Don't talk this legend on your door for those who are going through it—
Please take this legend with you as far as you can do it.
Is there any man in this town named Almon? Inquired a neighboring town's postmaster as he held up a letter addressed "P.M."

If all the kind words sent to us by our friends could be turned into our subscribers, your old friend the Free Press would make a quick leap toward a higher mark, and we would have yet more to do.
To ascertain at St. John, N.B., was to march all his customers with his autographs at the bottom of their accounts. There are some merchants and business men in Acton who would like to do the same thing.
An auction sale of ready-made clothing and general dry goods will be held in the old glove factory next to Kelly Bros'. Opening commencing next Saturday evening, and will continue every Thursday and Saturday during the month.
While visiting at the residence of Mr. Geo. L. Beardmore, Toronto, last week, Mrs. A. O. Beardmore, of Acton, had two diamond rings stolen. Signor Hampton, an Italian guest, was arrested for the larceny and committed for trial.
The ups and downs of life we see portrayed about the town, the small boy works his sled up hill and then goes travelling down. And that's the way with many men—up hill the work all is, and once they turn their face about, down life's course they whiz.
Walker some time ago bought a wooden factory to the extent of $4,000. Now the factory is bankrupt, and the town is asking it off how much better off it is for having created the town. It is time that the absurd system was abolished by act of parliament.
The total eclipse of the moon last Saturday evening was a very interesting sight. The bright moonlight rendered the night very interesting when the eclipse had nearly disappeared. It was visible two hours and a half throughout North America east of the Rocky Mountains, and South America.
The Mount Forest Representative has celebrated its fourth birthday. Under the able superintendence of Mr. J. T. Lambert this journal has met with remarkable success. It is one of the best local papers in the province and ably represents the constituency in which it is published, from a journalistic standpoint.

HOME GLEANINGS
Which are Mostly of a Local Character, and All Interesting.
Wm. Mulock, M.P., on Friday Night.
A mass meeting in the interest of Mr. Wm. Mulock, the Reform candidate, will be held in the town hall on Friday evening, in addition to Mr. Mulock, the electors will be addressed by Wm. Mulock, M.P., for North York. An interesting meeting is anticipated.
The Services in the Baptist Chapel.
The services in the Baptist church last Sunday were of a very interesting character. Rev. Mr. McLaurin, of India, preached in the afternoon, and the pastor Rev. J. S. Cummings in the evening. Three candidates were named for the baptism of the church after the evening service.
Real Estate Change.
Mr. W. H. Rutledge, butcher, who purchased the Matthews' farm some weeks ago, has, owing to litigation in progress between the present occupant and Mr. Matthews, abandoned the purchase. He has just purchased the farm of Mr. Thos. J. Speight, who owns some twenty-five acres in the east end of the town. The price paid was $3,100.
Another Fraud Upon the Public.
An exchange says that condition powers for making hens lay are being sold to the farmers at twenty-five cents per small package. A farmer who bought a package on opening it discovered it to contain nothing but bran, and after the agent had taken the money, there was not a bad food for hens, but a few cents for a quarter of a pound is rather high to pay for it.
Concert at Pine Grove School.
On Friday evening the 10th February, an interesting concert will be given in Pine Grove School, section 7, Nassagaweya, for the purpose of raising a fund for purchasing additional school apparatus. The programme includes a number of talented performers both foreign and local and will include:—The Misses Kennedy, Winn, and McPhail; Prof. Lee; Messrs. N. McPhail and W. J. Payer; Waterloo Dramatic Club and Brookville Brass Band.
A Horse Thief in Prison.
A man named East, who had stolen a horse, harness and cutter from Denis Head, Bruce County, was arrested by a constable at Marsville, Garrafrax, last week, while trying to trade off the harness. He stated that he had sold the horse in Shelburne, and traded the cutter with another man. The prisoner was brought to Grand Valley and taken before the magistrate, where he pleaded guilty and was taken to the prison at Guelph to await his trial.
The Late Joseph Barber's Will.
The will of the late Joseph Barber of Georgetown, is to be contested. Mr. Barber died rather suddenly early in January, leaving a will in which he disposed of his fortune which is estimated at $100,000, as being the great bulk of his real estate and personal effects to his two sons Frederick and Walter, the former being without the farm of 200 acres which was cultivated by the deceased. The plaintiffs, it is understood, are the daughters of the deceased.
The School Boys will Laugh at it.
"Here is a list of twenty words which not one person in ten," says a Baltimore paper, will spell correctly without preparation:—Abhorring, bayou, aisle, triable, agreeable, amateur, beleaguer, myriads, chitrea, illustrate, initial, crowd, extirpate, complaisant, recommended, collectible, chaotic, solicited, actually, preparation.
Sudden Death at Kildrilloe.
A week or so ago Monday, Mrs. Wm. Calder, of Kildrilloe, while engaged in baking for a tea-meeting to be held that evening, was suddenly stricken with paralysis, and died in a very short time. Some seven years ago mortification attacked one of Mrs. Calder's arms and she suffered amputation of the member in order to save her life, and it is supposed that the old trouble had something to do with her sudden death. The great loss has a gloom over the neighbors.
Death of a Good Man.
The death of Mr. Thomas Tushingham, father of Mrs. Allan Mann and Mrs. Arch. McPherson, of this place, at his residence, Toronto, last Thursday, was not unexpected. Our readers will remember that some two months ago he received an attack of paralysis through being struck by a street car, and has since gradually faded. His death was happy as his Christian life had been. Mr. Tushingham was well known here, and was for many years a resident of Limehouse. "He was a friend of all. Communion and Love Feast."
The usual quarterly sacramental services will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday, commencing at 10:30 a.m. Rev. Mr. Phillips expects to be assisted by Mr. Cockburn, the blind preacher.
A series of special services will commence with a four days' meeting commencing on Tuesday afternoon, 7th inst., at 3 p.m. Two services will be held each day. Rev. Robt. Davy, Georgetown; Wm. Birt, Nassagaweya and F. Swann, Rockwood will assist during the services.
No Surrender.
With remarkable energy the Rev. Henry Mercury, which was totally destroyed by fire by whiskey incendiaries, last Friday, issued its usual weekly edition on Friday. This was accomplished through the courtesy of the office of a neighboring town which immediately tendered the Mercury the use of its type and presses. Messrs. Smallfield & Son have already ordered a complete new outfit and in the course of a very short time will have the office in prime running order again. Their enterprise is commendable, and the ostensible desire of the friends who destroyed their property—to get rid of an effective advocate of law and order—is being admirably frustrated.
The Past Local Meeting.
The first public political meeting of the present contest held in Acton, took place in the town hall last Saturday evening in Mr. Henderson's interest. Considering the inclemency of the weather and that it was the most unfavorable evening of the week for business men to get out, the attendance was very large and indicated the fact that a general interest is taken in the contest. Messrs. Storey occupied the chair and after a few remarks introduced Mr. Henderson, the Liberal-Conservative candidate. Mr. Henderson in a neat half-hour's speech placed himself and his opinions before the electors in his usually polite manner. He thanked the electors for their support in the contest, and trusted they would honor Acton as well as himself on the 7th of February by electing him to represent them in the House of Commons of Canada. Mr. A. F. Campbell, Mayor of Brampton, and editor of the Conservator, followed in a lengthy and interesting speech. He covered all the ground possible to be touched in one address, and listened to with interest. His remarks upon the subject of Commercial Union, failed however, to receive the approbation of all; even some of his political brethren disagreeing with him. The meeting closed at half past ten.

