by the people of St. John's Church proved a failure, if we except Mrs. Schultz, of Rockwood, and Messrs. Brazor and Gallaher, of Guelph. The Guelph Glee Club, which furnished at least one half of the program, is the most miserable combination of the kind we have ever heard in Rockwood.

After a great many years of waiting, the Roman Catholic people of this neighborhood had the pleasure of seeing the opening last Sunday morning for divine service of their first church in Rockwood. The consecration services were held at eleven o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Father Synnott; and in the evening at 7 o'clock an interesting and instructive lecture on the Pope and his jubilee was given by the Rev. Father Doherty, of Guelph. The occasion both occasions was very fine; the choir part taken by Miss Hayden, of Guelph, being beautifully rendered.

Rockwood, Jan. 3rd, 1888. N. Y. Z.

A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

Christmas Eve Breeze is made up of thirty-five pages, printed, besides papers of all sorts being short stories, and pictures fifty-seven. Both writers and artists are such as stand for timely help along the highway of life with good cheer in the bargain. If such an amount of such work of pen and pencil was made for Christmas books, they would cost as many dollars as cents in Eve Breeze.

Think of it, 320 worth of the stuff that Christmas books are made of for 20 cents! Besides there is a part not mentioned but which is full of interest, 32 pages of pictures of Christmas things to be got for a little work. There is many a boy and girl who will find in those 32 pages not only Christmas delight but hints toward wider fortune.

By all means have the Christmas Eve Breeze. If your bookseller hasn't got it send to the publishers, D. Lothrop Company, Boston.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE.

In the way of catalogue, Vick's Floral Guide is unequaled in artistic appearance, and the edition of each year that appears simply perfect, is surpassed the next. New and beautiful engravings, and three colored plates of flowers, vegetables, and grain, are features for the issue for 1888. Its lavender tinted cover, with original designs of most pleasing effects, will ensure it a prominent place in the household and library. It is in itself a treatise on horticulture, and is adapted to the wants of all who are interested in the garden or house plants. It describes the rarest flowers and the choicest vegetables. If you want to know anything about the garden, see Vick's Floral Guide, price only 10 cents, including a Certificate good for 10 cents worth of seeds. Published by James Vick, Seedsman, Rochester, N. Y.
