The Young Folks.

INTROSPECTION.

The days, as to their outward forms,
Are much the same to-day
And yet, each has a subtle charm
Of deepest mystery.

This charm I [illegible] unpath
As in my [illegible]
Where sitting [illegible]
At times in [illegible]

The flesh is [illegible]
And [illegible]
The spirit [illegible]
And would [illegible]

O matchless [illegible]
The impartial [illegible]

And make it [illegible]

B. F. Clark.

Cedar-Rivet Cr[illegible], 1888.

A DAUGHTER WORTH HAVING.

Two gentlemen friends, who had been parted for years, met in a crowded city street. The one who lived in the city was on his way to meet a pressing business engagement: After a few expressions of delight he said, "Well, I'm off, I'm sorry, but it can't be helped, I will look to-morrow at dinner for you. Remember, two o'clock sharp. I want you to see my wife and child."

"Only one child?" asked the other.

"Only one," came the answer, tenderly; "a daughter. But she's a darling."

And then the stranger in the city getting into a street car bound for the park.

After a block or two a group of five girls entered the car; they all evidently belonged to families of wealth; they conversed well. Each carried a very elaborately decorated luncheon basket; each was was well dressed. They, too, were going to the park for a picnic. They seemed happy and amiable until the car again stopped, this time letting in a pale-faced girl of eleven and a baby of four. These children were shabbily dressed, and on their faces were looks of distress. They, too, were on their way to the park. The gentleman thought as he saw all the group of girls, for he heard one of the ragged, with a look of disdain, call one of these ragamuffins are on an excursion, too."

"I shouldn't want to leave home if I had to look like that. Would you?" This to another girl.

"No, indeed! But there is no accounting for tastes. I think there ought to be a special line of cars for the lower classes."

All this was spoken in a low tone, but the gentleman heard it. Had the child too? He glanced at the little face and saw tears. He was angry.

Just then the exclamation, "Why, there is Nettie! Wonder where she is going?" caught him to look out upon the corner, where a sweet faced yellow girl stood beckoning to the car driver. When chartered the car she was warmly received by the five, and they made room for her beside them. They were profuse in exclamations and questions.

"Where are you going?" asked one.

"O, what lovely flowers! Who are they for?" said another.

"I'm on my way to Belle Clark's. She is sick, you know, and the flowers are for her."

She answered both inquiries at once, and then glanced toward the door of the car, saw the pale girl looking wistfully at her. She smiled at the child, a tender look beamed from her beautiful eyes, and then forgetting that she wore a handsome velvet skirt and jacket, and that her shapely hands were covered with well-fitted gloves, she left her seat and crossed over to the little one. She laid one hand on the boy's dark cheeks, as she asked of his sister, "This little boy is sick. Is he not? And he is your brother. I am sure."

It seemed hard for the girl to answer, but finally she said, "Yes, miss, he is sick. Freddie never has been well. Yes, miss, he is my brother. We're going to the park to see if flowers make Freddie better."

"I am glad you are going!" the young girl replied, in a low voice meant for no one's ear except those of the child. "I think it will do him good. It's lovely there, with the spring flowers all in bloom. But where is your lunch?" She thought to have a lunch after coming a ride?"

Over the little girl's face came a flush. "Yes, miss, we ought to for Freddie's sake. But you see, we didn't have any lunch to bring. Tim—he's our brother—he saved these pennies so as Freddie could ride to the park and back. Perhaps mebbe Freddie'll forget about being hungry when he gets to the park."

There were tears in the lovely girl's eyes as she listened, and very soon she asked the girl where they lived, and wrote the address down in a tablet which she took from a bag under arm.

After riding a few blocks she left the car, but she had not left the little ones comfortless. Half the bouquet of violets and hyacinths were clasped in the sister's hand, while the shabby, with radiant face, held in his hand a [illegible] from which he helped himself now and then, giving to his sister in a jubilant whisper. She said we could eat 'em all every bite when we get to the park. What nice flowers good and sweet to us."

And the little girl whispered back "It's cause she's beautiful as her clothes." The gentleman heard her whisper.