Sad Drowning Accident at Burlington.
On Monday evening a number of boys were skating on the bay near "Kerns" dock at Burlington, the ice gave way, and Willis Kerns, 18-year-old son of La. Col. Kerns, and Richard Mortimer were precipitated into the cold waters of the bay. Kerns was rescued by a companion but the poor lad Mortimer was drowned.
A Rising Preacher.
The Ingersoll Chronicle referring to a lecture delivered in St. Andrew's church there by Rev. W. S. McTavish, B.D., of St. George's, former Nassagaweya boy, says:—Mr. McTavish is a young man of more than ordinary ability and bright prospects. He handled the delicate subject of his lecture in a masterly style; chaste and cultured, yet sparkling with wit and humor.
Home News First.
An exchange says:—If a family can afford only one paper, let it be a home paper, for it concerns a family to know what is being done in its own county more than it does to know the news of distant places. The city paper cannot, and does not pretend to give the local news that its country readers must have; but the good country paper does give a very fair epitome of the world's news. If both cannot be retained—if either the city journal or the country paper must go, let it be the former for nothing can supply the place of the local paper.
Change in Co-Partnership.
As will be noticed by advertisement in another column, Mr. James Moore has retired from the firm of Rogers & McGarvin, Trunk and Satchel manufacturers, and Mr. Robert Craine has entered into partnership with Mr. McGarvin. The new firm name is J. E. McGarvin & Co. The prospects for this important industry are very encouraging. Large advance orders are now in the house and every department is very busy. We trust that the business has a very prosperous future before it, and that the present staff of about 25 to 30 employees will be continually increasing.

$3.50 YOU WONDER WHY $1.50
FOR
We can give so much for the money? Thousands say this in their letters. It is because after plates are made it costs far less proportionately to print 100,000 copies than 10,000. During its nearly fifty years' existence the
has absorbed twenty-four other agricultural periodicals, and continues to be the recognized authority on agricultural matters the world over. With the old staff of editors who have made it a power in the farming community, reinforced with new writers, it will be more valuable than ever. Each number now contains nearly one hundred original illustrations and original articles on the Farm, Garden, Heath and Household, from over fifty different writers. Price, $2.50 a year; single No. 15c.
These magnificent works of art are neither old time chronicles nor ordinary engravings, but excellent pictures compiled for us by Photochroming and Manganotype on a heavy plate paper, 2 1/2x3 1/2 inches. Price $1.00 each. Both pictures (finished Dec. 20, 1887) forwarded in tubes, post paid.
OUR GREAT OFFER.
American Agriculturist (Eng. or Germ.), with choice of pictures, and our new volume, just published, entitled Our Homes: How to Regulate Them; beautifully illustrated, bound in cloth and gold price $1.00—all post paid, for $1.00. Or, the same, with both pictures, all post paid for $2.00.
Send postal for Specimen Number, English or German, full description of New Books presented to old and new subscribers, and full description of the Pictures, and Portrait of Munkacsy, the painter of these great works, now attracting world-wide attention.