When the park was reached, the five girls hurried out. Then the gentleman lifted the little boy in his arms and carried him out of the car across the road, and into the green park, the sister, with a heart full of gratitude, following. He paid for a nice ride for them in the great carriage; he treated them to [illegible] at the park restaurant.

At two o'clock that day the two gentlemen met again.

"This is my wife," the host said, proudly introducing a comely lady, "and this," as a young lady of fifteen entered the parlor, "is my daughter."

"Ah!" said the guest, as he extended his hand in cordial greeting, "This is the dear girl whom I saw yesterday in the street-car. I don't wonder you called her a darling. She is a darling, and no mistake, God bless her." And then he told his friend what he had seen and heard in the horse-car.—N. Y. Ledger.

Rest and Comfort to the suffering.

"Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain both internal and external. It cures Pain in the Side, Back, or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism Toothache, Lumbago and any kind of a Pain or Ache. "It will most surely quicken the Blood and Heal as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Reliever, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted. "As it really is the best remedy in the world for Cramps in the Stomach, and Pains and Aches of all kinds, and is for sale by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle."

NO RESPECTER OF PERSONS.

It has been discovered that there is scarcely a family in this country that has not suffered, directly or indirectly, from the traffic in liquors. Its power is not only felt in the lower circles of society. It makes no distinctions in its march of ruin; it regards not the vigor of youth, the strength of manhood, or the weakness of age. No station in life, however exalted, no profession, however sacred, has been invincible to this foe; for

"There walketh a fiend over the land, and beside
By the side of the reaper Death
He dazzles alike with the glance of mirth,
Or quenches the light of the home-fired hearth,
With his foul and withering breath.

He nerves the arms of relentless hate
With the goblet's bended form;
He lurks in the halls of the rich and great,
In the beggar's moan at the pal[illegible] gate,
And curses the poor man's [illegible]

SHORT-HAND BUSINESS.

"You must be doing a great cr[illegible] business?" remarked a reporter who [illegible] to be in an uptown grocery store when the collector came in and tossed a bill [illegible] of I.O.U.'s on the desk, in a discouraged way.

"Yes, far more than I can afford. There are some of my hardest customers. See how this bill is marked in pencil."

On the back were the letters G.I.B.C., B.S., G.I.I.C. and the merchant explained.

"The first means 'Gone to Sea,' the second, 'Come Back Strapped,' and the third, 'Getting In His Coal,' which course is a further excuse for dunning off."

"But here is one marked 'H.C.—W.C. A.S.,'" continued the reporter.

"Well, I'll tear that up. That means 'Hopeless Case—Wife got a [illegible] this fall. That settles that, and the bill will never be presented again."—Free Press.

In Brief, And to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Dyspepsia [illegible] is misery. Indigestion is a [illegible] nature.

The human digestive apparatus [illegible] the most complicated and wonderful [illegible] in existence. It is easily put out of [illegible]

Greasy food, tough food, [illegible] cookery, mental worry, late [illegible] lar habits, and many other [illegible] ought not to behave made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has [illegible] wonderful work in reforming this [illegible] ness and making the American people healthy that they can enjoy [illegible] and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a [illegible] five cents.

JINGLES AND JOKELETS.

Half an Hour With the Wits and the Paragraphers.

Good the year round. Not [illegible] are a good blood purifier, [illegible] and mild purgative [illegible]

Look out for it.

If you are troubled with [illegible] however light the attack, [illegible] not allow it to settle on the [illegible] up the cough by loosening the [illegible] with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam.

Worms cause feverishness, restlessness during sleep. [illegible] Worm Exterminator is pleasant, safe and effectual. If your druggist [illegible] stock, get him to procure it for you.

Do You Believe in Signs.

We do: for instance the [illegible] liver are yellow eyes, sallow [illegible] pain under right shoulder, [illegible] headache, low spirits and [illegible] these signs may be relied on [illegible] Blood Bitters which is sure [illegible] irregularities of the liver.

Wheezing, gasping sufferers [illegible] receive quick and permanent [illegible] Southern Asthma Cure. [illegible] gists or by mail on receipt of price.

A Boon and a Blessing.

A boon and a blessing is [illegible] Yellow Oil, the great [illegible] healing remedy for external and [illegible] use. Yellow Oil cures all [illegible] rheumatism, lame back, [illegible] deafness, cramps, contracted [illegible] lameness. Procure it of your [illegible]

The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by intelligent people for [illegible] It has proven itself the very best [illegible] for colds, coughs, and pulmonary complaints.

Remarkable Restoration.

Matthew Sullivan, of Westport, Ont., was ill with dyspepsia for four years. Leading doctors did little good. Six bottles Burdock Blood Bitters, six bottles cured him, and he gained in weight to 17[illegible] pounds. B.B.B. cures the worst known cases of chronic dyspepsia after all else fails.

The signs of worms are [illegible] but the remedy is not always so well determined. Worm Powders will destroy them.

Some of the Western Politicians collect the seeds of a plant, powder and [illegible] and then bake into cakes, which they smear with oleomargarine and eat. In preparing this article of food they use an article known as Imperial Cream Tartar Baking Powder, that is acknowledged to be the best in the world.

Be on Your Guard.

Don't allow a cold in the head to slowly and surely run into catarrh, when you can be cured for 25c. by using Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. A few applications relieve incipient catarrh; 1 to 2 boxes are effective in chronic catarrh. Try it. Only 25c. and sure cure.

A dilapidated physique may be built up and fortified against disease by that incomparable promoter of digestion and forti[illegible] of the blood, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It counteracts Biliousness and Kidney complaints, overcomes bodily ailments especial with the feebler sex, causes the bowels to act like clockwork, and is a safeguard against malaria and rheumatism.

Presence of Mind.

Presence of mind is good in case of accidents and emergencies, and when coupled with Hagyard's Yellow Oil will often save life. Yellow Oil cures all painful injuries, burns, scalds, bruises, bites, rheumatic and neuralgic pains. It is in fact a handy and reliable [illegible]

Excellent reasons exist why Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil should be used by persons troubled with affections of the throat, lungs, sores upon the skin, rheumatic pains, corns, bunions, or external injuries. The reasons are, that it is speedy, pure and inobjectionable, whether taken internally or applied outwardly.

Messrs. Northrop & Lyman are the proprietors of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil which is now being sold in immense quantities throughout the Dominion. It is welcomed by the suffering invalid everywhere with emotions of delight, because it banishes pain and derives instant relief. This valuable specific for almost "every ill that flesh is heir to," is valued by the sufferer as more precious than gold. It is the elixir of life to many a wasted frame. If you have not purchased a bottle, do so at once, and keep it ready for an emergency. Its cheapness, 25 cents per bottle, places it within the reach of all. To the farmer it is indispensable, and it should be in every house.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Hagyard's Yerbaan Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least every bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where help was reported. Such a medicine as the [illegible] Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottle free, sold at ten cents. Regular size, $1. Sold by all Druggists and Peddlers in the United States and Canada.

Are you disturbed at night and robbed of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Probably no one thing is the permanent and [illegible] transitions from heat to cold [illegible] Burdock Blood Bitters [illegible] the blood, quickens [illegible] and increases the perspiration, which at this time are suddenly checked [illegible] poisons must be [illegible] The most [illegible] of disease is obstructed [illegible] what commonly goes by the [illegible] cold. Coughs, colds, [illegible] if attended to in time are [illegible] that if allowed to run their [illegible] literally prove the [illegible] Nine tenths [illegible] date of their [illegible] and the disease that [illegible] fast, drains [illegible] or the more insidious [illegible] One of the most [illegible] for all diseases of the [illegible] is Burdock Blood Bitters. [illegible] promptly, free and [illegible] which frees the lungs [illegible] by cleansing the system [illegible] to a healthy state.

Caution.

Much ill health is neglected [illegible] The utmost caution should [illegible] to keep the bowels regular. [illegible] of the bowels [illegible] and torpid action is Burdock Blood Bitters. Try it if troubled with constipation.

James H. Gilmour, of T. Gilmour & Co., carriage makers, Perth, Ont., says—I have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in my family, and find it a sure cure for sore throat, which it immediately relieved.

Nothing can cause serious illness. The use of Hagyard's Worm Syrup. It destroys worms effectually.

MANHOOD

How Lost. How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the Radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness induced by excesses or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice that the alarming consequences of early indiscretion may be radically cured. Pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
